FOR ELECTION RETURNS, KEEP YOUR RADIO TUNED TO KVOE

For complete national and local election returns tonight, keep the dial of your radio tuned to KVOE (1500 kilocycles). Returns gathered from all over Orange county by Journal staff workers and from the entire nation by the Associated Press will be broadcast tonight at brief intervals over KVOE by The Journal from The Journal's broadcasting studio in its newsrooms. KVOE and The Journal will broadcast election returns at least until midnight, and will remain on the air thereafter until a definite indication of the trend of the election, both nationally and locally, is obtained. Results nationally are expected to be decided before midnight. A trained staff of workers from The Journal will gather city and county-wide returns as fast as precinct workers tally them, and they will be flashed over the air as rapidly as they are received. Polls close tonight at 7 o'clock. The first local returns will be broadcast from The Journal's studio over KVOE 30 minutes later. Broadcasting of national election returns, furnished by the Associated Press, will begin with The Journal's regular news broadcast at 4:30 p. m. today. Remember, it will not be necessary to 'phone The Journal for results. Just keep your radio dial tuned to KVOE (1500 kilocycles).

The Weather
World's Best Climate
Fair tonight and Wednesday

More and more people are reading The Journal—it's more interesting.

Santa Ana Journal

VOL. 2, NO. 160 — Published Every Afternoon Except Sunday — SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1936 — 2 CENTS PER COPY

HOME Edition

If your Journal is not delivered promptly, please phone 3600 before 8 p. m. and one will be sent you.

VOTERS SWAMP NATION'S POLLS

Record Smashing Vote Looms in County

UNIONS SEEK SHIP STRIKE FOR NATION

Operators Threatening 'Open Shop'; Tieup Still Spreading

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Leaders of the Pacific coast's general maritime strike today called for a tie-up of all American ships as they sought to extend the blockade to Atlantic and Gulf ports.

The "new policy" instructions issued by the joint committee representing seven dock and seagoing unions ordered crews of Pacific coast ships to walk off at "any United States port."

Crews of all other American ships were urged to "sit down" and draw the blockade tight around the entire United States.

Hearing Postponed

A hearing here by the federal maritime commission, from which union representatives bolted yesterday, was postponed indefinitely by Admiral Harry G. Hamlet.

Assistant Secretary of Labor Edward F. McGrady continued efforts to bring about resumption of settlement negotiations. The immediate critical issue was the employers' demand that "safety crews" remain on tied-up ships.

"We will have to take whatever steps are necessary," said Thomas G. Plant of the employers' committee, "to put men aboard for the safety of the vessels."

Interpreted as Threat

His statement was interpreted

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

LETTUCE WAR IS AT END

SALINAS. (AP) — The costly strike of 3200 Salinas and Watsonville lettuce workers, which started exactly two months ago, ended today.

Members of the Fruit and Vegetable Workers' Union voted early today to call off the strike and endeavored to obtain employment in lettuce sheds here and at Watsonville immediately.

At present, a large percentage of the shed labor is being performed by an estimated 1500 non-union workers imported by the Grower-Shipper Vegetable Association and individual shippers.

Vote 613 to 342

A. S. Doss, financial secretary of the union, said the vote was 613 to 342. It was understood the Watsonville unit of the union favored continuing the strike, but was out-voted in the Salinas area.

Doss said the terms would be similar in part to those outlined two weeks ago by Edward Vandeleur, secretary of the California State Federation of Labor. Preferential hiring, for which the union struck, is not considered.

Here Are Terms

Under the terms accepted by the strikers the employers may reserve the right to keep any of their non-union help presently employed; shippers will hire as many union members as possible, and may refuse to re-employ any persons regarded as "troublemakers."

The wage scale in operation for the last two years—75 cents an hour for packers and 55 cents for trimmers—will presumably remain in effect. Wages will also remain unchanged for other class of shed labor, boxmaking and truck driving.

Eleanor Roosevelt--Will She Remain the 'First Lady?'

SMILES — SCRUTINIZES — AN ASIDE — DICTATION

Theo Cobb Landon--Will She Move Into White House?

KNITTER — SPEAKER — DIMPLED — PORTRAIT

ONE THIRD OF BALLOTS ARE CAST HERE

Other Cities Showing Similar Totals In Check at Noon

At least a third of Orange county's 65,954 registered voters cast their ballots by noon today in an unprecedented rush to the polls, a check in various sections of the county revealed.

Santa Ana showed a 37 per cent vote by noon, and Anaheim reported approximately the same figure. At Orange 33 per cent of the voters had cast ballots.

Fullerton precincts reported a 25 per cent vote by 10 a. m., and were over the 30 per cent mark at noon.

Strong interest in both national and local contests accounted for the heavy morning vote, and caused observers to predict the total vote when polls close at 7 p. m. will be the greatest of all time.

Afternoon and early evening hours are usually the time of heaviest voting. If today's election follows the usual trend, polling places will be jammed this afternoon.

With 23 propositions to be voted upon, as well as candidates for president, congressman, state senator, state assemblyman and supervisor, it appeared that few precincts will have completed their count before midnight, and many will work until 4 to 6 a. m.

CITRUS UNHURT BY STRIKE

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—California citrus shipments, both coastal and intercoastal, have not been greatly affected by the waterfront strike, the California Fruit Growers Exchange said today.

"Since 1934 citrus shipments by water have been dropping off with the exception of transpacific shipments and exports to Europe. Recently lemons were shipped to Great Britain in some volume but these were shipped by rail to New York and by water from there," exchange officials reported.

This is the low season for export citrus shipments, officials said, and coastal ports will be served by rail.

Chamber Receives 12 New Members

Santa Ana chamber of commerce directors yesterday accepted 12 new members, it was announced today.

They were Firestone Service stores, Goodyear Service stores, Scoulers, Santa Ana Motor Parts and Machine works, See's Candy shops, 302 cafe, George L. Wright, Transfer, Guy Gilbert, insurance; H. R. Trott, jeweler; Pollyana Apparel shop, V. B. Anderson, welding and Model Laundry.

Food Prices Take a Drop

WASHINGTON. (AP)—A drop of 1.8 per cent in retail food prices from Sept. 15 to Oct. 13 was reported today by the labor department.

This drop brought the price level to 82.2 per cent of its 1923-25 average, 3.7 cent above the level as of Oct. 8 last year.

The Returns Trickle In

CLOSE IN KANSAS

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Early, incomplete returns from Kansas today indicated a close race between President Roosevelt and Gov. Alf M. Landon in the latter's home state.

Roosevelt polled a heavy vote, the unofficial returns indicated, in the populous cities of Kansas City, Kan., and Wichita. His advantage here overcame Landon's edge in Topeka and smaller towns.

Unofficial, incomplete returns from 210 of the state's 2690 precincts gave Roosevelt 8611 votes and Landon 8325.

Independence, Landon's home town, gave the Republican nominee a 148 to 65 advantage on early returns from four precincts.

Roosevelt ran ahead of Landon 1914 to 1359 in 66 Kansas City precincts and 1022 to 571 in 16 Wichita precincts. Topeka gave Landon an 1897 to 1501 lead in returns from 40 precincts.

ALL FOR LANDON

SOMERSET, Vt. (AP)—Somerset's seven registered voters cast all their votes for Gov. Alf M. Landon for president at dawn today. It was the second town in the nation to report its vote, Millsfield, N. H., having given Landon, 5, Roosevelt, 2.

10-TO-10 TIE

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—Returns from New Hampshire's first three towns to report in today's presidential election gave a 10-10 tie for President Roosevelt and Governor Landon. Waterville gave Landon 4, Roosevelt 1; Livermore, Landon 1, Roosevelt 7; and Millsfield, Landon 5 to 2 for Roosevelt.

TOWN LOSES RECORD

NEW ASHFORD, Mass. (AP)—This Berkshire town, defeated this year in its race to cast the first votes in the presidential election

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 6)

WILL SENTENCE DRUNK DRIVER

Compromising its verdict after five hours' deliberation, a superior court jury last night found R. L. Dalton, Santa Ana rooming house proprietor, guilty of a simple count of driving while drunk. The charge is a misdemeanor.

Dalton had been tried on two counts of drunk driving, one a felony, and one a misdemeanor. Charges grew out of a traffic crash the evening of Aug. 5 in Costa Mesa. J. T. Nichols of Santa Ana, WPA crossing guard and passenger in Dalton's car, was injured.

Superior Judge James L. Allen will pronounce judgment Friday. Dalton was defended by Otto A. Jacobs, Santa Ana attorney. Assistant District Attorney James L. Davis prosecuted the case.

FRENCH ADMIRAL DIES

RENNES, France. (AP)—Vice Admiral Antoine Schwerer, former commander in chief of France's Atlantic fleet, died today at the Chateau de la Derre at Grand-Fougeray. He was 74 years old.

F.D.R. TAKES EARLY LEAD IN KANSAS

Balloting Expected To Set Record; Violence Mars Kentucky Vote

By the Associated Press

Amid increasing portents of a record shattering vote, the nation today scanned the mixed trends of early returns from a hard fought Roosevelt vs. Landon election contest.

Running according to pre-ballot forecasts, Franklin D. Roosevelt piled up a mounting lead in the solid South. In New England, Alf M. Landon held onto a margin of two score votes, all of them cast and counted before breakfast time.

F. D. R. Leads In Kansas

In other sections there was seesawing, with the Democratic nominee most frequently ahead on the basis of scattered returns that totalled only a pin-point fraction of the 45,000,000 figure predicted by some as the possible 1936 vote total.

In Landon's home state of Kansas, an incomplete vote from 126 precincts out of 2690 gave Roosevelt 2715 to 2133 for the Republican nominee. Fifteen Topeka precincts gave Landon a 675 to 515 advantage.

Disorders At Polls

In West Virginia, incomplete returns from 30 of Huntington's precincts gave the Democratic standard-bearer 1926 votes as against 1176 for Landon.

Few reports of disorders at the polls were heard across the nation up to mid-afternoon. In one of the few instances, an election officer was shot and critically

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 3)

REBELS SIGHT THEIR GOAL

(By the Associated Press)

Fascists planted their guns today almost in the shadow of Madrid.

Insurgents under Gen. Jose Varela, sweeping toward the capital from the south, entered the village of Fuenlabrada, seven miles away and less than three miles from a government military airport at Getafe, a Madrid suburb.

They also occupied the village of Pinto, about 10 miles south of Madrid at the opposite end of a contracting Fascist semi-circle of men, artillery, tanks and war planes.

Preparations were speeded for an attack on Madrid which insurgent officers said they were confident could be taken in no more than four days.

Three Fascist fliers were killed near Talavera de la Reina when their tri-motored Martin bomber was shot down by government war planes. They bailed out from a low altitude but crashed to earth under half-opened parachutes.

Fascist officers, literally within sight of the towers in the center of Madrid, said the government defense line was melting. They declared the Madrid militia men were abandoning the fight and running back to Madrid.

Government armored trains were forced out of action when insurgent bombers cut railroad lines from Madrid to Toledo and Aranjuez.

VOTER, 97, CASTS 97TH BALLOT

Celebration of his 97th birthday today kept James M. Talcott of 1910 North Main street away from the polls until after 96 of his neighbors had cast their votes, placing his name 97th on the list of voters in Precinct No. 70.

Whether or not this was the 97th time he had voted in his life could not be determined, as he departed for more birthday celebrations immediately after voting; but the omen of the recurring numbers possibly points to 97 elections to come—or may be just 97 amendments to vote upon. Talcott voted first in 1860.

Did You See:

DR. MILO TEDSTROM getting a ticket for blocking a driveway on South Main street?

* * *

D. W. TUBBS letting his whiskers grow on his day off?

* * *

COUNTY CLERK J. M. BACKS AND GANG working harder than ever despite the legal holiday?

Daughter Located After 25 Years

By KENNETH ADAMS
(Copyright Applied For)

A Santa Ana girl and her mother who had not seen each other since the daughter was a baby 25 years ago had been reunited today. The daughter's impelling desire to see her mother's face has been gratified.

Equally happy is the mother, in another Southern California town. Until last week had not seen her daughter since a tragic night 25 years ago when the mother's tears washed the little face already so dear to her, the eyes closed in baby slumber.

Circumstances forced the mother to place the baby girl in the care of others when she was but a few hours old.

The baby grew to womanhood as Lois Stewart, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stewart of West Fifth and King streets, Santa Ana. Four years ago she was married to Harold Martin. Mrs. Martin and her mother were reunited through a strange chain of seemingly unimportant events when fate contrived to use Miss Edith Hallaway, 2000 South Ross street, as the moving force in the human drama.

At the time of Mrs. Lois Mar-

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 5)

Baby Dies in Blaze at Cabin

SANTA MONICA. (AP)—A five-months-old baby died today in fire which destroyed a cabin in Topanga canyon.

Mrs. Ray Bodden, mother of the infant, said the fire was caused by the explosion of a stove. She threw water on the baby and carried it outside.

The baby was taken to Santa Monica hospital. It was dead when it arrived, apparently from suffocation.

Youth Recovering From Amputation

Seriously injured Sunday when he was struck by an automobile in Orange, Albert Curry, 19, Tustin, was reported slightly improved today at the county hospital.

Curry's leg, badly crushed as the car struck his motorcycle, was amputated Sunday night.

TORNADO ROARS THROUGH CITY

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)—A tornado struck Cape Girardeau shortly before last midnight and, in a minute of destructive fury, damaged 150 homes and store buildings, causing loss estimated at from $50,000 to $75,000.

The southwestern residential section and the "Good Hope street" business district suffered chiefly from the violence of the winds, which missed the main business area by only a few blocks.

A torrential rain followed the storm, driving some families from their wind-damaged homes. Plate glass windows were smashed in stores and merchandise scattered for several blocks.

Journal's Color Comics Brighten S. A. Homes Today

Don't scold wife if the biscuits burn tonight.

She probably is so busy reading The Journal's new comic section that she hasn't had time to keep her mind on supper.

You'll enjoy this new regular Tuesday feature — headlining Major Hoople, Alley Oop, Boots, Easy, Myra North and a dozen others in color.

Combined with The Five-Star Weekly — which will be issued hereafter on Thursday instead of Saturday—it will give Journal readers two high-class entertainment supplements during the week.

Quads Born in Log Cabin; Only Two Live

SENATH, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Pearl Bridges, 35-year-old wife of a southeast Missouri share-cropper, gave birth to quadruplets in her log cabin home near here last night, but two of the infants died this morning and the others fought an unequal battle for life.

Dr. Frederick William Speidel, 68-year-old country doctor, delivered the babies by the light of a flickering oil lamp in the two-room dwelling.

Mrs. Bridges, wife of James Bridges, 44, gave birth to a boy and three girls in six minutes, starting at 6:30 o'clock last night.

"Help will have to get through if the other two babies are to live," Dr. Speidel said when informed of the death of the boy and one of the girls. "The other two are in serious condition.

"The Dunklin county doctor and nurse tried to get through early today and failed. It has rained all night and the road is practically impassible. There is four feet of water in the lowlands between

(Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 7)

Radio Election Chart

Follow tonight's election broadcasts on the election chart especially prepared for your convenience and run on the first page of the second section of tonight's Journal. This handy chart will enable you to keep track of preliminary and final returns of the national and local races. Clip it out and take it to the radio when you tune in on KVOE. Just another exclusive community service by The Journal—the paper that people can trust.

JURY IN CHECK CASE GIVEN DISCHARGE

Trial to Be Reset Next Friday By Superior Judge Scovel

Deadlocked after 16 hours deliberation, a superior court jury trying W. K. Murphy, president of the now defunct Parker Ice Machine company of San Bernardino, on charges of grand theft and passing a bogus check, was discharged today by Presiding Judge G. K. Scovel.

Murphy had been accused by the district attorney's office of bilking George Ward of Long Beach of $550 in a fraudulent business deal and of having passed a bad check for $450 in the same transaction.

The case will be reset for trial Friday by Judge Scovel. Murphy was defended by J. L. Gilchrist of Los Angeles. Deputy District Attorney James E. Walker, prosecuted the case.

King Edward in Peace Pledge

LONDON. (AP)—King Edward today pledged his nation to do all in its power "to further the appeasement of Europe."

Standing in front of the throne in the house of lords, garbed in the heavy state robes of gold-edged crimson velvet, the 42-year-old bachelor monarch made this significent plea for peace to the bristling armed camps of troubled Europe.

The new sovereign, opening the first session of parliament in his reign, announced that after the coronation in London next May he would go to India to be crowned emperor.

He also called an imperial conference to meet in London next May.

Burglars Get Loot of $1500

LOS ANGELES. (AP) — Burglars invaded two business places early today, escaping with $1500 in cash from a market and carrying away a steel safe from a branch office of the Southern California Telephone Company. The safe contained $300 in cash and $100 in checks.

Eight Flee Jail In Carson City

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Eight prisoners, all of whom were awaiting trial on federal Dyer act charges for transporting stolen automobiles across state borders, escaped from the Ormsby county jail at Carson City today, Chief of Police Lou Gammell of Reno was informed.

To Ease a Headache Fast

Get Real Quick-Acting, Quick-Dissolving Bayer Aspirin

See How Genuine Bayer Tablets Work

In 2 seconds by stop watch, a genuine BAYER Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work. Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a glass of water. By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating. What happens in this glass . . . happens in your stomach.

Virtually 1¢ a Tablet Now

If you suffer from headaches what you want is quick relief.

Genuine Bayer Aspirin tablets give quick relief, for one reason, because they dissolve or disintegrate almost instantly they touch moisture. (Note illustration above.)

Hence — when you take a real Bayer Aspirin tablet it starts to dissolve almost as quickly as you swallow it. And thus is ready to start working almost instantly . . . headaches, neuralgia and neuritis pains start easing almost at once.

That's why millions never ask for aspirin by the name aspirin alone when they buy, but always say "BAYER ASPIRIN" and see that they get it.

Try it. You'll say it's marvelous.

ONLY 15c FOR 12 NOW

2 FULL DOZEN FOR A QUARTER

LOOK FOR THE BAYER CROSS

Pot-Pourri of Election News From Nation's Voting Booths

FREEZING WEATHER

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)— Freezing weather sent Missourians scurrying all the quicker into the state's 4357 polling places today. In the first four hours here, a vote of 100,000—almost one-fourth of the city's registration of 426,786—was estimated on the basis of reports from key precincts. The vote in Kansas City in the first three hours was estimated at 80,000, the largest ever cast in such a period.

COUNT BALLOTS EARLY

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Counting of ballots in the presidential election started at 10 a. m in approximately a third of Kansas' 2690 voting precincts.

Kansas law provides for double election boards in precincts which cast at least 400 votes in the last previous election. In those precincts one board started working at 10 o'clock to count ballots.

In the smaller precincts, the single board does no begin counting until the polls close at 7 o'clock.

POLLS BURN DOWN

WINNEBAGO, Neb. (AP) — The polling place burned down here today in the midst of voting. The voting supplies were moved to another place and balloting continued. Daniel Stubbs, assistant attorney general, advised officials by telephone it was legal to move the polls in an emergency.

DONKEY LOSES BOTH WAYS

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—Upon the Roosevelt votes of South Carolina and Mississippi depended today an election bet of the states' lieutenant governors which called for the loser to ride a donkey to Washington. If South Carolina has fewer Roosevelt votes than Mississippi, J. E. Harley has promised to make the ride, and if the order is reversed the excursion goes to J. B. Snyder.

OHIO POLLS SWAMPED

COLUMBUS, Ohio. (AP)—Ohio's electorate swamped polling places in record numbers today. Rain, snow flurries and colder weather had no apparent effect on what George Neffner, state election expert, predicted would be the largest election in Ohio's history. Neffner estimated 2,800,000 would cast ballots before the 8600 polling districts close at 6:30 p. m. The record vote is 2,644,501, cast in the 1932 presidential election.

BROWDER, THOMAS VOTE

NEW YORK. (AP)—Earl Browder, and Norman Thomas, Communist and Socialist presidential candidates, respectively, voted early today. Thomas went to the polls with his wife at 9 a. m. (EST)). Browder went alone at 8 a. m. (EST) to his neighborhood polls, in a garage at Yonkers, N. Y., and voted.

F. D. R. CASTS VOTE

HYDE PARK, N. Y. (AP)—President Roosevelt and eight members and friends of his family cast their votes shortly before noon today in a little green and white town hall in the village's first election district.

JIM FARLEY VOTES

NEW YORK. (AP) —James A. Farley, generalissimo of the Democratic campaign, voted at 9 a. m. today and straightway motored to Haverstraw, N. Y., a few miles of New York on the Hudson river and his home town.

PREDICT BIG VOTE

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—California's citizens turned out under clear skies for what political observers predicted will be a record vote in today's election. Observers predicted that when the polls close tonight more than 2,500,000 of the state's 3,253,821 registered voters will have cast ballots. Registrar of Voters William Kerr of Los Angeles county estimated the balloting there may reach as high as 80 per cent of the 1,396,606 eligibles. Registrar C. J. Collins of San Francisco looked for a turnout of 270,000 or more of the county's 315,000 voters.

AND AL CASTS HIS

NEW YORK. (AP)—With the customary brown derby perched on the back of his head and a cigar held tightly between his teeth, Alfred E. Smith cast his ballot in a Madison avenue polling place at 11:40 a. m. today.

LANDON VOTES EARLY

INDEPENDENCE, Kan. (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican nominee for the presidency, cast his vote in his home precinct here this morning at 8:40 o'clock.

GARNER DOES DUTY

UVALDE, Tex. (AP)—Vice President John Nance Garner cast the thirteenth ballot in the general election here today. Informed of the number, he grinned and said nothing. Mrs. Garner's ballot was No. 14. The vice president and his wife voted in improvised booths on the south side of a school while a cold wind whistled from the north. They marked their ballots in about three minutes. Despite the short lapse of time, Garner registered impatience. "Hurry up," he told his wife.

$500 FOR ONE VOTE

NEW YORK. (AP) — New York City's one-man precinct, Rabbi Nathan Wolf, cast his vote shortly after noon today, in the barber shop designated as a polling place for him alone. Rabbi Wolf, who comprises the 40th election district because of a quirk in geographical lines, was welcomed by a crowd of reporters, cameramen, and curious. It cost New York about $500 to register his ballot, but until the polls close tonight no one will know how he did vote.

FOR COUSIN FRANK

ORTING, Wash. (AP)—Held to his bed by rheumatic pains, Daniel H. Delano, 94, sent his 88-year-old wife to the polls today to vote for his fourth cousin, Franklin D. Roosevelt. The Orting Delanos, he asserted, would "continue to vote for Cousin Frank as long as he behaves himself."

FIRST TOWN TO VOTE

MILLSFIELD, N. H. (AP)—This tiny northeastern New Hampshire town stole a march on the entire nation today and by lamp light in a temporary tar-paper roofed town hall cast five votes for Gov. Alf M. Landon for president and two for President Roosevelt. Aided by a New Hampshire law which states that polls must not open later than 10 a. m., and beating New Ashford, Mass., which customarily is the first town in the country to exercise its constitutional right, the voters entered the town hall promptly at 12:01.

KNOX CASTS BALLOT

CHICAGO. (AP) — Col. Frank Knox, Republican vice presidential nominee, cast his vote at 8 a. m. and went to work for a day of "business as usual" in his newspaper office. Aides said he planned to watch the election returns in his office tonight.

HOOVER VOTES FIRST

PALO ALTO. (AP) — Former President and Mrs. Herbert Hoover voted today. Mr. Hoover voted first, and then Mrs. Hoover marked her ballot. There was no "horseplay" as at a former election, when Mr. Hoover was asked his name and other information.

MIDNIGHT VOTERS

WASHINGTON. (AP) — America began voting long before sunrise today and will not finish until 11 p. m., eastern standard time. State laws regulating the opening and closing of the polls vary greatly. First unit to open and close was little Millsfield, N. H., which began voting at 12:01 a. m., and before 1 a. m. counted its complete tally, 5 for Landon, 2 for Roosevelt.

UNION PARTY STICKS

FARGO, N. D. (AP)—Congressman William Lemke, Union party candidate for president, asserted that "The Union party is here to stay," as he and Mrs. Lemke cast their ballots today in voting booths set up in the city filtration plant.

GOVERNOR GOES NORTH

LONG BEACH. (AP)—Frank F. Merriam, Republican governor of California, voted at 9:30 a. m. today at precinct No. 138. A half hour later Mrs. Merriam voted, and then the two left by automobile for Sacramento.

NO ELECTION HERE

PIERRE, S. D. (AP)—Unorganized Armstrong county, in past elections a "Democratic stronghold," did not vote today. The county, containing an area of 530 square miles, has only three or four votes," said officials of Stanley county, to which Armstrong is attached for administrative purposes.

SUPERVISOR VOTE HOLDS LIMELIGHT

At least one political battle of some local significance will be joined today at the polls, when Santa Ana picks a supervisor from the first district.

Voters today were eagerly awaiting outcome of the squabble between J. Frank Burke, one-time publisher of the Santa Ana Register; A. B. Berry, editor of the Santa Ana Independent, and Supervisor W. C. Jerome, which was culminated Saturday and yesterday with the arrest of Burke and Berry, and the start of a $50,000 suit for false arrest directed by Burke against Jerome.

The warfare burst into the open when the contest between Jerome and Steele Finley for supervisor's post was culminated Friday with a broadside blast in the Independent, directed at Jerome.

Advertisements were published attacking the Jerome record and publishing phostatic copies of analyses made of road oil samples, reputedly showing the oil to be beneath the specifications set up by the county in its agreement with the Eden Refining company.

Jerome retaliated with the arrest of Burke and Berry, on grounds they had authorized the advertisements without causing them to be signed. Burke's suit against Jerome followed.

When William Iverson, partner in the oil company, replied to charges in the Independent, Editor Berry immediately filed a libel suit against him, claiming he had called the publication a "scandal sheet."

Today voters went to the polls divided between interest over the outcome of the race and probable outcome of the battle of lawsuits which flamed over the week-end.

REPORTS DOG THEFT

Theft of a Scottie dog from his ranch at Placentia boulevard and Anaheim road yesterday by "a Mexican with a truck" was reported to the sheriff's office yesterday by M. E. Johnson, route 3, Anaheim.

MORE ABOUT STRIKE

(Continued From Page 1)

by observers as the first threat from employers to replace strikers with non-union crews.

The first official action against strikers came in Philadelphia where Mayor S. Davis Wilson declared the "sympathy" walkouts of seamen illegal and ordered the arrest of pickets. His police "strike squad" jailed seven men who refused to "move on."

Vessels in paralyzed Pacific coast ports increased to 150 or more and Joseph Curran, head of the seamen's defense committee at New York, claimed 133 ships were idle at Atlantic and Gulf ports.

VIOLENCE REPORTED AT SAN PEDRO PORT

SAN PEDRO. (AP)—Police stationed in the harbor district because of the maritime strike arrested five men today after two Medicine Bow, Wyo., oil workers reported they had been beaten and robbed.

The oil workers, Ted Higginson and Bert Hatcher, were bruised and lacerated, they said, on the road between San Pedro and Wilmington after five men accosted them in a beer parlor and warned them they were in danger.

The men, they said, offered to drive them to a Wilmington hotel and enroute they were attacked and thrown from the automobile.

Forty-one ships are at dock or anchor, abandoned by their crews.

Crews of the Panama-Pacific liner California and the Dollar liner President Wilson, which arrived over the week-end from the East coast, walked off their ships.

Eastern crews of the freighters were engaged in a "sit down" strike, and it was announced the men on the two latter vessels would be paid off.

The Los Angeles police department's special strike force was ordered increased to 600 men today.

With continued refusal of the longshoremen's union to remove perishable cargoes, including those of half a dozen banana carriers, the United Fruit steamer Talamanca, with 50,000 stems aboard, sailed southward after having circled the roadstead for several hours yesterday.

A portion of the 8000-ton cargo of corn aboard the Greek tramp steamer Ariadne, which arrived here last week from Argentina, was reported to be wet and sprouting.

MORE ABOUT ELECTION

(Continued From Page 1)

wounded at McRoberts, in the eastern Kentucky mountains.

From the metropolitan centers of New York, Chicago and elsewhere came reports that heavy voting promised to shatter all records. The presidential and vice presidential nominees of both major parties all had voted well before noon, and even the weatherman held out an encouraging hand.

Weather Is Mixed

Late reports told of snow and rain in some sections—abnormal cold west of the Mississippi, but mild weather in the east—and led to a weather bureau statement that voters staying away from the polls would have to find some other excuse.

Although the voting started shortly after midnight, the fact that many polls will remain open until 11 p. m. eastern time dimmed hope of anything conclusive until long after nightfall.

All the nominees were on home ground for the ceremony of entering the polling booths amid the clicking of photographers' shutters; President Roosevelt at Hyde Park, Governor Landon at Independence, Kan., after an overnight train ride from Topeka; Col. Frank Knox, Republican vice presidential nominee, at Chicago; Vice President Garner, Democratic nominee for re-election, at Uvalde, Texas, and other candidates at their respective home towns.

Speak Final Words

Last night they said their final pre-election words. Mr. Roosevelt speaking from Hyde Park by radio, told his listeners they should not be "afraid to vote as you think best for the kind of a world you want to have."

Governor Landon, in his final speech from Topeka, urged the voters to go to the polls "resolved that the American way of life shall not fail."

Fugitive Returns Deputy, So Latter Loses His Job

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Sheriff Smoot Schmid dismissed from his staff of deputies today a peace officer of 30 years experience because a fugitive returned him—instead of his returning the fugitive — from Pueblo, Colo.

Sheriff Schmid said the deputy went to Pueblo to return H. G. Van Nort, charged here with unlawfully removing a mortgaged automobile from Texas.

Several days later, Schmid said, Van Nort drove the deputy's car to the jail, parked it, walked into the jail office, tossed the deputy's gun and handcuffs on the jailer's desk and said: "Here I am, book me. Your deputy is out in the car."

Schmid said it was necessary for another deputy to drive the officer home.

MORE ABOUT REUNION

(Continued From Page 1)

tin's birth in Tucson, Ariz., her mother was the wife of Patrick Harrie, whom she had married after the death of her first husband, father of Eric and Margaret Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Harrie were parents of John, four years older than Lois, and Mary, two years older than Lois.

Separated from Mr. Harrie before the birth of Lois, the mother realized that it would be impossible for her to earn a living for the four other children and still give the baby the care to which it was entitled, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, then of Tucson and with no children of their own, wanted the baby and the mother promised it to them before its birth. The Stewarts told the mother they had named the baby Lois and when the girl was nine days old they moved to Santa Ana.

A few months later the mother brought her family to a city not far from Santa Ana, not knowing the whereabouts of the Stewarts. The Stewarts reared Lois with loving care, telling her when she was old enough to understand that somewhere she had a mother, a sister and brother. Lois did not know of her half-brother and half-sister.

Name Changed

Three years ago Lois' sister Mary secured a position and came to Santa Ana to live. Mary and her brother had dropped the name of Harrie and had taken that of Ward, as had their mother. In the three years the two sisters lived in the same city, they passed each other on the street and perhaps sat near each other at the theater.

Each had longed for a sister, Lois for Mary of whom her foster parents had told her, and Mary for a younger sister, although she had never heard of the existence of Lois until four years ago when her mother told her of the little sister placed in the care of the Stewarts under crucial circumstances.

Striking Resemblance

In was in 1933 that Edith Hallaway met Mary Ward and the two soon became inseparable pals. Later Mary married and became Mrs. Mary Carlock of Bakersfield. It was shortly after this that Edith Hallawoy saw Lois Stewart Martin for the first time in the Ryan grocery store at Fifth and Artesia. She was struck by Mrs. Martin's marked resemblance to her friend, Mary Ward. Speaking to her of it, she asked Lois her name before she married. Lois had been told by the Stewarts her name was Harrie; so the name of Ward meant nothing to her.

Curiously enough, Edith met Lois in the same store again last September. Again Edith was amazed at the remarkable resemblance and promised to show Lois a picture of her friend Mary. Thinking it unimportant, Edith forgot the picture; and the slender chain of circumstances which was to reunite a family came close to snapping.

Writes to Mother

However, Edith was to play the important role in reuniting this family. A friend offered her a ride as far as Bakersfield and there Edith visited Mary. This offer of a ride was another link in the chain. Edith told Mary of the young Santa Ana matron who looked like her, whose mannerisms were like her and who, most of all, walked just as she did.

Mary said nothing to Edith of the little lost sister, but she wrote to her mother. The mother lost little time in calling on Edith to find the "girl who looked like Mary." Obtaining the address, the mother started for the Stewarts. The "girl who looked like Mary" was not at home and the mother turned away. She drove her car down West Fifth street, hoping to find Lois walking home. She saw her walking down the street, her arms filled with groceries.

The Meeting

Hope and fear battled in the mother's breast. Would her baby understand she had given her up that she might be cared for as her own mother could not care for her? When the girl told her she was Lois Stewart, the mother asked: "Are you interested in finding your folks?" Lois was.

They went into the house. They sat in chairs facing each other. With a sudden flash of intuition, Lois leaned forward and asked breathlessly, "Are you my mother?"

The older woman did not answer this question at once. First she questioned Lois closely about her life. Then she finally answered, "Yes, I am your mother!"

Tears of Happiness

It was a dramatic moment for mother and daughter as they found solace for 25 long years of separation in each other's arms. The tears which filled the eyes of mother and daughter were ones of happiness, not of sorrow.

Because of delicate health of the mother and because this lost daughter was her "heart's secret," as she said, her name is being withheld. Doctors have warned her against undue excitement, and the strain of the dramatic happenings of the last few days has told on her health.

The mother has married again and has found happiness in the city where she has lived so near her daughter for the past 24 years. Many happy reunions are in store for this family, for Lois has not yet met her sister Mary or her brother John, who now is 29 years old and who lives with his mother.

And Edith Hallaway, who brought this family together, will be a welcome guest at some of these reunions which will take place shortly.

WPA Unit Is Retained

Although other phases of the WPA recreaton project have been suspended for lack of funds, the entertainment division will continue to fill engagements and will take further requests for music or drama programs, Mrs. Helen G. Nelson, director, reported today.

The Hawaiian orchestra will be retained

MARTIAL LAW IS ORDERED FOR POLLS

LAS VEGAS, N. M. (AP)—Nearly two hundred national guardsmen went on duty today in normally Republican San Miguel county, called out by orders of Democratic Governor Clyde Tingley.

The militia bore orders from Adjutant General R. C. Charlton to "maintain strict order and preserve peace at the polls." They were stationed at all but two polling places in the county.

There were no immediate reports of violence.

Special deputy sheriffs were warned to surrender their arms to the guardsmen. Reports from outlying precincts and in the city and town of Las Vegas said that this was done without disturbance.

The guardsmen bore instructions not to interfere with conduct of the election but to remain on duty until the polls close, the vote has been recorded and the ballot boxes dispatched to the county clerk. Guards will accompany the messenger in charge of the ballot boxes.

At Albuquerque, Governor Tingley announced at noon he had signed a proclamation at 8:30 a. m. today, declaring martial law in San Miguel county.

"I have determined that an emergency exists in the election in San Miguel county," said the governor, "and I ordered the national guard sent there last night, to see to it that there is an honest election."

MORE ABOUT RETURNS

(Continued From Page 1)

by Millsfield, N. H., and Somerset, Vt., gave Gov. Alf M. Landon 26 votes and President Roosevelt 19 at 6:38 a. m. today. Tolland completed its voting a moment later, giving Governor Landon 44 votes and President Roosevelt 21.

CLOSE IN SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Unofficial returns from five precincts here this morning gave for president: Roosevelt 420; Landon 358.

LANDON WINS ONE

POINTE AUX BARQUES, Mich. (AP)—This summer resort community on Lake Huron, maintaining its record of being first in Michigan with its election returns, gave Gov. Alf Mn. Landon 8 votes to 6 for President Roosevelt today. With ballots received from all registered voters in the township, the returns were reported at 11:30 a. m.

HOUSTON FOR F. D. R.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Houston returns on today's election from 62 boxes in Harris county gave Roosevelt 5569 votes and Landon 692. Among early voters was Jesse Jones, the R. F. C. chairman, who voted the Democratic ticket.

89 TO 1 FOR F. D. R.

DOTHA, Ala. (AP)—The Houston county absentee box today gave Roosevelt 89, Landon one.

31 TO 0 FOR F. D. R.

HENDERSON, N. C. (AP)—Nutbush precinct in Vance county, first to report in North Carolina, voted 31 to 0 for the Democratic ticket, state and national. The entire registration of the precinct had voted at 10:10 a. m., and the polls were closed.

ROOSEVELT IN FLORIDA

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Dawkins Pond precinct, a few miles from this capital city of normally Democratic Florida, cast its full strength of nine votes today for re-election of President Roosevelt. Brown's Farms, Everglades precinct in Palm Beach county, gave Roosevelt 8 votes and Landon one.

RUNNING CLOSE

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Incomplete unoffcial returns from 20 precincts gave for president: Roosevelt, 2615; Landon, 2108.

FIRST GEORGIA RETURNS

CARROLLTON, Ga. (AP)—Unofficial returns from one precinct of Carroll county's 22, the first to report in Georgia, gave: Roosevelt, 500; Landon, 40. The county's total 1932 vote was: Roosevelt, 3232; Hoover, 284.

IN FAIRMONT, W. VA.

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (AP)—The first five Fairmont precincts to report today gave President Roosevelt 399 and Gov. Alf Landon 300 votes for president.

TOLLAND SAYS LANDON.

TOLLAND, Mass. (AP)—Governor Landon received 44 votes here today compared to 21 cast for President Roosevelt. Henry Cabot Lodge, jr., Republican candidate for the U. S. senate, received 48, and his Democratic opponent, Gov. James M. Curley, 12.

VACATION SPOT VOTE

ESTES PARK, Colo. (AP)—Unofficial and incomplete returns in Estes Park, where the Landon family vacationed on a ranch last summer, gave Roosevelt 20 and Landon 19 today. One ballot was cast for William Lemke, the Union party candidate. There were 842 voters registered in Estes Park.

LANDON SNOWED UNDER

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—President Roosevelt received 903 votes to 29 for Gov. Alf Landon in early counts today of ballots cast in normally Democratic Alabama. The returns were from one polling place and the count of absentees in Montgomery, Houston and Franklin counties.

MORE ABOUT QUADS BORN

(Continued From Page 1)

Senath and the cabin. Anyone who wants to get there will have to wade the last half mile.

"The babies must be moved to a hospital at Jonesboro, Ark., 45 miles away, or Memphis, Tenn., about 150 miles from here."

The babies weighed from two pounds to three and a half pounds each.

An ambulance sent from Memphis, a trained nurse, incubators, milk from a Memphis municipal hospital, and all the aid science could muster was at hand as soon as the marooned house could be reached. The nurse waded through to attend to them.

With a lamp casting errie shadows on the cypress log walls, the doctor worked. He delivered quadruplets once before, 30 years ago.

Bridges sat in a big chair and poked wood in the fire.

"I don't know what in the world to do," Bridges gasped. "I have no money to take care of them, but I sure wanted them to live."

The doctor rubbed each baby in warm hog grease. The women tore up old clothing and cloth to make wrappers for the infants.

BOURBONS WON HERE IN '32

Orange county voters today were wondering if they would repeat the record made in 1932 when they piled up the first Democratic majority ever recorded in Orange county in a national election.

In that election President Roosevelt, with 23,696 votes, beat Republican Herbert Hoover's 22,481 ballots.

At the same time the largest vote in county history was cast —a 78½ per cent vote. A total of 48,715 ballots went into the boxes.

Santa Ana remained Republican —by a slight margin of 510 votes. It cast 6820 ballots for Hoover and 6310 for Roosevelt. There was a 77 per cent vote in this city, 13,900 ballots being cast.

Both the city and county went Republican on state offices and in the congressional contests.

MEMORY LOST BY VICTIM OF CRASH

Apparently lapsed into amnesia following an accident, a man tentatively identified as George Castleberry, 20, of 139 College street, Covina, was under observation today at the county hospital.

Brea police found him wandering along the highway near Buena Park last night, apparently not knowing who he was or what had happened to him. His head was cut and bruised as though he had been in an automobile accident, but he was unable to remember.

He was tentatively identified through papers in his pocket, but could tell attendants nothing about himself.

Hold Quartet on Delinquency Count

Four Bakersfield men were in the county jail today facing charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. They were arrested by Constable W. D. Tremaine of Brea township yesterday afternoon.

The four men, held under $500 bail each by Justice A. C. Early, are Frank J. Palmer, 22; Albert B. Palmer, 28; Sanford W. Daniels, 25, and Cecil C. Rice, 22.

Dr. D. A. Harwood
SURGEON
214 East Walnut
Phone 230-W

Dr. Chad Harwood
GENERAL PRACTICE
205 South Main
Phone 3456-W

"Boy! I can breathe now!"

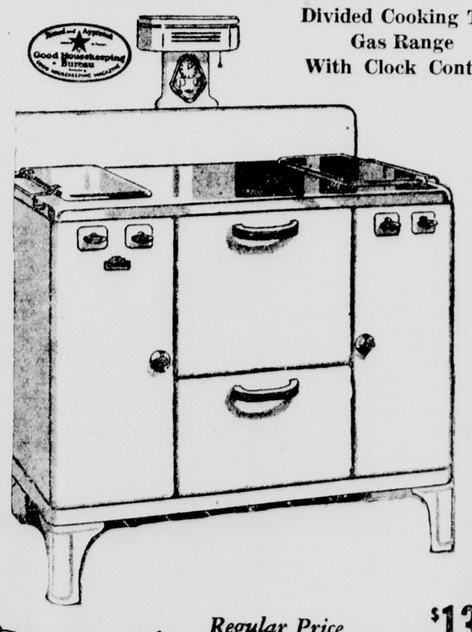
Just a few drops of Vicks Va-tro-nol up each nostril reduces swollen membranes, clears stuffiness, brings prompt relief. Used in time, helps prevent many colds.

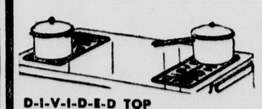
VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

REGULAR SIZE 30c . . . DOUBLE QUANTITY 50c

ONLY A FEW DAYS LEFT TO Save $40.95 ON A NEW TAPPAN

Divided Cooking Top Gas Range With Clock Control





D-I-V-I-D-E-D TOP . . . greater cooking capacity, safety, comfort; no crowding; a handy serving and work table right in center of range.

Regular Price $139.50
For a limited time only with your old range $98.55

You Save $40.95

PAY ONLY $5 DOWN

TURNER'S

221 West Fourth Ph. 1172

GET IN ON THE JOURNAL'S
Weather Predicting Contest

I forecast:

The first 1-inch rain will start..... day | hour

NAME.....

ADDRESS .....

Winner of Rain Contest gets a new umbrella from Rankin's.
SEND FORECASTS TO JOURNAL CONTEST EDITOR

WEATHER

Fair tonight and Wednesday, warmer with much lower humidity and rapidly increasing fire hazard in west portion; fresh to strong northeast wind over mountains and locally on the coast.

TEMPERATURES
(Courtesy Knox & Stout)
Today
High, 70 degrees at 11:30 a. m.; low, 58 degrees at 2:15 a. m.
Yesterday
High, 69 degrees at 3 p. m.; low, 52 degrees at 9:45 p. m.

TIDE TABLE

	A.M.	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.
Nov. 3	12:48	5:01	11:22	7:03
	3.7	2.8	5.8	-0.2
	A.M.	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Nov. 4	2:15	6:25	12:30	8:17
	3.8	3.0	5.1	0.2

SUN AND MOON
Nov. 3
Sun rises 6:13 a.m.; sets 4:58 p.m.
Moon rises 9:26 p.m.; sets 10:58 a.m.
Nov. 4
Sun rises 6:13 a.m.; sets 4:57 p.m.
Moon rises 10:29 p.m.; sets 11:42 a.m.
Nov. 5
Sun rises 6:14 a.m.; sets 4:57 p.m.
Moon rises 11:30 p.m.; sets 12:20 p.m.

SAN FRANCISCO BAY REGION—Fair and warmer tonight and Wednesday; fresh easterly wind.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Fair tonight and Wednesday, warmer Wednesday and on central coast tonight; moderate northeast wind off coast; falling humidity in the interior.

SIERRA NEVADA—Fair tonight and Wednesday, warmer on west slopes Wednesday; moderate to fresh easterly winds and rapidly falling humidity.

SACRAMENTO, SANTA CLARA, SALINAS AND SAN JOAQUIN VALLEYS—Fair tonight and Wednesday; warmer, with lower humidity Wednesday; light to moderate winds, mostly northeasterly.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
Temperatures taken at 8 a. m. today were given out by the U. S. Weather Bureau at Los Angeles as follows:

Boston	64	Minneapolis	20
Chicago	34	New Orleans	74
Denver	4	New York	64
Des Moines	24	Phoenix	46
El Paso	42	Pittsburgh	64
Helena	10	Salt Lake City	8
Kansas City	20	San Francisco	50
Los Angeles	53	Seattle	42
Tampa	70

Birth Notices

BRADY—To Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brady of 218 North Clementine street, Anaheim, a daughter, Nov. 3, at Whitney Maternity Home.

Death Notices

WINCKLER—Mrs. R. O. Winckler, 56, died this morning at Mercy hospital in San Diego. She is survived by her husband; a son, Richard H. Winckler, and a grandson, Richard Townsend Winckler. Funeral services will be held at the Greenwood cemetery mausoleum in San Diego Thursday afternoon.

RYCHMAN—John Rychman died yesterday in Santa Ana. Announcement of funeral will be made later by Brown and Wagner.

Intentions to Wed

William H. Abrams, 37; Ella Mae Halstead, 26, Long Beach.
Ernie E. Acker, 23, 618 West Third; Eugenia May, 18, 810 West Fourth, Santa Ana.
Jack W. Binns, 27; Anne G. Young, 27, Los Angeles.
Warden Black, 29; Evangeline L. Jones, 21, Los Angeles.
Perry C. Curtis, 68, route 3, box 43; Calista E. Byrant, route 3, box 53, Anaheim.
Robert S. Craig, 40; Mariayne Osborne, 34, Los Angeles.
Jack M. Cooper, 33; Florence G. Billings, 27, Los Angeles.
Lewis C. Dick, 61; Lena P. Campbell, 63, Los Angeles.
Ross D. Davis, 21; Wanda C. Ritter, 21, Los Angeles.
Ernest A. Didier, 46, 628 Garfield, Santa Ana; Madelyn L. Largent, 44, 112 18th, Huntington Beach.
Theodore C. Fisher, 23, Pueblo, Colo.; Barbara J. Emerick, 17, Long Beach.
Charles L. Jeffrey, 39; Gladys P. Ellis, 39, Long Beach.
Charles M. Jones, 19; Leona M. Sorensen, 18, Inglewood.
Hugh N. Kiser, 69, 334 Halesworth, Santa Ana; Gussie Hill, 63, West Liberty, Ohio.
Preston G. Layton, 30, Riverside; Julia M. Neyhart, 24, San Bernardino.
Sam E. Manley, 33; Grace Reid, 30, Long Beach.
Milton M. McKinney, 33; Lila M. Organ, 33, Los Angeles.
Bob B. Prosser, 22; Maywod; Velma V. Keeling, 22, Pasadena.
Calvin F. Riedel, 22, Maywood; Juanita E. Burch, 22, Los Angeles.
Jesus Ramirez, 21; Virginia Pino, 18, Corona.
Merle V. Smith, 28; Waldina Santoyo, 22, Los Angeles.
Ralph H. Sophnhauer, jr., 24, Whittier; Mabel N. Jones, 24, Pico.
Roy O. Wallace, 24; Mary E. Gowan, 18, Long Beach.
Arthur F. Wirtz, 24, Lodi; Mary L. L. Jorn, 21, 529 South Grand Orange.
Alfred R. Walter, 27, Glendale; Alice M. Orey, 37, Los Angeles.
Donald F. Way, 22, Bakersfield; Doreen M. Williams, 21, Los Angeles.
Harry N. Wright, 48, Hollywood; Amelia Fugleberg, 36, Los Angeles.
Dwight J. Ainsworth, 23, 335 E. Chapman, Orange; Jeannette L. Loewis, 20, Santa Ana.

Marriage Licenses

Richard C. Barker, 22; Marguerite G. Muth, 24, Los Angeles.
Norton S. Alevy, 21, San Pedro; Sylvia Simon, 20, Los Angeles.
Woodrow E. Alexander, 23; Ruby L. Johnson, 21, Los Angeles.
William Replogle, 57; Lillian A. Reynolds, 54, Los Angeles.
Arnold M. Small, 22; Evelyn E. Besonian, 18, Los Angeles.
Francis A. Peal, 21; Dorothy H. Dolbear, 23, Los Angeles.
Harry B. Ballard, 35; Ahne J. Ewing, 28, Los Angeles.
David Romero, 21; Esther Cobos, 19, San Gabriel.
Charles G. Golden, 21, Y. M. C. A.; Gladys M. Chapin, 19, 940 South Fairview, Santa Ana.
Floyd B. Frogge, 26; Josephine Cusimano, 18, Los Angeles.
Maurice S. Cheslin, 22; Doris M. Shunn, 19, Los Angeles.
Harold R. Appleby, 24, route 1, box 259, Buena Park; June C. Remington, 18, Long Beach.
Hugh S. Gould, 23; Gladys P. Taylor, 22, Los Angeles.
Donald E. Wardlow, 21, route 3, box 377, Santa Ana; Evelyn L. McFadden, 19, 522 East Second, La Habra.
Lloyd T. Adkins, 36, Los Angeles; Julia E. Smith, 37, Lucerne Valley.
Alvin E. Knepper, 36; Violet A. Hayward, 31, Los Angeles.
Edgar A. Pennington, 21; Gertrude I. Hughes, 20, Los Angeles.
Forrest W. Waylan, 26; Belle E. Conde, 36, Los Angeles.
Roy D. Hieber, 22; Clementine M. Peeples, 18, Inglewood.
Roy E. Buntin, 42; Leatha M. Knecht, 31, Los Angeles.
Don N. Becker, 24, 182 Center; Hilva H. Marschall, 23, 182 West Center, Anaheim.
Johnnie L. Evans, 21, San Pedro; Paula E. Mains, 18, Los Angeles.
Henderson B. Van Gundy, 22; Pauline P. Creikmur, 18, Pasadena.
Dietrich C. Addicks, 25; Alice M. Stone, 22, Los Angeles.
Van W. Baker, 24, Los Angeles; Ardena T. Harlan, 22, Pasadena.
Ralph F. Spencer, 38; Kathleen E. Andrews, 39, San Bernardino.

Beautiful Melrose Abbey
Provides a modern and reverent method of interment.
Very desirable crypts $135 to $395.
Niches $20 to $100.
Complete information gladly given without obligation.
Liberal terms—phone Orange 131—101 Highway, between Santa Ana and Anaheim.

FOR FLOWERS
—THE—
Bouquet Shop
409 North Broadway. Ph. 1990

M'LAUCHLAN BROADCAST BLOCKED

Radio Station Power Is Cut Off As Communist Candidate Talks

Charles McLauchlan didn't get to make his campaign speech. The Santa Ana and Laguna Beach candidate for congress in the 19th district on the Communist ticket, tried a third time to make a campaign address over a San Bernardino radio station last night, without success.

It must have been a trick.

Charley and his friends went into the studio all right and bolted the door behind them so no one could interfere, according to the Associated Press. When his broadcasting time was over, he came out again.

But no one outside the studio heard the speech. The main power line of the radio station had been cut. It was not repaired until after McLauchlan's broadcast time was over.

A crowd of nearly 1000 persons jeered McLauchlan as he left the studio, the Associated Press said.

Leaders of war veteran groups in San Bernardino, in a prior announcement, said, "There will be no violence, but there will be no address."

The power failed two minutes before the scheduled broadcast and was restored half an hour later.

Happy Birthday

The Journal today congratulates:
J. M. TALCOTT, 1910 North Main street, Santa Ana.
J. W. FOSTER, Santa Ana police department.
FRANCIS NORTON, 805 South Parton street, Santa Ana.

Superior Court

Thursday, Nov. 5
People versus Seberos, jury trial, department one.
Beauty versus Paxton, trial, department two.
Lomeli versus Meyer, trial, department two.
Milton versus Baldwin, trial, department three.

Friday, Nov. 6
Swigart versus Swigart, order to show cause, department one.
Lehmer versus Scott and Borden, demurrer of Scott and Borden, Inc., et al; demurrer of Abstract Title company, department two.
People versus Marr, demurrer to indictment.
People versus Skidmore, appeal.
Seegar verus Odell, demurrer of A. J. Odell; motion to strike.

Saturday, Nov. 7
Whitney, deceased, petition for probate of will; petition to terminate joint tenancy, department one.

Friday, Nov. 6
Brown, minor, second account, petition for allowance of fees and petition authorizing investment of money.
Francisco, incompetent, fifth annual account and petition for allowance of fees.
Hohnike, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Lincoln, deceased, answer to citation.
Kinyon, deceased, petition to execute deed of trust.
Wilson, deceased, report and petition for distribution.
Wiede, deceased, petition for removal of administrator and for an accounting.
Diehl, deceased, petition for distribution.
Osborn, deceased, petition for probate of will.
Bank of Balboa, petition for order authorizing disposition of certain items.
First State Bank of San Juan Capistrano, petition for order authorizing disposition of certain items.
Dolph, deceased, first and final account and report of special administrator.
Allen, incompetent, first account current.
McKoskey, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Pickas, minor, first account and report.
Greenwald, deceased, petition for order to lease property.
California State Bank of Seal Beach, petition for order authorizing compromise of debt.
Kogge, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Scheffer, deceased, petition for probate of will.
Williams, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Reagan, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Connolly, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Watson, minors, third account.
Hannah, deceased, final account and petition for distribution.
Payton, deceased, first and final account and petition for distribution.
Allec, minor, first anual account and report.
Kloth, deceased, return of sale of real estate.
Ricker, deceased, petition to terminate joint tenancy.
Des Granges, deceased, petition to terminate joint tenancy.
Mulliken, deceased, petition for letters of administration.
Carpenter, deceased, account current.
Nau, deceased, final account and petition for distribution.
Terry, deceased, return of sale of real property.
Diehl, deceased, petition for allowance extraordinary services to attorney.
Hager, deceased, first and final account and petition for distribution, etc.
Graham, incompetent, first and final account.
Backs, deceased, petition to compromise indebtedness and estate, etc.
Mair, deceased, petition for partial distribution.
Jensen, deceased, first and final account and petition for distribution.
Collins, deceased, petition for permission to borrow money.
Sandoval, minor, final account and petition for discharge.
Osborn, deceased, fourth account and report of trustee.
Osborn, insane, fifth account and report.
Marson, incompetent, seventh account and report.
Wethered, minor, petition for order for allowance of support and maintenance of minor.

An increase of 700 in the number of barnstorming planes was recorded at the Sacramento, Calif., airport the first seven months of 1936.

Townsend News, Views

By WALTER R. ROBB

(This is a non-political, non-partisan column, dealing in Townsend news and views, and written by a prominent Townsend leader. Any opinions which are expressed herein are not necessarily those of The Journal.)

Harry R. Sheppard, Democratic nominee for congress, made a flying trip through Orange county in the interests of his campaign yesterday. At 6 p. m. he broadcast a message over KVOE. Shortly after 8 o'clock he addressed a Townsend gathering in Santa Ana Townsend hall. From there he journeyed to Costa Mesa, where he was scheduled to address another Townsend gathering. Still later in the evening he was to appear before a Townsend mass meeting in Riverside Townsend headquarters. That's the life of a campaigner for office.

WALTER R. ROBB

In his appearance before Townsend Club No. 2 here he was in a jocular mood, and didn't seem in the least worried concerning possible election results. His attitude seemed to be that he had fought a good fight and that the crown of victory, if given him, would be the result of splendid cooperative efforts on the part of a host of loyal supporters, to whom he would ever be grateful. He stated he was of the opinion that the 19th district would roll up a splendid vote, and that it would register the outstanding results of the state of California, from a Townsend vote standpoint.

He again reiterated his determination to fight for the enactment of the Townsend Plan into law if he was elected. Said he believed it was economically correct and that he was proud to be an advocate of its principles. Said that, no mater who was elected president of the nation, that he he would oppose any actions on such an executive's part as would be antagonistic to playing fair with the Townsend plan. He asked the people to continue steadfast in their determination for yet another day. Suggested that tomorrow's efforts were equally valuable, and if anything more important than some which had already been put forth. He urged all to vote, and as many others to do so as would be possible on election day. He thanked the audience for their splendid support during the campaign.

Steele Finley, candidate for supervisor, was present at the meeting, but as he and the writer were both scheduled to speak over KVOE in behalf of his candidacy, there was not time for him to address the gathering. Clyde A. Watson, Democratic nominee to the state assembly, appeared for a few minutes also, but he also had another speaking engagement and had to hurry on his way. Harry C. Westover, Democratic nominee to the state senate, another candidate who has usually been at such meetings, was absent tonight. He was taking advantage of a last opportunity of getting in on a pot-luck dinner with a Townsend club. He was the speaker at such a gathering in the Tustin Presbyterian church basement, where the Tustin Townsendites gather each Monday evening. He also talked over KVOE.

The campaign is now all over except election day efforts. It is 11 o'clock at night as the writer hammers out this line. The candidates have said their last words. Their fate now rests in the hands of the voters. It has been an unusual election campaign. Emotional intensity has registered high. The American people have received a new education in the principles of the nation's government. Two schools of thought have contested with each other for the supremacy of control. The way the election goes nationally will doubtless influence the trend of the future of all legislation. If Roosevelt is elected the bent will give indication of becoming socialists. If Landon becomes president it will indicate a return to old and tried principles of government of competitive form. But in either case it will be well for the ordinary citizen to remember that under the American system, the people will still be the power behind the throne so to speak. What they want, they can have, if they want it bad enough. And they can obtain it by orderly process. And that is the American way. There will be no need of becoming panic-stricken if the opposition party to their way of belief should win. The good sense of the American people will hold steady the ship of state. The standard of the people's intelligence and ideals are too high, too splendid, too ideal, to permit of any wide departure from the best interests of all concerned. At least so the writer wants to believe.

Riverside and San Bernardino county Townsendites held a successful barbecue event last Sunday at Colton, so J. H. Walsh reports. Approximately 1500 people attended during the day. A barbecued meal was furnished to all comers at a cost of only 25 cents. Cermonies were begun at 10 a. m. Rev. Rex Barr, Townsend organizer for the eighteenth California district at Long Beach, conducted a religious service at this time which was well attended.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. S. L. Wingert presided over the mass meeting. Among those who appeared as speakers during the afternoon were Harry R. Sheppard, Townsend candidate for congress; Paul Lichtenfel, Southern California area manager of the Townsend movement; Charles Leroy Heiser, national director of the Townsend youth movement, and Harold P. Thoreson, Democratic party campaign manager for San Bernardino and former contestant with Sheppard for the Democratic nomination to congress. And with that the writer brings to a close the most of the recitations which will appear in the column relative to the 1936 campaign efforts of the Townsendites, in the nineteenth California district. It has been a long hard fight. But the writer prophesies the Townsendites will be winners up, when the scores are counted and released to the public.

LEXINGTON'S COMMANDER IS KILLED

SAN DIEGO. (AP)—Commander Melvin Stewart Brown, 38, of the aircraft carrier Lexington, was killed instantly yesterday when his single seater fighter plane crashed near Descanso, 40 miles east of here.

BISHOP NAMED AT SAN DIEGO

VATICAN CITY. (AP)—Pope Pius today named the Very Rev. Charles F. Buddy, of St. Joseph, Mo., to be bishop of the new diocese of San Diego, Calif.

Tonight and Tomorrow

TONIGHT

Wrycende Maegdenu, Y.W.C.A., 6:15 p. m.
DeMolay, Masonic temple, 7:30 p. m.
Junior Ebell, clubhouse, 7:30 p.m.
Calumpit camp and auxiliary, U.S.W.V., K. of C. hall, 7:30 p. m.
Twenty-Thirty club, Green cat cafe, 6:30 p. m.
Carpenters Union No. 1815, 402 West Fourth street, 7:30 p. m.
Forum for Political and Economic education, junior college, 7:30 p. m.
Women of Moose, Moose hall, 8 p. m.
Modern Woodmen of America, M.W.A. hall, 8 p. m.

TOMORROW

Women's Home Missionary society of First Methodist church, social hall, 2 p. m.
P.-T. A. Mother-Singers, Spurgeon Memorial church, 2 p. m.
Kiwanis club, Green Cat cafe, 12:30.
Worthwhile club, 119 West Nineteenth street, afternoon.
Women's Union, First Congregational church, covered dish lunch, 12:30 p. m.
St. Joseph's Altar society, Ebell lounge, 2 p. m.
First Christian church Missionary society, at church, 2 p .m.
Woodward Spurgeon Memorial Missionary society, 10 a. m., all day.
First Baptist Women's society, at church, 10 a. m., all day, noon pot-luck.
United Presbyterian church Missionary society, church parlors, 10 a. m., noon lunch.
Trinity Lutheran church Ladies aid, church, 2 p. m.
Santa Ana assembly, Social Order of Beauceant, Masonic temple, 2 p. m.
Jack Fisher post and chapter, D. A. V., K. of C. hall, 7:30 p. m.
J. B. Wolfe book review at First Congregational church bungalow, 7:30 p. m.
Toastmasters club, Smedley chapter, Green Cat cafe, 6:30 p. m.
Knights of Pythias, K. of P. hall, 7:30 p. m.

POLICE REPORTS

The following information was taken from today's reports on file at the Santa Ana police department:

Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Newport Beach, told police here yesterday that a Santa Ana man had taken her car to try it out with a view to buying it, but had not returned the auto. Police here were investigating.

Sixteen-year-old William Southwell, 830 South Van Ness avenue, reported missing from Santa Ana High school yesterday, returned at 6:30 p. m., his parents told police.

An East Fourth street dairy asked a police checkup to stop theft of gasoline from employes' cars parked there between 2 and 5 a. m.

Vic Walker, theater manager, reported that one of his show card cases had been shattered by a rock.

An abandoned bicycle found on Sycamore street was impounded by police early today.

H. S. Wright, grocery manager at El Portal and Main streets, was notified last night after his burglar alarm woke neighbors. There were no burglars.

Townsend Clubs

All members of the Townsend Youth movement are urged to be present at the regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Townsend hall, 509 West Fourth street. J. H. Walsh, district organizer, will be the speaker, and a further program is being arranged.

Miss Frances Hanson, 16-year-old girl orator, will be in the 19th congressional district from Nov. 26 to 29. Townsend clubs desiring her appearance should make arrangements at once with J. H. Walsh, district organizer, at 509 West Fourth street, it was announced today.

There will be no meeting of Club No. 8 this week.

QUAKES JOLT JAPAN; NO DEATHS

TOKYO. (AP)—All eastern Japan was shaken today by an earthquake which aroused the capital from sleep just before dawn and sent city residents scurrying to the streets in night clothes.

The central meteorological observatory said "no serious damage has been reported so far but aftershocks may continue." There were no known casualties.

"Fortunately the center of the earthquake was the sea bed," the observatory declared. "If it had occurred on land it would have been a disastrous earthquake.

About Folks

News of Your Family and Friends Is Important. The Journal Welcomes It. Telephone 3600.

Mrs. M. L. Royal of San Diego left Sunday for home after spending a week in Santa Ana with her niece, Mrs. Allison Honer, and family.

Mrs. Natalie Eaton and daughter, Margaret, of Evanston, Ill., who are wintering in Pomona, will be guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Foster and Miss Henrietta Foster, 1003 Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bird, of Laguna Beach, parents of R. B. Bird, 1129 West Seventeenth street, Santa Ana, left Monday morning on an extended auto trip into Arkansas and Texas, intending to visit the Centennial exposition at Dallas, and visit with Arkansas relatives.

George Briggs and A. I. Mellenthin left this morning for Winslow, Arizona, where they will visit for several days at the ranch home of Mr. Briggs, and do some turkey hunting.

Mrs. J. B. Moralice, Mrs. M. I. Lester and Miss Lupe Veldez left today to motor to Lone Pine for a week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shafer of 536 South Ross street had the pleasure recently of a week's visit from Mrs. Shafer's mother, Mrs. E. J. Dickson of San Sabra, Texas. On leaving Santa Ana, she went to Westwood for a visit with her son, but will return for another week with the Shafers before leaving for her home.

Miss Mary Tuthill of 2035 Victoria drive and Miss Betty Smedley of 2328 Bonnie Brae, will leave Friday for a week-end visit with Miss Roberta Tuthill at Stanford university, and will attend the Washington-Stanford game on Saturday.

Walter E. Gerken, agent for the Union Oil company, has returned from the Good Samaritan hospital, Los Angeles, where he was a surgical patient. He was greatly benefitted and has resumed his duties at the local office of his company.

SPEAKERS TELL ABOUT HEALTH

A series of weekly discussions on "The Health of Orange County" will be launched tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. in the Unitarian church when Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, will make a survey of the county health department.

Speakers on succeeding Wednesdays will include Miss Isabel Durgan, Orange county nurse; John Bower, milk inspector, and R. E. Smith, meat inspector; Miss Gertrude Shrader, of the Orange county hospital staff, and, in conclusion, Dr. Margaret Baker, who will make a survey of county doctors.

The meeting tomorrow night will include a 15 minutes current event survey by the Rev. Julia N. Budlong, pastor of the church.

City Council Briefs

Last night the Santa Ana city council:

Referred to the street commissioner application of a Long Beach firm for a franchise to place advertising benches along city streets. The firm proposed to pay $1 per month per bench for a two-year franchise.

Authorized installation of neon signs at Krieger Shoe company, 114 East Fourth street, and Walker's Liquor store, 503 North Main. Reported that Kellogg's Auto court does not need a permit to erect a sign on its own ground, at 410 Roe drive.

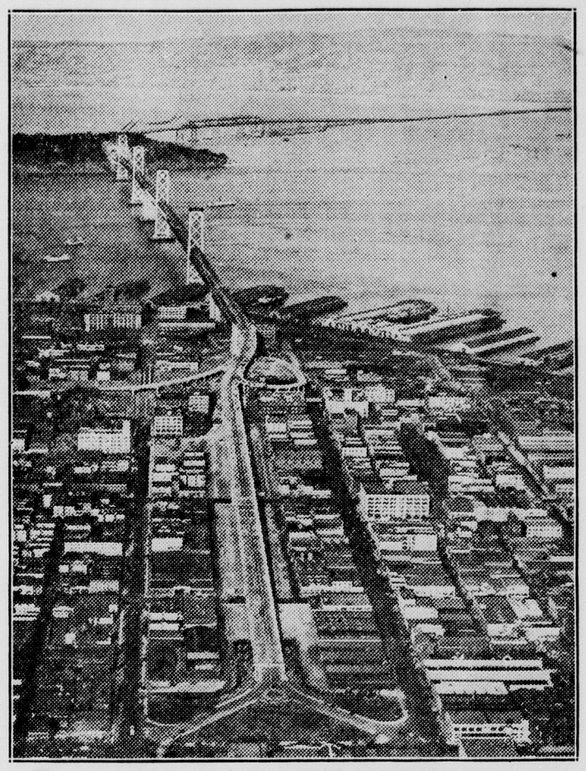
Permitted O. A. Brown to use property at Sixth and Birch for a service station, after a hearing brought no protests.

Licensed Arthur Lloyd Johnson, 22, of Costa Mesa, as a taxicab driver.

Adopted five resolutions altering the length of loading and no-parking zones at various places in the city.

Granted J. A. Crawford permission to build a court on his property on East Sixth street, previously zoned for single dwellings.

Giant Bay Span Completed



This aerial picture shows the completed $77,000,000 San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge ready for its dedication and opening to automobile traffic Nov. 12. The San Francisco approach, extending a mile into the city, is in the foreground. The western suspension spans stretch out over the water to Yerba Buena island, pierced by a tunnel, and in the background is the eastern half of the huge bridge. (Associated Press photo.)

HITS WIND 'ON THE NOSE'

Predicts Monday's Big Blow

Martin G. Murray, amateur astrologist and weather prophet, registered his first direct hit of the season yesterday, when his prediction of either a high wind or a rainstorm Nov. 2 brought a strong desert wind, the first severe blow of the season.

Murray, who is employed in the Huntington Beach postoffice, has been very close to success with his predictions this season, barely missing two earlier rainfalls, but the desert wind, which started last evening, is his first "win" of the year.

And, if the Huntington Beach man's predictions continue to be correct, residents of the county are facing two more spells of unpleasant weather during the month. On Nov. 16 either another wind or a rain is due, while Nov. 29, just three days after Thanksgiving, another upset in the usually calm weather situation is anticipated.

December, according to the prognosticator, will be a bit calmer, with only two stormy periods, on the 13th and 26th.

FORUM HEARS OF BRITISH PROBLEMS

Declaring that the major problems in contemporary England are unemployment, the dole, the two Labor governments, and the problem of foreign relations, E. C. Quainton of the University of Washington at last night's federal forum session in the Santa Ana High school auditorium, discussed "Post-war England."

"It is indisputable," he stated, "that the essential element in post-war England is economic, and that social and political processes and changes are intelligible only in the light of economic facts and realities."

Quainton amplified this statement by a discussion of England's problems, tracing each one back to its economic source.

Mrs. Nelle Crawford announced that Quainton will again be the forum leader in Santa Ana next Monday, when his subject will be "Post-war Diplomacy." Calvin Flint presided over last night's session.

McFadden, Pankey Become Officers

High appointments in the Pomona college R. O. T. C. were given two Santa Ana men students, Robert McFadden and Edgar Pankey, this week on the Claremont campus, according to college reports.

By order of Maj. Charles P. Stivers, professor of military science and tactics, McFadden was named lieutenant and Pankey was given the rank of sergeant.

McFadden is a senior at Pomona, while Pankey is a junior. They are members of the college R. O. T. C. unit of 119 men.

YOUR Journal Carrier is Handling a Business

The young man who delivers YOUR Journal every evening is not an employe of the paper. He is an independent young Merchant, buying and selling his product (Your Journal) by the month. He buys on Credit and resells to you. His profits depend entirely upon his collections from you.

Many of these boys, by thrifty management, are paying their way through school with their earnings and are, at the same time, putting something away for future use. You can help and encourage him immensely in these thrifty habits he is forming by paying him regularly and promptly when he calls.

You will also find him courteous and appreciative for your cooperation in helping him maintain his credit rating with his office.

The Santa Ana Journal
117 E. 5th St. Phone 3600

DONS PLAY FULLERTON THANKSGIVING DAY

Column Left —By— PAUL WRIGHT

FREDERICKS ELIGIBLE

Mountainous Jack Fredericks, who captained the Dons and won Eastern all-conference recognition at guard with them in '32, has two more years of eligibility at U. C. L. A.

Now a garage mechanic in Santa Ana, Fredericks says he may shelve his oil can and tools next fall, and rejoin "Westwood Will" Spaulding, with whom he hed a regular post won until he wrecked his knee in training last season.

Fredericks admires the Bruin coach. "He's another Bill Cook. Never singles out a player and criticizes him before the rest of the squad, but calls him aside to point out his mistakes. He has a fine personality."

* * *

HAMAKER'S ERROR? NO!

Eugene (Bud) Hamaker, reserve back who showed flashes of brilliance against Alhambra, fumbled on the opposition's five-yard line, and the Moors recovered to end undramatically a sizzling 78-yard march by the Saints Saturday. It was the only time Bill Foote's preps came close to scoring in that 18-0 defeat.

Hamaker fumbled, and he was blamed by observers in the stands. But it seems the butter-finger act was not the fault of Eugene at all. Coach Foote traced the fatal play to a combination of a quarterbacking blunder and a misdirected pass from center.

* * *

CHUCKLE DEPARTMENT

"We had everything won before we played a game. Cockiness beat us against Santa Ana. When we hit Pomona we were so disgusted nothing worked."

So remarked Citrus players when interviewed by an Ontario Daily Report scribe who was surprised at the charge and speed the Owls displayed in their 6-0 victory over Chaffey.

Cockiness, eh? Why should Citrus have been over-confident against our Dons? The Owls' record at game-time suffered in comparison with Santa Ana's sparkling 19-0 and 13-0 victories over Long Beach and Glendale Jaysees, and a 12-7 defeat from a Pasadena eleven they decisively outgained.

* * *

DAVIS AND SCHINDLER

The House of Troy's "Touchdown Twins," Davis Davis and Ambrose Schindler, will be in top physical condition for the first time in more than a month Saturday, and that spells trouble for the California Bears in the Coliseum.

Davis led U. S. C.'s offense without Schindler's aid in the 24-6 victory over Illinois. Against Washington State, Davis fractured a rib in the first five minues, and Schindler was ailing with a charley horse. When Davis was unable to perform up to par against Stanford Schindler returned to the lineup to spark the Trojans to a 14-7 win. The bye last week-end has enabled both triple-threats to recuperate.

* * *

SPORTS FROM AFAR

Walter Gilbert, Auburn's nominee for all-America, believes the position he plays—center—is the toughest in football. "The man in the middle is the stepchild of the team. He's always getting the blame, whether it's for fumbles by backs on collapse of the line on charges near the goal" . . . Eastern scribes say Sid Luckman of Columbia is better than Cliff Montgomery was as a sophomore . . . Speed-demon Ab Jenkins has driven 1,500,000 miles—mostly at terrific speeds—without a single accident . . . The favorite spectator-sport of Earl Sargent, U. C. L. A. guard, is water-polo.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING

San Francisco, one of three cities to be represented with a ball club in the Pacific Coast League continuously for thirty-four years, has a grand winning percentage of .530.

BOWLING

CAREFUL LAUNDRY
(Mercantile League)

	1st Game	2nd Game	3rd Game	Ttl.
C. Johnson	168	218	167—	553
C. Walker	128	160	169—	457
F. Adams	127	176	189—	492
C. Conner	205	209	211—	625
J. Mottram	202	192	224—	619
Totals	831	955	960—	2746

HOME CAFE

	1st Game	2nd Game	3rd Game	Ttl.
O. Mann	175	123	143—	441
W. Harrison	193	160	165—	518
C. Erickson	175	122	169—	466
M. Mullins	172	135	136—	443
B. Chambers	186	172	174—	532
Totals	901	712	787—	2400

LANGLEY OIL CO.
(Handicap League)

	1st Game	2nd Game	3rd Game	Ttl.
(Handicap)	126	127	127—	380
G. Preble	141	166	131—	438
J. McFaddin	128	105	121—	354
J. Allen	111	161	124—	396
E. Bamella	129	103	143—	375
J. Mills	153	136	171—	460
Totals	788	798	837—	2403

WEBER'S BAKING CO.

	1st Game	2nd Game	3rd Game	Ttl.
R. Dunham	146	119	142—	407
Bus Show	166	166	166—	498
Ed Parker	126	158	148—	426
W. Parker	169	157	147—	473
V. Pee	164	154	160—	478
Totals	771	748	763—	2282

Northwestern Leads Minnesotans in Poll

HUSKIES RANK SIXTH, TROY ELEVENTH

Associated Press Gives Wildcats 412 Points to 371 for Gophers

NEW YORK. (AP)—There'll be a respite Saturday for the football teams that have been selected by sports writers and editors as the week's best. Except in one contest they don't come to grips with one another, but that doesn't necessarily mean they face "set-ups."

The weekly Associated Press poll puts Northwestern's Wildcats, upset victors over Minnesota, at the head of the pigskin parade for the week. They got there only after a voting battle almost as keen as the one they played against the previous pace setters at Evanston. The final count, on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, with 43 experts voting, gave Northwestern 412 points and Minnesota 371.

A total of 31 contributors ranked the Wildcats first while 10 remained steadfast in selecting Minnesota despite the defeat. Fordham, moving up to third with 227 points, was picked for No. 1 by two voters.

The Wildcats take on Wisconsin this week and while they figure to win, may have a hard time, especially if there's any tendency toward a letdown. Minnesota faces much the same situation against Iowa while Fordham is rated only a slight favorite over Purdue.

Marquette, which advanced from tenth to fourth place, meets an old but apparently inferior rival in Creighton. The only game which brings together two teams ranked in the first 20 sends Tulane, tenth with 93 votes, against Alabama, fourteenth with 16. Santa Clara, ninth on the list with 145 points, has an open date.

Here's how the program shapes up for the other ranking teams:

5—Pittsburgh, 191, vs. Penn State.

6—Washington, 181, vs. Stanford.

7.—Louisiana State, 168, vs. Mississippi State.

8—Nebraska, 165, vs. Kansas.

11—Southern California, 76, vs. California.

12—Southern Methodist, 40, vs. Texas A. and M.

13—Notre Dame, 17, vs. Navy.

15 (Tied)—Duke, 10, vs. Wake Forest and Pennsylvania, 10, vs. Michigan.

17—Washington State, 8, vs. Oregon State.

18 (Tied)—Darmouth, 4, vs. Columbia, and Tennessee, 4, vs. Maryville.

20—Auburn, 3, vs. Georgia Tech.

SPAULDING MAKES SHIFT

LOS ANGELES. (AP) — Young Bill Spaulding, erstwhile halfback, got some practice today calling signals for his father's U. C. L. A. football team.

Indicating he may see service in the quarterback spot against Oregon at Portland next Saturday, Coach Spaulding's son shifted from the left half berth he has shared with Hal Hirshon.

Clarence, Ray Hapes Stage Brother Act at 'Ole Miss'

By PAP'

Down in the Mississipi valley, where football is on the comeback trail, they're singing the praises of the Hapes brothers—Little Ray and Big Clarence.

Ray's a 162-pound long-distance ball carrier whose color on the gridiron has made him one of the season's personalities. Clarence is 225 pounds of line-smashing and blocking brawn.

Hailed as one of the best running halfbacks of the year, Ray attrbiutes his many long touchdown jaunts to the blocking of his brother and other teammates.

To that old master, Glenn (Pop) Warner, who coached at Stanford when Ed Walker's, Mississippi coach, played there, goes the credit for the Hapes brothers casting their lots with the Rebels of Ole Miss. Warner tipped Walker off on Clarence and a year later Ray followed Clarence to the university.

Ray Was 'Too Small'

The Rebel coaching staff was doubtful of the little brother, thinking him too light for the college game. Ray didn't attract attention his freshman year, although he displayed speed and shiftiness. He weighed less than 155 pounds then.

But as a sophomore Ray broke loose. That season his runs included three for 90 yards or more and eight of 50 to 70 yards. His average was more than six yards per try from scrimmage and he turned in a 17-yard punt return mark. Most of his long runs were climaxed by touchdowns and he was the leading scorer of the Southern conference in 1935.

Dark complexioned, boyish looking except for a wiry beard, the 22-year-old Ray, from Southern California, looks small in street clothes and possesses a gay, unassuming demeanor. Like his brother, he started his football career at Garden Grove, Calif. Both are former stars with Santa Ana, leading member of the Eastern J. C. conference.

Warner, Walker Agree

Ray's participation in prep athletics was not limited to football. He's still holder of the 100-yard dash record of 10.3 in his section. That speed, which he has stepped up, combined with an ability to twist and turn without slowing, is the secret of his success.

"The biggest thrill I remember," the athletic remarks, "was the 92-yard return of a kickoff for a touchdown that defeated Mississippi State last year."

"Pop" Warner paid the little athlete a fine compliment after Mississippi's game with Temple, saying: "Ray Hapes is by far the most dangerous offensive threat I've seen this season."

Whether on or off the field, Ray and Clarence are interesting personalities. When playing, Clarence is constantly encouraging or scolding the young brother, taking him to task or paying him a compliment. They are roommates.

"Ray Hapes" says Coach Walker, "is one of the best running backs I have ever seen. His ability is natural and he takes to coaching easily. He is modest and gets along well with his teammates."

TEN ROOKIES TO DEMAND MORE PAY

NEW YORK. (AP)—Having made good in their first real try in the big time, 10 new major leaguers, headed by Joe Di Maggio of the Yankees, Bob Feller of the Indians and Jimmy Ripple of the Giants, lead this winter's line at the baseball payoff window.

Well armed with impressive batting and pitching averages, the other newcomers are expected to be raised when the 1937 contracts come out are Johnny Mize, who batted .329 for the Cardinals; Les Scarsella, Reds' first baseman, who finished with a mark of .313; Bill Atwood and Walter Millies, catchers for the Phils and Senators, respectively; Harry Gumbert and Frank Gabler, Giants' pitchers; and Harry Kelley, who won 15 and lost 12 for the Athletics.

Di Maggio, with an average of .323 to present to a world championship management, is almost certain to get a substantial boost. Feller, center of baseball's most interesting current controversy, likely will get what he wants without haggling, and Ripple, who batted .306 and practically replaced Hank Lieber in center field for the Giants, will probably get his reward when young Horace Stoneham mails the 1937 contracts.

General raises are expected for the pennant winning New York clubs, with Pitchers Carl Hubbell and Freddy Fitzsimmons and Outfielders Joe Moore and Mel Ott of the Giants, and Pitchers Red Ruffing, Monte Pearson, Pat Malone and Bump Hadley, and Bill Dickey, Lou Gehrig and Frankie Crosetti of the Yankees getting the biggest boosts.

Matadors Furnish Laughs at 101

Howard Cantonwine Whips Pat O'Shocker And Kiman Kudo Tames 'Tarzan' Zim in Mat Features at 101 Arena

By BOB GUILD

There's this about wrestling matches. If you hang around the behemoths long enough, you're a cinch to get a laugh. Last night at the O. C. A. C. there was the guy who wanted to meet Cantonwine. "Gennelmun," he said, "where's this Cantonwine?" "I gotta," he persisted, "see this Cantonwine. My brother back in Ioway, he and this Alice Cantonwine . . . where is this Cantonwine?"

So out comes the Hangman, stripped and ready for his battle to the death with red-headed, red-tempered Pat O'Shocker.

"Yeah," says this fellow to Cantonwine. "I bet you don't know me, do you? I wouldn't expect you to know me."

"That's right," says the mauler.

"Well, I'm your cousin. The name's Miller. M, I, L, L, E, R. Miller. My brother back in Ioway married your sister Alice, so now I'm your cousin."

"Zatso?" says Cantonwine. "I got no sister called Alice."

"Might of been your cousin," says the guy. "Seems to me I remember an Alice Cantonwine back in Ioway."

"Zatso?" says Cantonwine. "Well, I'm pleased to metcha."

"Oh, so you don't remember me, huh? I suppose you don't remember Alice, neither."

"That's right."

"Listen," says the guy. "It was my second cousin married this Alice Cantonwine. We're cousins. The name's Miller."

"Yeah. Well, like I say, I'm pleased to metcha."

"He must be mad at something," the guy says when Cantonwine goes back to the dressing-room. "Can you imagine a guy like that? Fair-weather friends. Huh!"

In a couple of minutes he was back again.

"I got to see O'Shocker," he says. "Where's this O'Shocker? We're cousins. . . ."

You can't figure it.

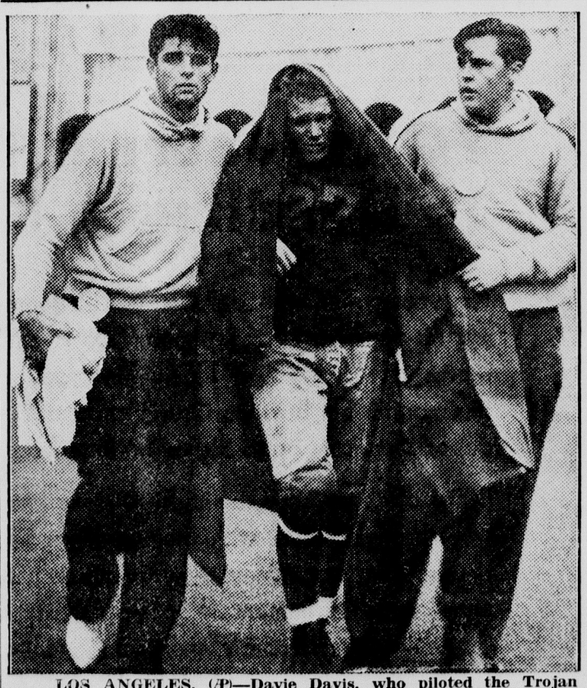
There also were some fights. Cantonwine put the Indian sign on O'Shocker in two brief and tumultuous falls, after O'Shocker had grabbed the first one, with a towel around his neck, in 7:42.

Cantonwine came back to take the second fall in 2:42 with a knuckle rub on the back of the neck and a hangman hold, and won the deciding fall in about four minutes, when O'Shocker went berserk and tried to clean house on everybody, including the referee and bystanders.

Kiman Kudo, the mighty Nipponese mite, made Tarzan Zim look sick for 18 minutes, then dumped him in 34 seconds additional with a body slam, after tossing him out of the ring. Zim in this heat got into an altercation with the ringsiders again, and this time about nine husky fellows mobbed him. He was rescued with difficulty.

Brother Jonathan body-slammed Ivan Managoff into submission in 9:23, and Baron Ginsberg dumped Al Ricker in 14:17, with another body slam.

Davis in Fine Shape for Trojan Test With Bears



LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Davie Davis, who piloted the Trojan football machine to a triumph over Illinois, is again in top shape, Southern California physicians reported today.

Return of Davis to form after a rib injury in the Washington State game, gives Coach Howard Jones double-cylindered power in the quarterback position for the encounter with California here Saturday.

Davis and the veterans remaining from last year's defeat by the Bears will be in the starting lineup, Jones said, while the sophomore eleven, quarterbacked by Ambrose Schlinder, waits for an opportunity to strike. Injuries have robbed the squad of Fullback Angelo Pecciantl.

Photo shows Davis as he was assisted from the gridiron after he suffered the fracture of two ribs in Troy's scoreless tie with Washington State at the coliseum three weeks ago.

Wrestler Jailed For Making Fire In Phoenix Ring

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A backfiring wrestling gag shot "Wild Buddy" O'Brien, Pasadena, Calif., in jail today for investigation of firemen's complaint that he violated an ordinance prohibiting starting a fire in a public building.

O'Brien, grappling with Al Baffert, Canadian heavyweight, started a fire in the ring last night.

The Pasadenan pulled a handful of paper from his trunks, set it ablaze and rubbed the charred remains in Baffert's face. Then he knocked the referee out.

Fights Last Night

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO. — Eddie Carroll, 148, Ottawa, Ont., knocked out Chuck Woods, 148½, Detroit (2).

NEW YORK. — Eddie Zivic, 133¼, Pittsburgh, outpointed Ritchie Fontaine, 133, Montana (8).

LOS ANGELES.—Henry Armstrong, 127, California recognized featherweight champion, knocked out Gene Espinoza, 129½, Los Angeles (1).

SAINTS RESUME DRILL FOR FOUR REMAINING GAMES

Scrimmages today and Thursday and a hard daily grind next week are on the docket for Santa Ana High school's football varsity.

Singling out Milton Smith's play at left end as the feature of Santa Ana's otherwise miserable showing in an 18-0 loss to Alhambra Saturday, Coach W. W. (Bill) Foote indicated some juggling of his players is due before his remaining games:

Nov. 14—Here with San Diego Herbert Hoover.

Nov. 20—There with Long Beach Woodrow Wilson.

Nov. 25 or 26—Here with Fullerton.

Nov. 28 — Coast Preparatory league carnival, tentatively slated for San Diego.

The traditional non-league game with Fulletron will be waged at the Muncipal bowl Thanksgiving day provided Santa Ana and Fullerton Jaysees decide to play their "grudge battle" the preceding night.

Orange's Panthers of the County league will come to Poly field one day next week to scrimmage Santa Ana's second and third-stringers. This is the only eleven the Saints have beaten this year. They started off with a 12-0 win at Orange, lost to Inglewood 13-6, battled Chaffey to a scoreless draw in the rain, lost to San Diego 19-6, to Long Beach 13-0, to Alhambra 18-0.

Midgets Race for 'Crown' Tonight

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—North vs. South for the "state midget auto championship" is the team race arranged for tonight's program at the Atlantic Boulevard speedway.

Al Stein and Les Driesback, both of San Francisco, and Dutch Van Tassel and Bryce Morris of Fresno, will battle among themselves in time trials to select two drivers to compete against Southern California's fastest pair in a 101-lap event.

Willowick's Golfers Bow To H.B. Club

Huntington Beach's women golfers asserted their superiority over the Willowick divot-diggers, 10 to 2, in a South Coast Public links match at Huntington Beach yesterday.

Next league assignment for the Wilowickers will come at Whittier next Monday.

How Huntington Beach won:

Mrs. Harry Bakre and Mrs. Polly Curnutt (HB), 2½; Mrs. Charles Chapman and Mrs. Harry Woodington (W), ½.

Mrs. Faye Talbert and Mrs. J. K. McDonald (HB), 1½; Mrs. Pearl Adams and Mrs. Cliff Miller (W), 1½.

Mrs. Hazel Sheue and Mrs. John Africa (HB), 3; Mrs. Sidney Harris and Mrs. H. A. Bradley (W), 0.

Mrs. John Kettler and Mrs. J. R. Robbins (HB), 3; Mrs. Ludy Schaffer and Mrs. P. A. Hooven (W), 0.

Score—Huntington Beach, 10; Willowick of Santa Ana, 2.

FOOTBALL -:- BRIEFS -:-

By the Associated Press

BOONE, N. C.—A new and almost unheard-of candidate for an invitation to the Rose Bowl game has sprung up with the battle cry "Rhododendrons for Roses." The team is Appalachian, undefeated and untied and one of the highest scoring teams in the country.

The proponent of Appalachian as a Rose Bowl team is Dick Williamson, Charlotte sports columnist and former publicity director at the college. Pointing out that all the "big" southern colleges have been beaten, he picks a "little" one with his only fear that the rest of the schedule is too easy.

"If we only had a big intersectional game with spearfish or slippery rock, I think my cause would not be in vain," he adds.

* * *

PHILADELPHIA.—The Temple Owls gained a lot in prestige when they upset Holy Cross 3-0 Saturday but Augie Macali of Ithaca, N. Y., Pop Warner's latest "find," was a big loser. In leading the Owls to victory he lost 11 pounds, weighing 203 before the game and 192 afterwards.

* * *

ITHACA, N. Y.—Cornell finally has found a football spot for Noah Dorius, sophomore from Wyoming, but they tried him at everything but waterboy and coach first. He started out as an end, then, in order, shifted to tailback, blocking back and fullback. He's a wingback to stay now.

* * *

NEW YORK.—Not content with having Coach Jim Crowley call his Fordham line better than Notre Dame's famous "seven mules," the latest from the Ram campus describes the Fordham wall as "the seven blocks of granite."

* * *

LEXINGTON, Va.—Add famous names on the gridiron: Washington and Lee's regular center is "Will Rogers."

* * *

MILWAUKEE. — Even Marquette's famous Guepe twins, who are supposed to agree on everything, find grounds for differences. Al likes Bermuda onions, the school's publicity bureau tells you, while Art doesn't. They also differ on girl friends.

ARMSTRONG IN KNOCKOUT WIN

LOS ANGELES. (AP) — Another knockout victory pasted in his record book, Henry Armstrong, California claimant to the world featherweight crown, packed up today for an invasion of his native city, St. Louis.

Armstrong used 34 seconds and fewer blows to stop Gene Espinosa, Los Angeles Filipino, in the first round of a scheduled 10-rounder here last night.

Floored by a jolting right to the jaw, Espinosa got up without taking a count and ran into another right. He fell backward, his head thudding against the canvas. He was unconscious for several minutes.

The St. Louis negro fights Joey Alcanter in his home town next Tuesday. He scaled 127 last night against Espinosa's 129½.

NIGHT GAME PLANS ARE CANCELED

Quarterback Del Jones Returns to Valencia Preps Against Brea

Contrary to previous announcements the traditional "big game" might be played on the night of Nov. 25, Fullerton and Santa Ana Junior colleges today elected to play their Eastern conference engagement at Fullerton Thanksgiving day, as originally listed on the Eastern conference schedule.

Director D. K. Hammond, Dear Calvin Flint and Coach A. J. (Bill) Cook of Santa Ana, in a conference today, agreed they were assured of a record crowd on Thanksgiving day, whereas a night game would be only a gamble for better attendance.

The Don-Yellowjacket feud is usually a sell-out on Thanksgiving day, and with the Dons headed toward a conference title, Fullerton's stadium is certain to be taxed to capacity—5500.

DONS MUST CHECK CASEY, WASILCHEN

"Stop John Casey and Ben Wasilchen."

That was the warning scouts hurled at Santa Ana's Dons in training today, as Coaches Cook and Blanchard Beatty attempted to keep their title-bound junior collegians "on edge" for the Pomona game here Friday night.

No longer the door-mat of the Eastern conference, Coach Joe Bonnett's Red Raiders will bring here the best Pomona eleven in history. Casey, a 190-pound all-Citrus Belt league fullback, is said to run the "century" under 10 seconds flat, and his terrific line-plunging, together with Wasilchen's deadly aerials, worried Riverside, Citrus and Chaffey throughout all three close games. Riverside relied on two field goals to eke out a thrilling 12-12 deadlock in the mud.

POMONA
6	Glendale	2
6	Fullerton	6
6	Citrus	0
6	Chaffey	13
12	Riverside	12
36		33
SANTA ANA
7	Pasadena	12
19	Long Beach	0
13	Glendale	0
7	Citrus	0
47	San Bernardino	0
24	U.C.L.A. Frosh	19
117		31

The Dons are in the pink of condition. Quarterback Bill Greschner, sensational open-field runner and pass-receiver, is back in suit, and both of Santa Ana's "regular" elevens are functioning smoothly. Over-confidence is lacking despite their brilliant record. The FIRE is still there.

DEL JONES TO PLAY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Del Jones, Valencia High school's triple-threat quarterback who received a head injury against San Juan Capistrano last week, will be ready to play for Coach Clarence Bishop's Tigers in their "big game" with Brea-Olinda at Valencia Friday afternoon.

Although far from condition, Jones is understood to have volunteered his services because of the importance attached to the game. Valencia must defeat Brea Friday and Laguna Beach Nov. 13 to win the minor division title of the Orange County Prep league.

Wrestling Last Night

(By the Associated Press)

MONTREAL. — Steve Casey, 235, Ireland, defeated Frank Judson, 218, Boston, two straight falls.

CAMDEN, N. J.—Ali Baba, 204, Detroit, defeated Harry Fields, 220, Philadelphia, two out of three falls.

PORTLAND, Me.—Bibber McCoy, 203, Cambridge, Mass., defeated Fred Bruno, 180, New York, two straight falls.

TACOMA. — Boll Martin, 235, Trenton, N. J., defeated Don McIntyre, 205, Kansas City.

Vargas, Solis, Grayson and Johnson Box at 101 Arena

Unable to match Lupe LeMon and Bill Boyd this week, Promoter Bob Singleton today came up with a double main event for the Orange County Athletic club's boxing card Thursday night.

Lemon is fighting at Wilmington again Friday, and Boyd will not be available until after Armistice day.

Singleton's top offering is a rematch between Atwood's rugged Ray Vargas and the black boy from Central avenue, Jim Johnson. The other part of the double bill is Raoul Solis of Santa Ana vs. Al Grayson of Los Angeles, lightweights.

Both these fights were listed on last week's O. C. A. C. program which was postponed because of rain and repairs to the arena's roof.

Singleton is still working on the remainder of the eight-bout show. He hopes to complete the lineup today.

LeMon is working daily at the O. C. A. C. for his match at the Wilmington bowl with Eddie Shea. The Fullerton heavyweight dropped a close one last Friday to "Wild Bill" Boyd, champion of the U. S. Pacific fleet. Singleton would like to bring Lemon and Boyd together at the O. C. A. C.

666 Liquid, Tablets Salve, Nose Drops
COLDS checks and FEVER first day
Headache, 30 minutes
Try "Rub-My-Tism"-World's Best Liniment

$350,000 SEWER PLAN APPROVED BY NEWPORT COUNCIL

Brick Dust

Here and There With The Journal's Rambling County Editor

By I. N. (BRICK) GAINES

WOULDN'T you like to know something about that canoe the Dana Lamb family used to travel down the coast? Yeah, I thought so. So I asked a correspondent to check up on the unique vessel. Here's her report:

"It looked like an overgrown kayak, slightly board in the beam but sturdy withall. The strange thing about this canoe of the Dana Lambs was the method of its construction. A pile of mud at Laguna Beach was its foundation. It was shaped and moulded to fit the requirements of its owners. Over this mud was bent the ribs and over the ribs a thin layer of a special kind of cement, canvas and paint. Then the mud was dug out of the dugout, one might say, and the canoe was ready to go. Don Douglas, Balboa canoe builder and several Long Beach lifeguards familiar with surf boards were of great assistance in the modeling, according to Mrs. Lamb.

"The canoe is 16 feet long and weighed 150 pounds when the travelers started. Now it weighs about 200 pounds, due to patching and other repairs. The cockpit is about five feet long and two and one-half feet wide. Canvas, fastened with a zipper around the top of the cockpit, kept water from the bows, where supplies were stored. Ropes, oars, sails, mast, harpoon and anchor were all fastened neatly on top of the enclosed bows.

"The couple practiced for six months before starting the trip, sailing their craft offshore from Aliso canyon and going to sea even in stormy weather so they might know how to handle their boat in heavy seas. No top or other protection was provided for the passengers in the frail craft, and no accommodations were made for sleeping in the canoe, according to Mrs. Lamb, during one stretch of their trip, four days and nights were spent, quite uncomfortably, in the canoe."

* * *

From Costa Mesa comes a story about a beautiful rainbow Saturday night.

It was about 8 o'clock, and scores of residents were outside their homes to admire the phenomena, while it remained in the sky. No one knew for sure the cause of the beautiful sight, as the moon was obscured behind clouds, but it is believed that the lights of Long Beach, 16 miles away, may have been the cause.

Reflection from Rainbow pier, no doubt.

* * *

Even at that, I imagine residents of Costa Mesa prefer to entertain Long Beach rainbows rather than low flying aviators! The rainbow couldn't fall, very well, and if it did, there'd be small chances of its landing in someone's front room!

* * *

Another private operative sends in a report denying rumors that radio-controlled "snowbirds," little boats for bay sailing, will be in use at Newport next summer.

Frank Dowsett says that the radio rumors are untrue. The snowbirds seen sailing about in the gloom just before dark yesterday with Frank Valle sculling in patient persuit, was no an erratic experiment in short-wave sailing, he claims, but just a runaway. The snowbird had slipped its halter, or something, and escaped from the mooring float with sail set, but no hand at the tiller.

Finally, aided by his dog, "Skipper," Valle overhauled the stray, but not without a few minutes of very active comedy. Even his knowing watchfulness barely saved him from being run down, as a stiff breeze had the crewless craft darting around like a model yacht on a park pond.

* * *

We might arrange contests in which snowbirds are released for capture by boatmen. Equip the rowers with ropes to lasso the craft as they sail past.

But they'd probably end up by shouting "Lasso you catch this'n," ore something like that, which would not doubt spoil the day. It has for me, already!

* * *

Why don't other communities use the method Orange folks do in holding down Hallowe'en damage?

In Orange the Y. M. C. A. throws a party on that evening. All youngsters of the community are invited. Lotsa fun is offered —and accepted—and the lamp posts and fences and cars don't suffer.

The spirit of Hallowe'en is worked into the program very well, too. During the evening, everyone is loaded into trucks. The trucks travel around town, and the occupants make all the noise possible, just so oldsters will remember the holiday.

Which is infinitely better, for the town, at least, than turning everyone loose to tear up and cart away everything cartable!

When Cops 'Sock' a Man in Arizona They Stay 'Socked'

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A. Linwood, Calif., man asked John L. Sullivan, Arizona's attorney general, today whether he could legally manufacture in this state a police night stick "so constructed that when used by a cop, the offender is unable to grasp and hold onto it."

"I shall advise him there is no need for such a weapon in Arizona," Sullivan said. "When our police sock a man he stays socked."

INDORSEMENT OF PWA IS AWAITED

May Start Work on Huge Project By Dec. 1, Officials State

NEWPORT - BALBOA. — Plans and specifications of the $350,000 sewer system of the greater Newport Harbor district were being hurried to PWA headquarters today by R. L. Patterson, city engineer, following their approval by the city council last night.

Directly upon their return with the government's indorsement, bids will be called for, it was arranged. The council meeting was adjourned to Nov. 30, when it is expected bids will be asked and preparations for actual start of the work will be made.

Request of Corona Del Mar residents for a recreational hall and playgrounds properly to provide for children of the trans-bay section was passed to a committee of Councilmen Clairs and Garfield and Assistant City Engineer Siegel for investigation.

Block insurance of the city's 34 vehicles was held over for further consideration. Boardwalks still remaining on the Newport ocean front will be replaced with cement paving as soon as PWA approves the project, property owners were assured by the city engineer.

CHURCH CLASS HAS PARTY

COSTA MESA. — Twenty-six members and friends of the Standard Bearer society met recently in Community church social hall for a Hallowe'en party. Mrs. Elmer Clark, senior counselor, was assisted by her mother, Mrs A. Allen, Mrs. W. I. Lowe and Mrs. Moss in arrangements. Games were in charge of Melba Moss.

Many of the girls came in Hallowe'en costume, and first prize was awarded to Myrna Whitney for the cleverest disguise, with honorable mention going to Evelyn Sneve and Jannie Paulhamus. The monthly meeting of the Standard Bearers will be held on Friday at the home of Ila Jean Jones, Orange avenue near Twentieth.

Present at the party were Alice Winterbourne, Muriell Davidson, Edna Alice Miller, Shirley Attridge, Mabeth and Virginia Armstrong, Ila Jean Jones, Margaret Elliot, Melda Moss, Gladys Edick, Verna Jean Willet, Myrna Whitney, Audrey Blaisdell, Dorothy Beardsley, Norma Cook, Evelyn Sneve, Virginia Donaldson, Janine Paulhamus, Beverly Boyd, Frances Coleman, Elva Page, Marcella Jordan, Betty and Barbara Armstrong and Virginia Blackstock.

ORANGE GUILD HAS MEETING

ORANGE. — Continuing their study of the American Negro, members of the Bertha Epley guild of the Christian church met Monday evening in the church parlor.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Ross Harlan. The Burks Sisters, Santa Ana, a vocal quartet composed of Anna Mary, Marvel Jean and Dora Lee Burks and June Osciolda, sang several Negro spirituals. Mrs. Dora Rice read a paper on "The Rise of the Negro Church." Mrs. Dorothy Farrin told of the Negro religion.

Tea was served later by the group headed by Mrs. Dorothy McCracken, who was also program chairman of the evening.

Incorporate New Townsend Group

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Townsend Trade Builders, Inc., was incorporated here yesterday.

The directors, Russell R. Hind, Glendale; Frank A. Arbuckle, Santa Monica, and Joseph P. Charlebois, Long Beach, state the purpose is to foment public sentiment in favor of the Townsend pension plan and to stimulate business by the issuance of trade stamps.

Capital is $10,000 of which $5 has been subscribed. Los Angeles is the principal place of business.

Sacramento Not To Have Blockade

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—The Sacramento board of supervisors yesterday decided not to establish any transient blockade on the county's borderlines.

County Executive Charles W. Deterding said the supervisors had voted not to make any recommendation in a blockade movement until Governor Merriam makes known his attitude on a request of Los Angeles county supervisors to establish a blockade at the state's borders to keep out transients.

Parkers Held for Kidnaping

Ellis Parker, detective chief of Burlington county, N. J., and his son, Ellis, jr., shown together, were arrested at Mt. Holly, N. J., on bench warrants on indictment by a federal grand jury in connection with the alleged kidnaping of Paul Wendel, Hauptmann case figure. The elder Parker supplied bail of $10,000 and his son, $25,000, to obtain their release. (Associated Press Photo)

LAGUNA HUMANE SOCIETY TO ELECT NEW LEADERS

LAGUNA BEACH.—Councilman Randolph Bainbridge, Blanche Ewing and Gracie Martin were named members of a nominating committee at a regular session of the Laguna Beach Humane society yesterday afternoon at the city hall.

Attorney Leslie F. Kimmell, first vice president, occupied the chair in the absence of Mrs. Helen Carter Tiffany. The nominating committee will submit recommendations for election of a board of directors, set for Monday, Jan. 4, 1937. Under provisions of the by-laws no director may serve on a nominating committee.

In the matter of appointing a poundmaster, some of the women members of the organization expressed the hope that the city council would use the utmost care in the selection of a suitable person, and it was stressed that none but one who is in sympathy with the work and the aims of the humane society should be appointed to the place.

ADOPT BUDGET FOR Y.W.C.A.

ORANGE. — Executive board members of the local Y. W. C. A. met Monday night in the "Y" rooms in the Franzen building, and adopted the budget for the coming year, following an announcement that a financial drive in progress will be completed within the next week. A dinner for all board members and those who assisted in the drive will be held Friday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. R. B. Newcom, 1032 West La Veta avenue, it was decided.

It was announced that Miss Grace Stuff, New York, national Y. W. C. A. secretary, will visit Orange county in January, and the Orange unit will join with Santa Ana and Fullerton in entertaining her.

Board members present were Mesdames R. B. Newcom, Horace Newman, E. R. Forbes, Percy Green, Ben Morse, Amy Palmiter and Charles Robinson, executive secretary; Miss Edna Bargsten and Miss Phyllis Wanamaker.

Editors and Their Opinions

A digest of ideas from Orange county newspapers, reprinted as being of interest to readers of The Journal.

SCHOOL TO CURB CRIME
(Newport News)

Society must look to the home and the schoolroom for its solution of the crime problem, rather than to peace officers and courts and jails. Such was the conclusion reached by the department of special education at the recent meeting of the National Education association, at Portland, Ore. Prevention of crime which has its beginning during school age should be a direct challenge to every classroom teacher. This challenge has been taken up by teachers throughout the land, and when they are fortunate in having the cooperation of the home their success is nearly always assured. Unfortunately in cases without number teachers find the influence of the home and the immediate neighborhood pulling too strongly in the opposite direction. In the molding of character lies the teacher's greatest achievement—not in teaching the three R's.

It must be recognized in schoolroom and in home that the child is constantly going through developing processes. There is the intellectual development, which is mental; the educational development, which is academic; the physical development, and the social and emotional development, which is environment.

Schoolmen are realizing today as never before that education is really more than association of books, teacher and children, and that their greatest progress will lie in teaching and directing the pupil rather than sticking too closely to subject matter. To teach the boys and girls to meet the changing situations that life brings them with vigor and faith and a good heart is one of the first attributes of a successful teacher—in that direction lies the vista of greatest progress. A teacher who can mold the character of his pupils is doing a great service to society that cannot be measured by academic standards. Given such a teacher and an understanding home environment, there will be no crime problem.

PARK ADDITION AT H.B. TOLD

HUNTINGTON BEACH. — Another block was added to the city park today following receipt last night by the city council of permission from J. S. Lamshe of the Huntington Beach company to use block 102, adjoining Lake park for recreational purposes.

City Engineer Harry Overmeyer assured the council that plans for the $55,000 recreational hall proposed for erection on the ocean front will be received within a week. City Treasurer Bayward Butcher reported a healthy balance, more than $110,000, in the bank.

Further requests for uprooting of dead and unwanted trees were brought to the council's attention. The meeting was adjourned to Nov. 10 in expectation of receipt of recreational hall plans. Mayor Willis H Warner presided.

CLUB MEETS AT SPRINGDALE

SPRINGDALE.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodington were hosts to members of the Farmers' Bridge club Saturday night.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beem, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kettler, Mr. and Mrs. John Kettler, Albert Ruoff, Mrs. Agnes Gothard and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Benning, Huntington Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake, Orange.

At the conclusion of the games, prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Beem and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kettler.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS

SPRINGDALE.—Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Pyle entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Snyder, Buena Park, as dinner guests Sunday.

C. OF C. HEAD NAMED AT ORANGE

ORANGE.—Frank H. Collins, manager of Consolidated Orange Growers, was elected president of the chamber of commerce when new and hold-over directors of that body met Monday noon. H. J. Kogler was elected treasurer, and V. D. Johnson, executive secretary, for the 15th consecutive year.

The directors appointed George Bartley from El Modena district, E. J. Bandick from West Orange district and C. O. Heim from the Olive-Villa Park district to serve as outside directors with the regularly elected body.

The chamber of commerce voted to indorse a project for restrooms under the center of the Plaza. Their wish is to have the rooms completely underground, with no building showing above, and the fountain left as it is. The fountain would rest on top of the underground building, according to their proposal.

New directors present were Walter Meier, Oscar J. Leichtfuss, Russell Caldwell, Frank H. Collins, Gordon X. Richmond, H. J. Kogler and S. B. Edwards. Old directors are W. S. Lentz, Thomas P. Douglas, D. S. Smiley, C. W. Coffey and Jay Brown. W. S. Lentz and T. P. Douglas were named as a finance committee.

COLUMNIST IS CLUB SPEAKER

ORANGE. — Mary Patterson Routt, Hollywood columnist and world traveler, was guest speaker at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Woman's club, talking on "Close-Ups of the Orient."

Among other descriptions she told of her work as a newspaper correspondent in China and Japan. The speaker is a trustee of Scripps college, and is well known for her column, "Facts, Folks and Fancies," in a metropolitan newspaper.

Edwin Dunning, director of the University of Southern California Glee club, led community singing and sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Dunning. A 12:30 o'clock luncheon preceded the meeting. Hostesses were Mesdames W. LeRoy Bell, Mrs. Frank H. Collins, Mrs. Noral Evans and Mrs. R. M. Buckles.

During a business meeting at which Mrs. Walter F. Kogler presided, members voted to register a protest to the city council against installing a rest room in the Plaza. It was also voted to recommend that Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake be appointed to the district board.

DILLINGHAM IS DEATH VICTIM

FULLERTON.—V. C. Dillingham, 85, well-known resident of this district, pioneer in the citrus industry and member of the board of directors of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, died at his home here at noon yesterday, following an illness of three months.

Mr. Dillingham was active in the Yorba Linda Citrus association and was well known throughout Southern California for his interest in the citrus industry. Funeral arrangements are in charge of McAulay and Suters, Fullerton morticians.

G. G. Youngsters Feted at Party

GARDEN GROVE.—Hallowe'en night was spent by Billy Phillips, his cousin, Betty Stoesser, and a group of their small friends who were invited by their mothers, Mrs. Leighton Phillips and Mrs. Nellie Stoesser to a masked costume party at their home on East Acacia street.

Mrs. Jay Estep assisted in entertaining the children. Mrs. E. L. Fritcher helped with the games. Guests were Gene Ford, Jimmy Estep, Ernest and June Fritcher, Harlan Miller, Bobby Glaze, Mara Dunlop, Margaret Devine, Betty Lou Noble and Fay Lois Kent.

TANNER IN LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH. — Volney Tanner, well known local resident, who has spent the summer in Michigan, has returned to the art colony.

RETURN FROM TRIP

LAGUNA BEACH. — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Penquite have returned from an extended trip to the Middle West. They are staying at the Solano apartments.

Farm Center Meetings

THURSDAY

Cypress-Magnolia center, 6:30 p. m. potluck supper, with members to bring salad, covered-dish or dessert. Topic: "Present Cost of Irrigation Water in Orange County;" M. R. Huberty, Riverside experiment station, speaker. Two vaudeville acts and rural entertainment project will furnish entertainment.

Two Grove Church Groups Observe Hallowe'en

GARDEN GROVE.—College departments of both the First Methodist and Baptist church Sunday schools enjoyed Hallowe'en parties Saturday evening, the former at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Goddard on East Garden Grove boulevard and the Baptist group in the church bungalow.

Lillian Crane and Ferne Schnitger were in charge of games at the Goddard home while the refreshments were arranged by Juanita Dungan and Beatrice Dolf. Evelyn Blaeholder entertained with violin solos. Other guests were Dr. Charles F. Seitter, Mary Dolf, Joy Schnitger, Maxine Urwick, Marjorie Huested, Irma Adkinson and Dorothy Barnes.

For the B. Y. P. U. party Miss Betty Lehnhardt supervised games and with the assistance of Misses Marjorie and Helen Hunt served refreshments. Others present were the Rev. W. J. Keech, the advisor, Miss Jennie Hedstrom, Myra Lake, Zelma Riley, Frances Hammontree, Gladys and Esther Cockerham, Leland Dunham, Fullerton; Harold Peterson, Whittier, Dale Miller and Earl Henry.

PASTOR LEAVES SILVER ACRES

SILVER ACRES.—The Rev. Carl Jungkeit, who has been the pastor of the Community church for the past three years, received his commission Saturday from the American Sunday School Union as missionary in charge of the Santa Rosa district.

Accompanied by Mrs. Jungkeit, their daughter, Dorothy, and son, Dwight, Mr. Jungkeit will leave next Monday for Santa Rosa, where they will make their home. The Jungkeit family was honored at a party at the home of Mrs. Jungkeit's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dye, Monday evening in Hynes. Present were the Rev. and Mrs. Carleton Buck, and Evelyn and Helen Buck, Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Buck, Everett Buck and daughters, Donna and Marjorie, Santa Ana.

Ruth Eidelson Honors Friends

GARDEN GROVE. — Five friends of Ruth Eidelson were invited to join her and her mother, Mrs. A. Eidelson, for a Hallowe'en party at their home, Friday after school,.

Barbara Rae Weiss received a prize, for games and Mrs. Eidelson served a lunch. Other guests were Norma Beatty, Nancy Jane Jaggers, Jean Gill and Wilma Jean Slie.

Laguna Group to Go to Mexico

LAGUNA BEACH.—Mrs. Florence E. Browron, her daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Leaman and Miss Marjorie Bowron, and Mrs. J. W. Rankin, are planning a motor trip to Mexico City. Mrs. Mary Langley Herrick is also planning to join the party. They expect to leave here about the middle of the month.

C. E. MEETS AT SILVER ACRES

SILVER ACRES.—Members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Community church met in the parsonage yard Saturday night for an outdoor Hallowe'en frolic, with Mrs. Leroy Stewart as hostess.

Present were Dorothy Finn, Daphney Culvern, Jack Kinzer, Doris Dugger, Ralph Finn, Richard Claus, Kathleen Claus, Cora Fay Kinzer, Russell Wilcox, Lynell Cain, Ray Miller, Gene Miller, Thelma Cain, Jack Helmick, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Miller, Ethel Cunningham, Edith Scott, Mrs. Roy Baker, Carl Baker, Fairfax Hunt, Edna Helmick, Ermon Mosely, Gladys Wilcox, Ruth Jungkeit, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dugger and daughter, Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Baker and daughter, Hope, and Lizzie Reddig, of Cathay, N. D.

Bandit Victim Taken to Laguna

LAGUNA BEACH.—Harold D. "Bud" Marshall, local taxicab driver, who was robbed and shot last June by two youthful bandits in Laguna canyon, yesterday was brought to his home, 411 Holly street, from St. Joseph's hospital, Santa Ana, where he has been a patient since he was attacked by the highwaymen.

Although there has been some improvement in his condition, Marshall's recovery is very slow, it was reported.

TRIP TO END AT NEWPORT TOMORROW

LAGUNA BEACH.—Long distance phone advices were received here today to the effect that the seagoing yacht Stranger III reached San Francisco Sunday, and is expected at Newport Beach either Wednesday or Thursday. On board the vessel, having returned from a six-month cruise to the South Sea Islands, are 31 Orange county Sea Scouts.

Among Laguna boys on the cruise are Macauley Ropp, Fred Moe, Melbert Thompson and Jim Harris.

LUNCHEON FOR CLUB PLANNED

WESTMINSTER.—Members of the Young Matrons' club of the Presbyterian church are planning a pot-luck luncheon to precede their regular meeting in the church hall Thursday, with a short business session scheduled to follow the luncheon.

In the afternoon women of Midway City, Barber City and Westminster have been invited to attend an open meeting of the club and meet Mrs. Golden Weston, Santa Ana, who will speak on the subject "Growing Old."

No Tags Planned By Security Board

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The social security bord has issued a statement saying it had "no intention of using metal identification tags on beneficiaries of the social security act."

The statement was issued, the board said, to "flatly" deny remarks of John D. M. Hamilton, Republican national chairman, at Boston Saturday in that connection.

Bebermeyer Is Feted at Party

WESTMINSTER. — Mrs. Orion Bebermeyer entertained at a family dinner Sunday complimenting Mr. Bebermeyer, who was observing his birthday.

Guests included Mrs. Lula Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones, Betty Jones and Majorie and Donna Buck, Santa Ana.

BELOVED CASTAWAY

By MARTHA BANNING THOMAS

Karen Chase comes to the remote little fishing village of Smoke Mountain to try to forget the bitterness and unhappiness brought to her and her dead mother and father by a vengeful woman, Mrs. Masters. Under the name of Karen Leader she lives there for seven years. Then Job O'Farrell, young fisherman, asks her to marry him. She is ready to accept him, but first tells him her history, incidentally describing the sort of life she had led in the town of Two Rivers, where the Chase family had held first rank before Mrs. Masters had brought them to financial ruin. Job fears that she may some day tire of her present surroundings, and withdraws his proposal to think things over.

CHAPTER IV

Karen sat for a long time thinking over what she had related to Job. Of the last dreadful words of Mrs. Masters concerning her mother, she naturally had not spoken. But the pain of them stayed with her and prevented her from being wholly free of her old life. She could not forget as she wished to forget.

She rose at last from the niche in the rock wall, and started home. The thought of living her life at Smoke Mountain as Job's wife gave new and poignant emphasis to everything. The fishing dories going out at daylight. The strong winds that raked the land so that the trees were bent in one continual shudder. She would know them, hear them, see them always now.

She gathered some wild roses and, when she reached home, she asked Peg O'Farrel for a drinking glass.

"I'm going to put these in Job's room," she said.

"They're right pretty," smiled Peg. "But they'll be closed up tight by the time he gets home. That's the sorrow of them—they wither quick, away from their own place —like people that's been uprooted."

During the days that followed, Karen saw little of Job. He left the house early every day, and returned late. He seemed to avoid her.

Twice a week came the packet from Mickle Bay to Smoke Mountain. And on one of these trips a stranger arrived. Job, baiting trawl on the wharf, gave him a hand up the ladder.

"A fine-looking man he is, too," he told his mother lated. "A city chap, I'd say—not from around these parts. And right away he asked if a Miss Chase lived here." Job's lips closed firmly.

"Chase?" Peg wrinkled up her forehead. "Never heard tell of such a person, have you?"

Job mumbled an answer and went out to find Karen.

She was sitting on the woodpile, in the clear sunshine. He came and stood before her.

She looked up at him mischievously. "I've not seen you for so long Job—I want to check up and see if I've forgotten a freckle or something."

He did not smile.

"I wanted to tell you that a stranger arrived here today. He asked me right away if a Miss Chase lived here."

Karen turned white. For seven years no one had called her by that name. She asked what the man was like.

"A tall, good-looking feller. Brought a lot of luggage. Says he's an artist, and has come here to do some painting."

"What's his name—do you know?"

"Mr. MacLeod. And he's staying down to Sandy Trew's place in the village."

That afternoon, Karen walked the bluffs alone. She felt uneasy and disturbed over Job's report of the stranger.

On the bluffs, she met queer old Cain Sawyer, a shriveled figure in flapping jacket and wide trousers.

"How'd do, Miss Leader," he piped at her. "Fine day."

"Yes, Mr. Sawyer."

Always, when she saw him, she suffered a slight shock, though he had been one of the most frequent charges. Yet each time she saw him, he seemed thinner, sharper, more sly.

Now, he came close to her.

"Ye know, don't ye," he confided in a hoarse undertone, "that they found my little feller's clothes, all tore terrible, and washed ashore? His sailor cap with the blue ribbon onto it, and one teenty rubber boot?" The old man did not wait for an answer. "He was drowned, the little feller, right off the old bluff here—on them rocks below. They never found him. I was off cruising. And the little feller wandered up here unbeknownst to his ma." He gazed at Karen with intenent, feverish eyes.

She nodded over this familiar story that she had heard time and again.

"Now, Sandy Trew's little feller," he went on, "ain't near so strong as my own lad—but he's a-living on, and mine's drowned. That's a queer thing, ain't it?" His eyes half closed, as if over a secret he would hde from her.

Then, he trotted off, his loose jacket and wide trousers flapping in the wind.

Even in the warm sunshine, Karen could not rid herself of the chill of this meeting with Cain Sawyer. She climbed down the bluffs to the niche in the rocks, and she sat there thinking that her own bitterness was a small trouble compared to the stark suffering of this father over his "little feller."

Her thoughts were interrupted by a voice, hailing her from above.

"I beg pardon, but would you be kind enough to tell me if a path goes all the way around these rocks to the other side of this point?"

Karen straightened up with a jerk. She had not heard a voice like this in years.

She looked up at the edge of the bluff. Ah—so there he was—the stranger who had come to Smoke Mountain. She had not wanted to meet him, but here he was, and she'd fire the first gun.

"Yes, Mr. MacLeod," she called, "there is a path."

He clambered down towards her with his sketching traps, making quite a clatter.

A handsomer man, Karen reflected, she had never seen. He managed a quick, charming bow while balanced precariously on an edge of rock.

"Miss Chase?" he inquired.

"No—I'm sorry."

"Then you have the advantage of me, I'm afraid."

"Do you think it possible for a stranger to come to Smoke Mountain and not be news in ten minutes?" she said.

She rose, stepping from pointed rock to pointed rock, until she stood below the niche.

"The path runs around there. It is very narrow. Be careful not to slip."

MacLeod smiled at her. "I'm in no hurry whatever. May I have a cigarette here?"

He rested his camp stool, portfolio and easel against a boulder, and gazed pleasantly at Karen.

"And do you think it possible, Miss Chase — or Miss Leader, whichever you prefer—for me to see you in this distant spot, and not recognize you?"

"Why," she demanded, "do you think my name is Chase?"

"Because"—his eyes smiled calmly into hers—"you look so much like your mother."

Karen swayed.

"Forgive me," he said, "if I seem abrupt but, you see—I came here purposely to find you."

(To be continued)

(Copyright, 1936, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

(The characters in this story are fictitious.)

GROWERS GET BROWN ROT WARNING

Wahlberg Tells Methods For Curbing Citrus Pest Attack

A warning that fall rains and winds are bringing the seasonal problem of brown rot control was issued today by Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg.

"Brown rot of citrus fruits is due to fungi, the spores of which are usually splashed during rains to the low-hanging fruits within a distance of about three feet from the soil. Recent investigations by the citrus experiment station, have shown that citrus brown rot in California may start from the penetration of the invisible germ tubes from these spores," he said.

Ravages Described

"Occasionally, after rains accompanied by or followed by winds, the spores may be wafted to higher levels. Fruits have been found as high as 20 to 30 feet in old seedling orange trees. Three days to one week, depending on temperatures, are required for decay to become visible.

"Brown rot on fruit at first shows a small darkened area which enlarges rapidly and turns to various shades of drab brown. The rind and underlying tissues remain firm or leathery until secondary organisms enter. The decay usually has a characteristic odor which, after it is once experienced, serves as a means of identification. Brown rot occasionally affects the leaves and may cause partial defoliation mostly of the low - hanging branches.

"The conditions for infection and rapid development are, primarily, excessive moisture over considerable periods of time with moderate temperatures. Long continued periods of rainy and foggy weather in late winter and early spring are especially favorable to inducing decay.

"The preventive treatment in the orchard (if cyanide fumigation is not used until the following summer) is to spray the ground and lower branches for a distance of three feet high with Bordeaux mixture (6-6-100) or a commercial mixture of copper sulfate and lime which had equivalent strength of the copper.

Formulas Told

"For example, a commercial powder with 12¾ per cent metallic copper would require 12 pounds to 100 gallons of water. If cyanide fumigation is practiced a substitute formula, almost as efficient, is 12 pounds of zinc sulfate, one pound of copper sulfate, and six pounds of hydrated lime to 100 gallons of water. A mixed powder, called zinc-copper Bordeaux, approximately of these proportions, is now available. For equivalent strength this powder is used about 16 pounds to 100 gallons of water.

"Dusting the lower part of the tree with dry Bordeaux powder (copper Bordeaux or zinc-copper Bordeaux) has also been used with promising results. These are easier to apply in very wet weather when it is difficult to get heavy spray outfits through wet orchards. Treatment should be given in the fall, October to December, preceding the period of frequent rains."

UTAH 'FAGINS' ARE EXILED

FARMINGTON, Utah. (AP)—Parents who allegedly trained their four small children as beggars and thieves were ordered to leave the county yesterday.

Confessions of two burglaries were obtained, Deputy Sheriff Calvin G. Roberts said, from four children ranging in age from 5 to 11 years.

"The children knew all the answers and it took hours of questioning to get anything out of them," Roberts said.

"Finally they admitted their parents taught them to go from door to door. If anyone answered, the youngsters would beg. If none did, they would enter the place."

Santa Ana Youth Wins Naval Honor

Selected as honor man this week among recruits in his class at the United States Naval Training station, San Diego, Robert W. Carr, Santa Ana youth, seems in a fair way to becoming an outstanding bluejacket, after only six weeks in the navy.

Word of the honor accorded Carr was received here today from J. W. Gates, commander of the training station. Carr was selected as honor man of his class for the week ending Oct. 20.

Young Carr is the son of Mrs. A. J. Carr of Santa Ana. He enlisted in the navy Sept. 16.

Breakfasters to Recall Election

There will be some after-election comment at the Breakfast club next Thursday morning. It may take the form of a victory surprise program. A. E. Maeder will be in charge of the exercise.

Howard Cutler has been scheduled for accordion numbers, and other artists may appear. "The only way to get your money's worth out of the Breakfast club program is to hear it," said Ed Cochems, president.

RADIO ROUNDUP

Tonight's Program

Better not try for any uninterrupted symphonies or concerts on the radio tonight. Elections, 'n' things.

In between will be the usual Caravan show over KHJ at 6:30, and the Fred Astaire business on KFI at the same time.

Los Angeles bandsmen will get together in the wee sma' hours on KNX at 2 a. m. (that will be tomorrow morning) for what they call the "First International Jam Session."

The Journal's returns over KVOE will shut down at midnight. After that, KNX, KFI and KHJ will keep pluggin' along until the presidential race is over.

KVOE, 1500 KILOCYCLES
TUESDAY, NOV. 3
Evening

4:30—KVOE-Santa Ana Journal World Wide and Local News.
4:45—Band Marches.
5:00—Selected Classics.
5:15—Modern Rhythm.
5:30—Adult Education Broadcast: "Astronomical Instruments."
5:45—Organ Recital.
6:15—Keep Smiling Broadcast Presented by James Workman.
6:30—Election Returns; Popular Hits of the Day.
6:45—Sons of the Pioneers.
7:00—Orange County Hospital Program: Dr. C. O. Patterson.
7:30—"Through the Hollywood Lens."
8:00—Peacock Court.
8:30—KVOE-Santa Ana Journal World Wide and Local News.
8:45—Band Marches.
9:00—Spanish Program; Election Returns.
10:15—"Let's Dance."
10:45—The Serenader; Election Returns.
11:15-12:00—Selected Classics.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 4
Morning

6:00—Rhythm Time.
6:45—Dude Martin's Round-Up.
7:00—The Serenader.
7:30—Salon String Ensemble.
8:00—Popular Hits of the Day.
8:30—KVOE-Journel World Wide and Local News.
8:45—Vocal Favorites.
9:00—Aloha Hawaiians.
9:30—Organ Recital.
9:45—The Monitor Views the News.
10:00—Popular Hits of the Day.
10:30—Orange County Federal Forum Broadcast.
10:45—Musical Masterpieces.
11:30—Popular Presentation.
Afternoon
12:00—Stolen Cars Broadcast; Christmas Seal Message.
12:15—The Dixie Demons.
12:30—KVOE-Journal World Wide and Local News.
12:45—Organ Interlude.
12:50—Grain and Stock Market Quotations.
1:00—Vocal Favorites.
1:15—Concert Hour.
2:15—Musical Varieties.
2:30—"Club Cabana."
2:45—Popular Hits of the Day.
3:30—Selected Classics.
4:00—All Request Program.
4:30—KVOE-Journal World Wide and Local News.

4 to 5 p. m.

KMTR—Arthur Briggs, 4; Race Results, 4:30; Walk-a-Show, 4:40; Hillbillies, 4:55 to 6 p. m.
KFI—Easy Aces, C., 4; Voice of Experience, 4:15; Election Returns, 4:30; John Herrick, baritone, 4:45.
KMPC—Round-up, 4; H. M. Richards, 4:30; silent to 9:30 p. m.
KHJ—Election Returns, 4; Herbert Foote Concert, C., 4:15; Election Returns 4:30; All-Year Club, 4:45.
KFWB—Music, 4.
KFVD—News, 4; Monochord, 4:15; Dr. McCoy, 4:30; silent, 5:15 to 10 p. m.
KNX—Home Town Sketches, 4; Haven of Rest, 4:15; Blue Ballads, 4:45.
KFOX—News, 4; Dr. McCoy, 4:30.
KECA—Maurice Cross Orch., 4; Election Returns, 4:15; Tony Russell, 4:30; Election Returns, 4:45.
KFSD—Federal Housing Talk, 4; Tony Russell, C., 4:15; Dr. McCoy, 4:30; News Theater of the Air, 4:45.
KSL—"Round the World Club," 4; Melody Minutes, 4:15; Jack Armstrong, T., 4:30; Orphan Annie, T., 4:45.
KFI—Along About Sundown, C., 5; Crosscuts, C., 5:30.

5 to 6 p. m.

KHJ—Hammerstein Music Hall, 5; Election Returns, 5:25; George Fischer Whispers, 5:30; Election Returns, 5:45.
KFWB—Gold Star Rangers, 5.
KNX—Maurice's Orch., 5; Jack Armstrong, 5:30; Orphan Annie, 5:45.
KFOX—George Strance, 5; Brevities, 5:15; Theater News, 5:30; Goin' Steady, 5:45.
KECA—Paul Martin Orch., 5; Beaux Arts Trio, 5:30.
KFSD—Paul Martin, C., 5; Gold Star Rangers, T., 5:30.
KSL—Hammerstein Music Hall of the Air, C., 5; News, 5:30; Musical Miners, 5:45.

6 to 7 p. m.

KMTR—News, 6; Music, 6:10; Missing Persons, 6:45.
KFI—Ben Bernie and the Lads, 6; Fred Astire, C., 6:30.
KHJ—Musical, 6; Karl Rossner and Gaylord Carter, 6:15; Election Returns, 6:25; The Caravan, 6:30 (with election returns at 6:45, 7 and 7:15.)
KFWB—News, 6; B'nai B'rith, 6:15; Salvatore Santaella Orch., 6:30; Early California Drama, 6:45.
KNX—Music, 6; News, 6:15; Dance Orch., 6:30.
KFOX—News, 6; Every Family, 6:10; School Kids, 6:30; Mystery, 6:45.
KECA—News, 6; Peter MacGregor House, 6:15; Husbands and Wives, 6:30.
KFSD—Ben Bernie, C., 6; Husbands and Wives, C., 6:30.
KSL—Fred Wering Pennsylvanians, C.,6; Caravan, C., 6:30.

7 to 8 p. m.

KMTR—Strings, 7; Frank J. McCarthy, 7:15; Hawaiians, 7:30.
KFI—Community Chest, drama, 7:30; Roy Campbell Royalists, 7:45; The Old Observer, 7:45.
KHJ—Strange as It Seems, C., 7:30; Male Chorus Parade, 7:45.
KFWB—Music, 7; Waltz, 7:15; Studio Whispers, 7:30; Salvatore Santaella Orch., 7:45.
KNX—Elmer, 7; Rhythm, 7:15; Newlyweds, 7:30; Cowboy Music, 7:45.
KFOX—Eb & Zeb, T., 7; Bobby and Betty, 7:15; Boy Detective, 7:30; Concert, 7:45.
KECA—Election Night in Town Hall (N. Y. C.), with John B. Kennedy, 7; Portraits in Harmony, 7:30.
KFSD—Service, C., 7; Every Day in San Diego, 7:15; Portraits in Harmony, C., 7:30.
KSL—Election Returns, C., 7:30; Election Returns, C., 7:45.

8 to 9 p. m.

KMTR—Mexican Catholic Hour, 8; Mason Case, talk, 8:45.
KFI—Amos 'n' Andy, 8; Lum and Abner, 8:15; Leo Reisman & Phil Duey, C., 8:30.
KHJ—Election Returns, 8; Renfrew of the Mounted, 8:15; Laugh With Ken Murray, 8:30; Election Returns, 8:55.
KFWB—Election Returns to 2 a. m.
KNX—Larry Lee Orch., 8; Arthur Renton Orch., 8:15; Music, 8:30; Rosecrucians, 8:45.
KFOX—Election Returns to 2 a. m.
KECA—Election Returns, 8; Reser Arcadia's Orch., 8:05; Radio Commission Talk, 8:15; Dude Ranch, 8:30.
KFSD—Arcadia Ballroom Orch., C., 8; Bar Z Ranch, C., 8:30.
KSL—Republican National Committee, C., 8; Automobile Program, T., 8:15; Laugh With Ken Murray, C., 8:30.

9 to 10 p. m.

KMTR—News, 9; Election Returns, 9:15.
KFI—Death Valley Days, C., 9; Good Morning Tonight, C., 9:30.
KMPC—Robert Noble, 9:30.
KHJ—Fred Wering Orch., 9; Community Chest, 9:30; Musical Moments, 9:45.
KNX—News, 9; Election Returns, 9:15 to 4 a. m.
KECA—Election Returns (until Presidential contest is decided) and music, 9.
KFSD—Service, C., 9; Cotton Club Orch., C., 9:30.
KSL—"Night Editor, T., 9; Ozzie Nelson Orch., C., 9:15; Weather Prophet, 9:30; News, 9:35; Dick Stabile Orch., C., 9:50.

10 to 11 p. m.

KMTR—Chito Montova's Orch., 10; Lorenzo Flennoy's Orch., 10:30.
KFI—News, 10; Election Returns (until Presidential contest is decided) and music, 10:15.
KMPC—Monitor News, 10; Max Dolin, 10:15; News, 10:30; Music, 10:45.
KHJ—News, 10; Fortune Building Drama, 10:10; Election Returns (until Presidential contest is decided) and music, 10:15.
KFVD—News, 10:30; Reports to 4 a. m.
KFSD—News, C., 10; St. Francis Hotel Orch., C., 10:15; Olbum of Musical Favorites, T., 10:30.
KSL—Jimmy Dorsey Orch., C., 10; Larry Kent Orch., 10:30.

11 p. m. to Midnight

KMTR—Hawaiians, 11.
KMPC—Music to 1 a. m.; silent to 6 a. m.
KFSD—Shadows, 11; Paul Carson, C., 11:30.
KSL—Sterling Young Orch., C., 11; Ellis Kimball Orch., C., 11:30.

After Midnight

KMTR—Santaella Orch., and Election Returns, 12:15; News, 12:45; Election Returns, 1; silent to 5 a. m.

Highlights

TOMORROW

6:00 a.m.—KHJ, Rise and Shine.
8:00 a.m.—KFWB, Los Angeles Breakfast club.

Short Wave Program

TONIGHT
(Courtesy Turner Radio Co.)

5:30—Eddie Guest in "Welcome Valley," a Sketch. NBC, W8XK (11.87)
6:00—Vox Pop—Sidewalk Interviews. W2XAF (9.53)
8:00—Clem McCarthy, Sports. W2XAF (9.53)
9:00—Japan. JVH (14.60) News in Japanese and English, Native Music.

Canada
CJRX (11.72)

5:30—Music for Today, with Morton Gould's Orchestra.
7:00—National Sing-Song.

Berlin, Germany
DJD (11.77) and DJC (6.02)

5:15—News and Economic Review.
5:30—Brass Band.
7:45—Greetings to Our Listeners.

London
GSD (11.75) and GSC (9.58)

6:00—Big Ben. The BBC Empire Orchestra.
7:00—"Foreign Affairs."
7:15—New British Dance Tunes.
7:30—Murray Ashford and Edgar Sawyer, Entertainers.
7:40—The News.

Havana, Cuba

6:00—COCX (10.40), COCQ (9.75) and COCH (9.42)

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 4
Morning

6:00—Hong Kong, ZBW (9.52)
7:00—Germany, DJB (15.20)
9:30—National Farm Hour. NBC, W8XK (15.21)
Afternoon
12:00—Noon—U. S. Marine. W3XAL (17.79)
3:45—Lowel Thomas. W8XK (15.21)

Berlin, Germany
DJD (11.77)

1:50—German Folk Song.
2:00—Little Songs for Big People.
3:00—A Generation Changes Germany.
4:15—Today in Germany.

KVOE OFFERS ASTRONOMY PROGRAM

Interesting indeed will be this evening's adult education broadcast from KVOE at 5:30 on the subject of astronomy.

"Astronomical Instruments" is the title of the broadcast to be made by Cecil Wilson, instructor of astronomy in the adult education department, Santa Ana city schools, assisted by Ferris Scott.

The astronomical broadcasts are scheduled every Tuesday at the same hour.

In another of the programs presented from time to time by KVOE especially for the patients in the tuberculosis ward of the Orange county hospital, Dr. C. O. Patterson of Anaheim will offer a group of vocal and musical-saw selections tonight at 7 o'clock.

All of the selections programed for tonight will be given in response to requests and will include "Bird Songs at Eventide," "I Love a Little Cottage," "The Old Spinning Wheel," "Elegie," "One Fleeting Hour," "Sunrise and You" and others. F. Siegel, flutist, also will be included in the presentation.

Miss Cleone Patterson will accompany.

ALOHA PLAYERS ON NEW HOUR

The Aloha Hawaiians, previously scheduled on KVOE Mondays, Wednedays and Fridays at 5:15 p. m., will be heard at a new hour beginning tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, to be scheduled at that hour Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Harry Layton, well known in local dramatic circles, will announce this new series of programs by the Hawaiians, each of which will be extended to 30 minutes.

An informative discussion of the causes and elimination of gall stones will be made during this evening's "Keep Smiling" broadcast to be made from KVOE at 6:15.

The Rhythm Makers will be heard on the same program and will offer the popular tune of the day, "Let's Sing Again."

Will Tell How to Arrange Flowers

Miss Clare Cronenwett will give her second lecture on flower arrangement Thursday evening in the Willard auditorium. She will display various arrangements and also explain the basic art principles underlying effective use of flowers, grasses, leaves and fruits.

At Thursday's meeting she will emphasize the value of form and the use that can be made of fall flowers, fruits, grasses and leaves. Those who attend are invited to bring arrangements which they have made. These will be displayed and analyzed by Miss Cronenwett.

The program is part of the Willard evening high school and is open to the public.

STREETS WILL BE COLORFUL FOR PARADE

Decorators today established headquarters in Santa Ana, from where they will launch a campaign destined to spread color along the route of the Armistice day parade. The office is located at 206 North Main street.

Cooperating with post 131 of the American Legion here, the Cush Decorating company of Long Beach has been awarded the exclusive contract for decorating streets and store windows for merchants. Ten per cent of the money taken in by the company for decorating stores will be turned back to the Legion post.

Work of decorating the streets will begin in the next few days. Art Eklund, chairman of the decorating committee, said the Cush company had been designated the official decorators for Armistice day.

In the meantime Dr. James Farrage has completed arrangements to administer first aid during the parade and at the football game in the afternoon, if it is needed.

A first aid station will be located at the police station and two ambulances will be equipped and ready for work at Third and Main streets. Patrolmen "Brick" Grouard and Paul Cozad will be in charge of the ambulances and will be assisted by Mrs. Edna Eklund and Mrs. Grouard. Dr. Farrage will be in attendance at the first aid station. In the afternoon the first aid station and the two ambulances will be moved to the Municipal bowl, where the San Pedro Longshoremen and the San Diego Dons will tangle.

All indications point to a real football game in view of the fact that the Longshoremen Sunday walloped the crack Salinas Iceberg pros 33 to 0 and the Dons took the measure of the Los Angeles Cardinals Sunday to the tune of 15 to 0.

VAUGHAN'S PAY MAY BE CUT

By SCOTTY RESTON

NEW YORK, (AP)—There was no obvious activity in the 16 major league baseball offices today, but the club owners were calmly stirring up a hurricane of trouble just the same.

They were working on the 1937 baseball salaries, an innocent looking mathematical procedure calculated this year to involve some of the game's famous players in a few first-class wrangles.

Generally based on the uncompromising arithmetic of the batting and pitching averages, salary cuts were expected for Paul Dean, Cardinals' pitcher; Buddy Myer, Washington's 1935 American league batting champion and Hank Greenberg, the Tigers' long-hitting first baseman, among others.

These three appeared to be in the toughest spots. Myer won the batting crown with an average of .349. This year he cut that figure down 80 points and played only about a month. Greenberg hit .328 season before last, held out for more money last spring, and then broke his arm after playing 12 games. Paul Dean also came up with a bad arm and finished the season with five games won and as many lost. He was paid off for this on the basis of winning 19 and losing 12 the year before.

Bad news also appeared to be on the way for Arky Vaughan, the 1935 National League batting star, whose record .385 dwindled 51 points this season; Hank Leiber, Giants' outfielder, who fell off at bat and lost his regular position; Augie Galan, star of the Cubs' 1935 pennant dash, whose average shrank 50 points to .264; Hal Lee of the Bees who dropped from .303 to .249; Virgil Davis, Cards' catcher, who finished with a mark of .268, and Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs who is falling into legend.

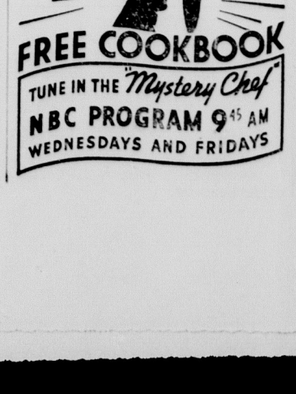
Nor does the National league have a corner on the bad news. In addition to Myer and Greenberg, a general shakedown was expected for the gold-plated Boston Red Sox, with an extra shake for Roger Cramer, Al Cooke and Mel Almada.

Even some of the pitchers will be cooled off. The general pay raise anticipated for most of the winning Giants is not likely to spread to Hal Schumacher's envelope. He won only 11 and lost 13 last season. Charlie Root of the Cubs is also in a bad way. He won only three games and lost six.

In the American league, Alvin Crowder of the Tigers; Ted Lyons, White Sox; Mel Harder and Willis Hudlin, Indians, and Fred Ostermueller and Wes Ferrell, Red Sox, also are in poor dickering positions.

Ferrell's record of 20 won and 15 lost is good enough, but his record includes one serious charge of insubordination.

Crowder won only four this year; Lyons fell well below his former standard with 10 won and 13 lost, Harder broke even with 15 and 15; Hudlin won only one.



They'll Put Punch in Armistice Parade

The group shown here is the general committee in charge of arrangements for the Armistice day celebration to be staged in Santa Ana Nov. 11, under the sponsorship of post 131, American Legion. Those standing, from left to right, are Charles Neer, George McConnell, William Penn, Bert Casteix, Harry Hanson, Allison Honer, Art Eklund, Charles Swanner, E. T. McFadden and George Boyd. Seated, left to right, are Hunter Leach, Commander Cy Featherly and Rodney Bacon.

WINNER IN BABY DERBY MAY HINGE ON SPELLING

TORONTO. (AP)—Upon the difference between a "C" and a "K" may hang $500,000 and the hopes of half a dozen champion childbearers.

While the five other apparent joint winners of the Millar baby race fortune were receiving congratulations today and planning what to do with their shares, the sixth, Mrs. Lily Kenny, announced her two "missing babies" had been found, properly registered at the bureau of vital statistics.

Matter of Spelling

It is just a matter of spelling, Mrs. Kenny said. The infants were registered as offspring of "Mrs. Cenny."

"This definitely proves that Mrs. Kenny is the sole winner of the prize for childbearing under the terms of the late Charles Vance Millar's will," her counsel said.

"There was never any question about her being the mother of nine eligible babies, the same as the other five mothers claim. With this proof of the two other births her total goes to 11—and that's the top."

Threatens Slap

Mrs. Kenny spoke very forcibly about what she would no next Friday if Mr. Justice Middleton fails to declare her sole winner of the stork derby.

"If he says I've got to divide that money with those other mothers, I'll slap his face," the study French-Canadian mother said.

Mrs. Kenny is one of 14 mothers who have been asked to appear Friday and prove their claims to the money the eccentric lawyer bequeathed to the most prolific mother in Toronto.

HITLER-KISSER IS BACK HOME

NORWALK. (AP)—The California housewife who kissed Reichsfeuhrer Hitler cooked a prosaic breakfast for her husband and three children in their home today.

Mrs. George de Vries, vivacious Norwalk matron, is back from a tour of Europe with her family.

Last August she became a candidate for the Olympic kissing championship when the news was cabled that she had given Adolf Hitler an osculatory greeting during the international games at Berlin.

"It happened when I went down to take Hitler's picture with my small movie camera," she recalled today. "He seemed so friendly that I just stepped up and asked for his autograph. He kept on smiling and so I kissed him.

"I don't know why I did it. It's just that I'm a woman of impulses, I guess."

RADIO 'MAGIC' OUTLINED

"Entertainment in Magic," by Bob Reed, made up an interesting program for the Radio Technicians' association of Orange county in their monthly dinner session last night at the Green Cat cafe.

Presentation of new service equipment by a representative of the Clough-Brengle company was also on the program. Eight new members were taken into the club, bringing enrollment up to 23 active members and one honorary member, representing 10 towns.

The new members are J. R. Swain of Buena Park, H. L. Caldwell of Laguna Beach, N. O. Foss of Yorba Linda, H. O. Stanbro of Anaheim, and Trevor Carnes, Glenn Gossard, Ralph Preston and A. E. Purrington of Santa Ana.

City Can't Help Insurance Plan

If city employes wish to form an association to participate in group insurance at reduced rates, they may, but the city cannot pay a part of the premium, City Attorney Lew W. Blodgett reported last night.

The council had asked Blodget and City Auditor Lloyd Banks to investigate the possibilities of a group insurance plan in which the city government would take part.

6 TO APPEAL MEDIC RING CONVICTION

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Facing sentences of from four to 25 years, six defendants in a coastwide illegal operations ring today declared they would appeal their convictions. Five others, including three women, also convicted, were given permission to file for probation, and will be given hearings Nov. 16.

Those convicted on five counts each and sentenced to terms of from 10 to 25 years were: William A. Byrne, former special officer of the state medical board; R. L. Rankin, business head of the organization financing illegal operations; Dr. George E. Watts, Dr. Jesse Ross and Dr. James Beggs.

Sentenced to a term of from four to 10 years on conviction of two counts was Dr. Valentine St. John.

J. O. Shinn, John Creeth, Grace Moore, Lillian Wilson and Violette Pelligini were permitted to file for probation.

Conviction of all 11 was voted by a Jury Oct. 24.

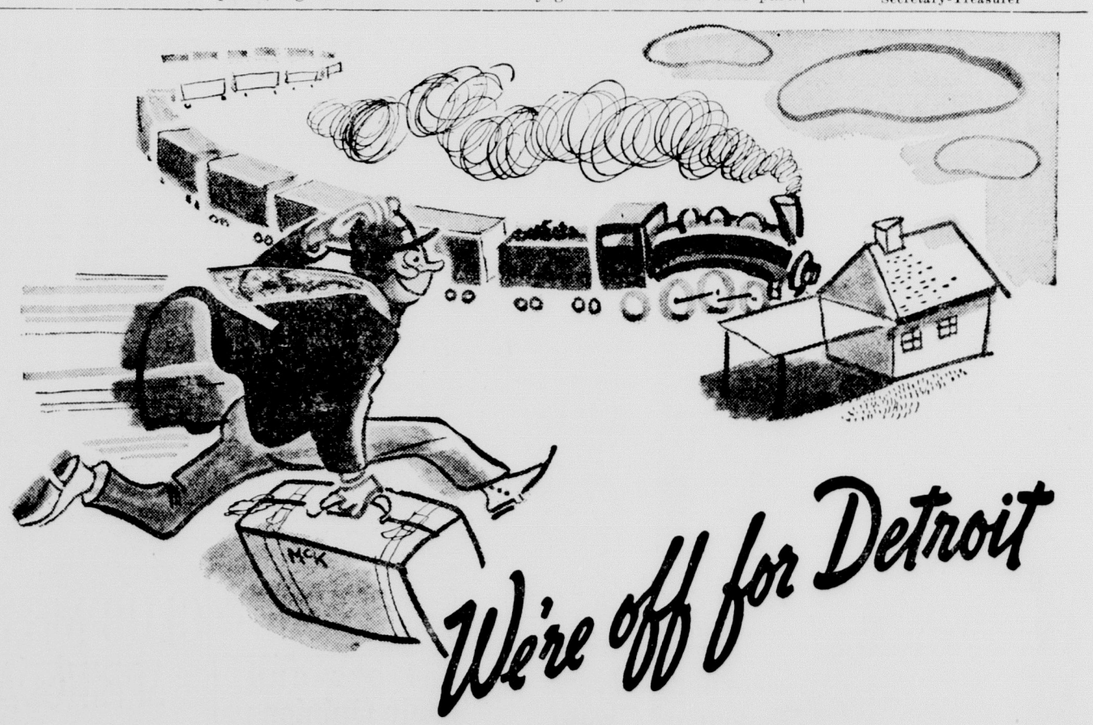
Two portable bars on trucks were sent from Madrid to loyalist troops in the Guadarrama mountains during fighting there in the Spanish revolution.

Dream Homes, and You

EVERY FAMILY longs for a home of its own, but many procrastinate in going beyond the dream stage. It will be for your happiness and profit to select a home soon, and pay the loan balance from income. Come in and see how we can help you buy your dream home.

ALSO FEDERAL HOUSING LOANS

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF SANTA ANA
314 NORTH MAIN ST.
R. C. RADDANT
Secretary-Treasurer



We're off for Detroit

to attend the BIGGEST FORD DEALER MEETING EVER HELD

FOR the first time in history we Ford dealers from all parts of the United States and Canada are invited to Detroit for a gigantic sales meeting. We are going to see the new Ford V-8 for 1937.

We are all excited about this trip to Detroit and what we are going to see there. Come to our showrooms Saturday, November 14th. We'll show you the new car and tell you all about it.

GEORGE DUNTON
810 North Main Street Telephone 146

Brag Is a Good Dog; Holdfast Is Better. ---------- Lola Ann Pee, 309 Halladay Streets, Santa Ana, Wins 2 Tickets to Broadway Theater for This Proverb.

SECTION TWO
Society, Women's Features, Comics, Classified, Financial, Editorial

Printing All the Facts, So the People May Know the Truth

Santa Ana Journal

PHONE 3600
For All Departments of The Journal; News, Circulation and Advertising

VOL. 2, NO. 160 — SANTA ANA, ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1936 — 2 CENTS PER COPY, 50 CENTS PER MONTH

ROOSEVELT BEATS LANDON, 169 TO 143 IN JAYSEE STRAW BALLOT

COLLINS, UTT AND JEROME VICTORS

Westover Tops M'Fadden In Senate Race as 339 Cast Votes

Franklin D. Roosevelt by 26 votes!

That's how students at Santa Ana Junior college voted when they cast their ballots favoring the President over Gov. Alfred M. Landon, during a mock presidential election held in college hall yesterday. The election was sponsored by the college chapter of Alpha Gamma Sigma, national junior college social science body.

The "vote of confidence" was 169 to 143.

Using sample ballots provided by County Clerk J. M. Backs, and conducting the election in the same manner as a regular election, 50 per cent of the student body expressed their preferences. Of the 728 total enrollment of the college, 339 cast ballots. Votes were for national, state, and county offices, and for the propositions. The propositions were not counted.

Outcome Surprises

In a survey conducted previous to the election, Roosevelt was given a 2 to 1 edge over Landon. A mild surprise was created by the close margin accorded the President.

Roosevelt polled 169 votes to the 143 earned by Landon. Other presidential nominees who earned votes were Earl Browder, Communist, who had 12; D. Leigh Colvin, Prohibitionist, 2; and Norman Thomas, Socialist, 6.

So far as party partisanship was concerned the two major parties split evenly in the victory of their respective candidates. Two Republican and two Democratic nominees were favored. The Democrats were Roosevelt, and Harry Westover for state senator. The Republicans were Sam Collins, for congress, and James B. Utt for state assembly.

Collins Wins

Collins was the victor in the congressional race with 164 votes to the 102 polled by Harry Sheppard, Democrat, Charles McLauchlan, Communist, earned 9.

For state senator, Democrat Harry Westover easily was favored by 145 to 117 over Thomas L. McFadden, Republican. Clyde A. Watson, Democrat, was defeated by James B. Utt, Republican, 132 to 110 for state assembly.

William C. Jerome had no difficulty in coming out ahead over his opponent, Steele Finley, for the county supervisor's post for the first district. He polled 138 to 77 for Finley.

Election Postponed

The election attracted the attention of local politicians when it was announced that it had been postponed from the originally scheduled day, last Wednesday. Some students were belligerent about the postponement. However, statements made, denying the placing of the blame for "political purposes," seemed to quiet the small uproar created.

L. L. Beeman, adviser for Alpha Gamma Sigma, expressed his enthusiasm in the success of the election. He said there was a fine cooperative spirit shown, and he felt well pleased with the election, as such.

Robert Forcey, president of the local chapter of the organization, was in charge of the election. He was assisted by committees composed of 25 students.

Committees follow: election officials—Gerald Page, Barbara Leeback, Josephine Keeler, Marjorie Wakeham, Jack Shanafelt, Marion Pletke, June Corry, Marion Sturtevant, James Bartlett, Betty Hill, Elbert Stewart, Helen Griggs, Helen Gardiner, Elsie Kokx and Ruth Dunlap.

Vote counters—Roy Potter, Betty Hill, Phil Cook, Dorine Haupert, Carl Blaylock, Leo Snedaker, Elbert Stewart and Marion Mathson; booths and tables—James Haarstad and Jack Shanafelt.

Half-Minute News Items

(By Associated Press)

SIMPSON ASKS RELEASE FROM GERMAN PRISON

BERLIN.—Lawrence B. Simpson the American seaman under three year sentence to a German prison for sedition, has petitioned the ministry of justice to pardon him and send him home.

* * *

AMERICAN STEAMER ABANDONED ON ROCKS

LONDON.—With her back broken, rammed hard on the rocks at Pendennis Point, the 5,686-ton American freighter Bessemer City, of New York, was abandoned to pounding seas yesterdaq.

* * *

400 FLOUR MILL WORKERS STRIKE

MINNEAPOLIS.—More than 400 workers of the Pillsbury mill went on strike yesterday in protest against the action of the Pillsbury Flour Mills Company Saturday in laying off 128 men at the plant.

* * *

NOTED ARTIST AND WRITER DIES IN ITALY

ROME.—Lorenzo Viani, 54, prominent Italian artist and writer, died yesterday of heart disease.

* * *

PHILIPPINE CLIPPER RETURNS TO ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA.—The Philippine Clipper arrived here yesterday, flying the 2,400 miles from Honolulu in 20 hours and six minutes on its round trip to Manila.

TO ELECT FARM BUREAU CHIEF

Orange County Farm bureau will elect new officers and adopt a budget for the fiscal year at the annual directors meeting to be held here Thursday in the farm bureau assembly hall.

At the same time, R. D. Flaherty, secretary, reported, the directors will determine the official stand of the organization on legislative matters to be brought before the State and National Farm bureau conventions in December.

Model Plane Mark May Be Shattered

The present record of 31 minutes in the air for model cabin planes may be shattered next Sunday when the Santa Ana Birdmen stage a model airplane contest at Eddie Martin's airport. Two events will be featured, one for cabin planes and one for all types of planes from the rubber band type to the gas models.

Tom Engelman and Laurence Dresser will direct the contest, which will start at 9:30 a. m. and be concluded by 12:30 p. m. Those planning to enter the contest should get in touch with Engelman, commander of the club, by phoning 4299-J or calling at 2459 Heliotrope drive.

BOB WILDE TO PILOT FROSH AT JAYSEE

Ralph Fuller Is Elected Vice-President On Ballot Monday

Freshman students yesterday completed their election of class officers when they chose Bob Wilde president, and Ralph Fuller, vice-president, in finals held at Santa Ana Junior college.

In primaries held last Wednesday, La Vonne Frandson and Edward Velarde were elected secretary and treasurer, respectively. All of the new officers are graduates of Santa Ana High school.

Wilde defeated Dick Phillips easily while Fuller won over Bob Faul by two votes. Wilde was former student body president at Santa Ana High school and is now pledged to the Brotherhood of Bachelors, college service club. Fuller is pledged to the Buccaneer service club.

A fair percentage of votes was cast by the freshmen when 98 voted, according to Vic Rowland, Associated Student president, who conducted the election. In the primaries, 103 students voted.

The newly elected officers will serve for the current semester. Last year's officers were Vic Rowland, president; Bob Spray, vice-president; Lorna Barry, secretary, and Neil McDaniel, treasurer. J. Russell Bruff is adviser.

DUNTON LEAVES FOR CONCLAVE

George Dunton local Ford dealer, leaves Los Angeles today on a special train with 120 odd Ford dealers from Southern California and Arizona bound for Detroit and Dearborn, Mich., to attend a huge national dealer meeting, the first of its kind held by the Ford Motor company since its founding more than 33 years ago.

"The purpose of the meeting, Dunton said, "is the unveiling to the dealers of new Ford V-8 cars for 1937. Another highligh of the session will be when the dealers present to Henry Ford in historic old Greenfield Village the 300-year old Cape Cod windmill, built by the Pilgrims in 1633, once a landmark of the four corners at West Yarmouth, Mass. The windmill was purchased for Ford more than a year ago, by a committee of dealers.

"The itinerary of our trip calls for the majority of the dealers gathering in Detroit Friday, morning. A fleet of 200 buses will be required to transport us to the state fair grounds for the meeting.

"An address of welcome by Edsel Ford, as president of the company, will open the meeting. The highlight of the session will be the presentation of the new cars. Their lines will be disclosed for the first time as the new cars, of all body types and in all colors, are driven into the Coliseum and around the arena.

At the conclusion of the meeting the dealers will be transported in the bus fleet to Greenfield Village for the ceremonies incident to the presentation of the Cape Cod windmill to Ford.

Council to Fight For Concrete Pipe on Outfall

Ammunition for another intercity battle on choice of material for repairs to the joint outfall sewer was furnished by the Santa Ana city council last night.

Without discussion the council reaffirmed its stand of two weeks ago in favor of reinforced concrete pipe. Anaheim and several other cities are in favor of vitrified clay pipe.

The joint outfall sewer board came to no decision at its last meeting, largely because Councilman Joseph P. Smith of Santa Ana insisted upon the concrete pipe. Repairs are needed between the screening plant and the ocean.

Mrs. R. O. Winckler Dies at San Diego

After a prolonged illness, Mrs. R. O. Winckler of 2310 North Park boulevard, Santa Ana, died today at Mercy hospital in San Diego. She was 56 years of age, and had lived in Santa Ana since 1924.

She is survived by her husband, R. O. Winckler; a son, Richard H. Winckler, and a grandson, Richard Townsend Winckler, all of Santa Ana.

The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at the Greenwood cemetery mausoleum, San Diego.

Tabulation Sheet for Election Returns

Tune in on The Journal election broadcast over KVOE national, state, district, county and city returns will be broadcast from 3 p. m. until midnight tonight through the Journal's Associated Press, county and city newsgathering system.

CLIP THIS CHART FOR REFERENCE AT YOUR RADIO

Below are statistics showing the electoral vote for the 1932 election, the Literary Digest and Washington Merry-Go-Round forecasts for this election, and spaces for writing in the preliminary and final reports as broadcast. We suggest you use the preliminary columns, erasing figures from time to time, if necessary, reserving the final for the totals.

	Elec. Votes 1932		Literary Digest 1936	Wash. M. G. 1936	PRELIMINARY Rep.	PRELIMINARY Dem.	FINAL Rep.	FINAL Dem.
Alabama	11	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Arizona	3	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Arkansas	9	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
California	22	Rep.	Rep.	Dem.
Colorado	6	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Connecticut	8	Rep.	Rep.	Rep.
Delaware	3	Rep.	Rep.	Rep.
Florida	7	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Georgia	12	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Idaho	4	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Illinois	29	Dem.	Rep.-	Dem.
Indiana	15	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Iowa	13	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Kansas	9	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Kentucky	11	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Louisana	10	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Maine	5	Rep.	Rep.	Rep.
Maryland	8	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Massachusetts	17	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Michigan	19	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Minnesota	12	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Mississippi	9	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Missouri	15	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Montana	4	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Nebraska	8	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Nevada	3	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
New Hampshire	4	Rep.	Rep.	Rep.
New Jersey	16	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
New Mexico	3	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
New York	47	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
North Carolina	13	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
North Dakota	4	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Ohio	26	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Oklahoma	11	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Oregon	5	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Pennsylvania	36	Rep.	Rep.	Dem.
Rhode Island	4	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
South Carolina	8	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
South Dakota	4	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Tennessee	11	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Texas	23	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Utah	4	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Vermont	3	Rep.	Rep.	Rep.
Virginia	11	Dem.	Dem.	Dem.
Washington	8	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
West Virginia	8	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Wisconsin	12	Dem.	Rep.	Dem.
Wyoming	3	Dem.	Rep.	Rep.
Totals	531

CONGRESS	PRELIMINARY	PRELIMINARY	FINAL
Collins (R.)
Sheppard (D.)
STATE SENATE
McFadden (R.)
Westover (D.)
ASSEMBLY, 74th
Utt (R.)
Watson (D.)
ASSEMBLY, 75th
Kuchel (R.)
Heffron (D.)
SUPERVISOR, 1st
Jerome
Finley
SUPERVISOR, 3rd
Lyon
Riley

STUDENTS TO TOUR LOCAL ORCHARDS

U. C. L. A. Groups Will Study Management Of Groves

About 60 agricultural students and teachers from U. C. L. A. will tour Orange county Saturday to study sub-tropical horticulture in this section, Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg announced today.

They will study valencia oranges, avocados, persimmons, pecans, papayas, passion fruit, loquats and limes.

Ranches to be visited include the P. J. Weisel avocado orchard, La Habra Heights; J. W. Daubenmeyer orchard, Santa Ana, for walnut thinning; C. A. Broomell orchard, Santa Ana, tree spacing; E. C. Hatch orchard, Tustin, walnut problems and tree spacing; Sam Nau orchard, Tustin, persimmons; Rocco and Capasse loquat orchard, Lemon Heights; Irvine ranch, for limes, passion fruit, papayas and pecans.

BABY INJURED

One-year-old Susan Fleischer was cut about the head Saturday afternoon when a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Ruth Fleischer, 26, 1516 West Third street, collided with an auto driven by Susan Russell, Sunset Beach, at Fifth and Western streets. The report was filed last night at the police station.

SMITH JAILED AFTER TALK ON RADIO

Huey Long's Organizer Faces Three Counts In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS. (AP)—Gerald L. K. Smith, former organizer of Share-Our-Wealth clubs for the late Huey Long, early today stalked angrily from a jail cell in which he was placed after denouncing the state administration in a radio address.

Smith, taken into custody with three others at his hotel room last night, was booked on charges of disturbing the peace, reviling the police and using obscene language. He denied all accusations.

Smith refused a release offered by Mayor Robert S. Maestri but left the jail at the expiration of a two-hour period in accordance with an ordinance concerning persons arrested for city law violations.

"I was put in jail by Maestri but it got so hot for him he called up here and offered me a parole," Smith said. "I refused to accept."

Arrested with Smith were Preston Decazal, his secretary, and Henry and Herman Grundmeyer.

Smith, in his address at an open air rally last night, charged he had evidence of a "hot oil deal" whereby 25,000,000 barrel of oil would be taken tax-free out of Louisiana.

Announcing---

THE OPENING (SOON) OF THE BLUE-NOTE MUSIC CO.
420 WEST 4TH STREET
—WITH A—
COMPLETE LINE MUSICAL MERCHANDISE!
(By Rudy Dumont and Les Phillips, Teacher of Saxophone)

ALSO—

FANCHON-MARCO
SCHOOL OF THE THEATRE
MEGLIN DANCE STUDIO
INSTITUTE OF MUSICAL ART
NOW LOCATED AT 1501 NORTH MAIN
ALL UNDER ONE ROOF
WATCH THIS PAPER FOR OPENING DATE

Business Women Taken by Words and Pictures Into Lands of the Far South

Archaeology Lecture Is Enjoyed

One Hundred Attend Dinner in Church Building

Down into Peru and Bolivia, by way of the Panama canal, went members of the Business and Professional Women's club last night with Miss Esther Funk, enthusiastic young archaeologist, as their conductress.

Miss Funk, who is teaching this year in the elementary schools of Huntington Beach and who has traveled extensively in South America and Mexico, studying archaeology under Dr. Edgar L. Hewitt, was brought to the club as guest speaker by Mrs. Dora Glines, assistant superintendent of schools in the county and a member of the club.

Talking first on her study of this interesting subject and her summer trips into Peru and Bolivia amid the ruins of ancient culture and civilization, Miss Funk showed the club some of the interesting relics she had brought home with her, and then showed moving pictures of the countries she had visited.

Pictures Shown

The dry region along the coastal plane of Peru, where it rains about making it intensely real for her the old temples and cities of inland Bolivia and Cuzco; the deserts and the glaciers, the museums, the people, and the wealth of old ruins, treasure houses for the archaeologists, were all described to the group as the pictures were shown on the screen.

Her talk and the information she brought to the club made up one of the most interesting programs ever presented to the organization, her enthusiasm for her subject making it intensely real for her hearers.

Also on the program were interesting vocal solos by Bruce Buell, who was accompanied by his mother in the singing of two old French period Negro ballads, "Mamselle Marie" and "Voodoo." His encore number was "Moon Melody."

Dinner at Church

The meeting and dinner were held last night in the educational building of the First Christian church, where more than 100 members and guests gathered at long tables decorated with colored woodbine, persimmons, button chrysanthemums and tapers all in rich autumn tones.

Miss Lena Thomas presided, introducing among the guests Audrey Peterson, president of the Orange club; Mabel Dixon, past president of the Anaheim club, and Dr. Melbourne Mabee. Mrs. Glines presented the program, taking the November theme of the club federation, "Continuing Education for All," as the theme for the evening. In keeping with the topic, Miss Ethel Walker, city librarian, had prepared for each member a little booklet listing the books on Peru and Bolivia which are on the library shelves.

Miss Thomas announces the regular board meeting of the club for this Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in her home at 1428 North Broadway.

BUFFET SUPPER AN HALLOWE'EN

Taking their guests first to Long Beach for several hours of fun and Hallowe'en informality in the fun houses and on the roller coasters, Mr. and Mrs. John Scripps of El Patio Real later served a delightfully arranged Hallowe'en supper in their home on North Broadway.

Games in keeping with the gaiety of the season were enjoyed by the friends before the delicious refreshments were served, with Hallowe'en favors and fortunes adding to the merriment of the occasion. Ice cream roll with black cat centers and little orange cakes frosted in owl and cat motifs formed the dessert course for the supper.

Before the fun had ended, each of the guests had received a prize in a contest, game, or popularity vote, and all had bright little hats as favors from the party.

Enjoying the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Scripps were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Elfstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Braden Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Bodenhamer, and Bob Everts of Santa Ana, Miss Sarah Martin of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green of Ventura.

GJ CHAPTER HAS GUEST TEA

Guests were entertained by GJ chapter members of P. E. O. yesterday when they met at the home of Mrs. William Thompson in Tustin, with Mrs. C. F. Safley, Mrs. John Carter, and Mrs. Thompson as co-hostesses.

A delightful program had been arranged, with Mrs. Mona Summers Smith giving reviews of popular current plays on Broadway, and the tea hour brought the day to a charming conclusion. Presiding at the lace spread table, with a centerpiece of yellow and white chrysanthemums and yellow tapers, were Mrs. Clarence Bond, the chapter president, and Miss Mary Safley.

The November 16 meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Caldwell on East First street, Tustin.

METHODIST WOMEN MEET

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet tomorrow at 2 p. m. in the social hall. Mrs. H. W. Guthrie will preside.

NEW COIFFURES FEATURE CURLS

The dictators of hair styles for milady have decreed curls—the more the merrier—for the coming season, and here are New York mannequins showing some of the uses to which curls have been put. The coiffures shown at left feature "banks" of curls. Upper right, a modern version of the empress pompadour effect. Lower right, one version of the new "coronation" hairdress. (Associated Press Photos)

Old Barn and Stalls Made Over into Social Hall

A center of activity for many of the Hallowe'en parties in their neighborhood, and full of plans for parties to come, is the remodeled barn belonging to Clyde Deardorff and Gene Thomas, who have recently renovated it and turned it into a social meeting place for their families and their neighbors.

A thorough cleaning and new floor suitable for dancing, tables built into the stalls where refreshments may be served, makes it adaptable to many occasions; and when not in use for their own private affairs they loan it to their friends who have the fun of its use with only a charge for the lights.

To Mrs. Deardorff and Mrs. Thomas goes much of the credit for the unique decorating, which they centered around a huge wagon wheel suspended from the beams. During the Hallowe'en season, a ghost has leered down from its hub, and streamers of black and orange extend from the center in every direction. The tables have had Hallowe'en appointments for the gaieties just past.

Among the parties already staged there were two Hallowe'en parties of groups from the Costa Mesa Community church, the Epworth League and the Friendly Sunday school class.

Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Northrop and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Humiston honored the Tustin High school faculty in the barn last week; and Westlake Fellowship group and the Young People's league of the Methodist Church, South, of Santa Ana, joined for a Hallowe'en party last Thursday night, with Miss Dorothy and Miss Nedra Montgomery in charge and Louis Clem assisting. About sixty enjoyed this latter party which concluded with serving of pumpkin pie and cider.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. Thomas' cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hollingsorth of Long Beach, entertained thirty of their friends at a masquerade dance in the pleasant room. Many gaieties throughout the winter are planned in the unique setting.

Adding to its rustic appearance are bales of straw here and there, with blankets and leather pelts thrown over them to serve as chairs.

CLUBWOMEN TO MODEL FOR KNIT STYLE SHOW

Six members of Senior and Junior Ebell clubs will act as models in the knit fashion show which will be one of the features of the benefit dessert bridge being given by the fifth household economics section Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Ebell clubhouse.

The models are Mrs. Don Harwood, Mrs. Q. L. Hardy, Mrs. Alvin Stauffer, Mrs. P. B. Gillespie, Miss Nan Mead and Miss Llewellyn Allen. Miss Helen Gallagher of the Work Basket is arranging the show, which will follow the dessert course.

Bridge, both contract and auction, are planned for the afternoon, and Mrs. George Raymer, in charge of tickets, announces advance sales and reservations pointing toward one of the largest affairs the section has ever staged. Reservations may be made with her or any member of the section, of which Mrs. F. F. Mead is head, and everyone is invited.

A musical program is also being arranged, with Fay Spicer, Audrey Pieper, and Rose Marie Flint as guest artists.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR CHURCH GROUP

Three birthdays and Hallowe'en were all celebrated at a party of Miss Iva Webber's Bible class of the Richland Avenue Methodist church Saturday night when twenty members gathered at the home of Mrs. Bess Booth and Miss Harriet McGilliard on South Birch street. Honored with lighted birthday cakes were E. G. Warner, Mrs. D. Stull, and J. G. Boake, each receiving also gifts from fellow class members. Hallowe'en games and refreshments were enjoyed by the group.

CLEMS MOVING TO PHOENIX

Mrs. Stanley Clem, who has been living in Palm Springs for two months, plans to come to Santa Ana soon for a short stay before leaving with Mr. Clem Nov. 10 for a new home in Phoenix, Ariz., the latter going into the lumber business there. They will be accompanied by their children, Gloria and Billie Dick, who are in school in the desert resort town. Mrs. Clem has made frequent trips to Santa Ana during her stay there.

SORENSON HOME SCENE OF MUCH GAIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Sorenson planned a jolly Hallowe'en party for their sons, Harold and Walter, jr., Saturday evening in their home, 2420 Valencia street, where a grinning ghost greeted the young guests on their arrival.

Jack-o-lanterns over the lights increased the weird effect achieved by yellow and black witches, cats and other figures riding about the walls and ceiling.

Mr. Sorenson entertained the young folk with magic tricks, and the guests found the evening filled with fun, bobbing for apples, having their fortunes told, and playing games in keeping with the theme of the season.

Orange sherbet, chocolate cup cakes, and yellow and black candies were served on individual trays as a climax of the jolly evening.

Young friends present to observe the holiday with Harold and Walter, jr., were Buddy and Teddy Schultz, Donald Anderson, Richard and Don Honer, Buddy Johnson, Jimmie Mercer, and George Borgman.

TWO ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB

Beta Heart bridge club met last night at the home of Miss Bette Ann Munson, 1101 West Fifth street, with Miss Gloria Kirchner and Miss Munson as co-hostesses.

High and low prizes for the evening went to Miss Eileen Reid and Miss Eloise Hiskey; and others present were the Misses Jean Courtney, Mary Tomlinson, Margaret Thomas, Dorothy Skinner, and the two hostesses.

Next meeting will be at the home of Miss Courtney, with Miss Reid as co-hostess.

HOOVER P.-T. A. MEETS THURSDAY

"The Home, the Most Important Institution for Building Character," is the theme for Hoover P.-T. A.'s meeting, scheduled for Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the school.

Rev. Graham Hunter of Fullerton is to be the speaker, and the third graders will also contribute to the program with a demonstration.

A social hour and tea will conclude the afternoon.

Eastern Star Chapter In Election

Duties of worthy matron in Hermosa chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will be handed over to Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis by Miss Henrietta Bohling when the annual installation ceremonies are held Monday night, December 7, in the Masonic temple.

Election of Mrs. Lewis and the following other officers took place last night at the meeting following a covered dish supper in the temple:

Harold E. Nelson, worthy patron; Mrs. Helen Merker, associate matron; Fred Pope, associate patron; Mrs. Nell D. Winslow, secretary; Mrs. E. D. Sweet, treasurer; Mrs. Clara Seiver, conductress; Mrs. Edith Hancock, associate conductress; and Mrs. Lois Osterman, trustee.

Other officers will be appointed between now and the installation; and the present officers will preside over one more meeting before their year is up, assembling November 16 in the temple for reports on Grand Chapter, reception of new members, and initiation.

One member, Mrs. Maude B. Watson, was taken in by affiliation last night; and yearly reports were given by Mrs. Grace Finn, chairman of trustees; Mrs. Edith Snow, auditing; Mrs. Winslow, secretary; and Mrs. Sweet, treasurer. Mrs. Lewis presented Miss Bohling with crystal candelabra from the chapter as a birthday gift.

Mrs. Jean Tibbetts was chairman of the dinner last night, assisted by Mrs. Cora Rugg, Miss Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Emma Vance, and Mrs. Myrtle Strong; and the men helping to serve included William McConnell, Charles Mitchell, Wilford Lewis, Roscoe Wilson, and Neal Beisel. Reception committee were Mrs. Vera Jacoby and Dr. Ada Henery.

DRILL TEAM TO HAVE DANCE

Plans for another dance to raise money for the forthcoming convention were made by the drill team of the American Legion auxiliary at a business meeting held in the home of Mrs. Robert Sandon, 1410 West Washington street.

The dance is scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 21, and the location will be announced later.

The meeting was concluded with plans for their ritual. Members present included the Mesdames Ruth Anderson, Alice Dodder, Rosanne Hardcastle, Inez Heiber, Anne Leimer, Ida McCarty, Robett Mercer, Emma Penn, Alice Roehm, Lucille Sullivan, Sue Featherly, Margaret Hurburt, Irene Pearson, Alda Marsile and Tona Sandon and Miss Pearl Christianson.

Three members of the sextette who also attended included Mrs. Zola Maag, Mrs. J. Montanus, and Mrs. Charles Van Wyck.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cornbloom entertained friends at a dinner in the home of Mrs. Cornbloom's mother, Mrs. Dora Morrow, on West Chestnut street Sunday, the occasion being their wedding anniversary.

Purple sage and orange chrysanthemums in pretty combination decorated the rooms and the table where the following gathered: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Martin and Miss Frances Roper of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McAlpin and children, Jimmie, Betty Lee, and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Wood, and Walter Martin, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Stipp of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nipp and daughter, Carol, of Anaheim; Mr. and Mrs. George Burroughs and sons, Robert and David of Fullerton; Mrs. Barbara Lott and Herbert Hall of San Bernardino, and the host and hostess.

FAMILY SUPPER PARTY ENJOYED

Among family gatherings over the week-end of Hallowe'en was an informal supper party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marshall on North Baker street, where places were laid for 12 at a table appointed in the theme of the season.

Enjoying the supper, to which the various members of the group contributed, were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ritner, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ritner and daughter, Helen, and Mrs Effie Crawford all of Tustin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Elliott, the Misses Kappie and Leila Ritner, and the Marshalls.

GUEST SPEAKER AT COOK SCHOOL

Jane Sterling, director of the home economics department of Helms bakeries, will be presented as guest instructor tomorrow at the weekly gas cooking school, sponsored every Wednesday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, 105 East Fifth street.

Tomorrow's chief subject will be bread, and the recipes given will include breakfast turnovers, pineapple avocado salad, bridge luncheon sandwich, rolled date-nut sandwich, cocoanut bars, and orange torte pie.

DR. CROAL
DENTIST
Phone 2885 For Appointment
New Location: 410½ North Main

Council to Convene Here

Between 175 and 250 women are expected to attend the southern council session of the Daughters of the American Revolution at which the Santa Ana chapter will be hostess on Nov. 17, it was revealed at a meeting of the local organization yesterday.

All chapters between Santa Barbara and San Diego will be represented at the affair, which is to be held in the Ebell clubhouse, and will include a morning session at 10:30 a. m., a noon luncheon, and an afternoon program. Mrs. Joseph Taylor Young, state regent, will be the featured guest.

Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, regent of the Santa Ana group, appointed several of her committees yesterday at the club's monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Mac O. Robbins, 2123 North Main street.

Past regents will form the courtesy and receiving committee. They include Mrs. H. W. Guthrie, Mrs. Minnie Holmes, Mrs. John Clarkson, and Mrs. Alice Hatch. Flowers will be in charge of Mrs. E. G. Summers and Mrs. F. E. Earel; Miss Mabel Larrick will take charge of tickets at the door; and Mrs. O. S. Catland and Mrs. Mac O. Robbins will form a special invitation committee.

Mrs. John Mitchell will have charge of the platform, and local members are to make their luncheon reservations with either Mrs. Nicholson or Mrs. Cotton Mather.

At yesterday's session a delightful program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Cotton Mather, chairman. It included a report on genealogical research by Mrs. John Mitchell, an interesting history of the Statue of Liberty by Mrs. O. S. Catland, and a paper by Mrs. John Clarkson.

Miss Margaret Davies concluded the affair with several charming vocal solos, accompanied by Miss Ruth Armstrong.

A hostess committee composed of Mrs. J. P. Greene, Mrs. O. S. Catland, Mrs. J. W. Simpson, Mrs. F. E. Earel, Mrs. R. W. Purpus and Miss Irene Catland served a refreshment course late in the afternoon with the assistance of Mrs. Robbins, hostess. Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. Jennie Crawford poured.

Special guests of the club were Mrs. T. O. Garnett, Mrs. H. R. Tripp, and Mrs. A. A. Dewey of Orange.

COSTUMES IN ORDER FOR SUPPER PARTY

Witches and Russians, devils and Bowery ladies, children and strange animals mingled as guests in the gay Hallowe'en party given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthys at their home at 1239 South Broadway.

Coming masked, the guests enjoyed guessing identities for the first part of the evening, following which Hallowe'en guessing games and Hallowe'en whist were the diversions, with prizes for the various winners.

At a late hour, a light supper with appropriate appointments was served to the guests, who included:

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellwanger and Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Bodenhamer of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Von Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peck of Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Art Weber of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Felix, Miss Margaret Izner and Paul Acres of Glendale, and the hosts.

Mary Stoddard

Girl Plays Around With Affections of Only True Love and Now Is Sorry

By MARY STODDARD

To have implicit trust in a loved one is one of the staunchest pillars of love—it will bolster up romance in the most trying times. It is something that should be nurtured and cherished, for when faith is broken, love is frequently shattered along with it. How may it be regained? A girl who has broken the trust of the only man she will ever love is now repentant and would give anything to have it restored.

If this man still loves her, there is a fair chance that he may some day trust her again, for after all, her offense was not a major breach. The chance will come only if she consistently shows him she is sorry, and mends her thoughtless ways. She should not be impatient, for some of the finest things in life are torn down over night, and it sometimes takes months, even years, to rebuild them.

Here is her letter:

Dear Miss Stoddard: I am a girl 22 and have been going with a young man of 25 for two years. He is the only man I've ever wanted to marry.

During these two years I have gone with other men, too. He wanted to marry me at one time, then he found I had been stepping out, and how I regret it now, Miss Stoddard.

I am really true to him now, but he doesn't trust me.

People say I'm a fool for sticking to him, but what am I going to do? I'm not happy with anyone else.

Miss Stoddard, what can I do to make that trust come back and make him want to marry me again? If I cannot, should I give him up?

DISTRUSTED.

You speak of giving the young man up, so I assume that he still sees you. If this is the case, your cause is not entirely lost. Keep an open mind and a cheerful attitude. Think constructive thoughts rather than give way to doubts and fears. Convince yourself that because you love him you are going to play the game square, and you will derive a certain peace of mind and courage from the fact that you are doing right. This will reflect in your spirit and have more influence on the young man than you now realize.

Real, true love is the most worth-while thing this life has to offer—consequently it is worth fighting for. Fight the good fight, and may you win.

P. E. O.'s In Dinner for Husbands

Chapter DI members of P. E. O. honored their husbands as guests last night, entertaining them at a 7 o'clock dinner at Las Ondas in Laguna Beach.

Chrysanthemums in the autumn shades decorated the tables, together with yellow and brown tapers which added their light to the pretty effect.

Following dinner, an impromptu program was presented by Clarence Gustline, John Tessmann, Ernest Crozier Phillips and Elmer Heidt, and parlor games followed.

Members and guests enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Cood Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brakeman, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clem, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cruickshank, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Enderle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gustlin, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Heidt, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Nau, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Plumb, Mr. and Mrs. John Tessmann, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marks, Mrs. F. E. Coulter, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Miss Lula Minter, Miss Genevieve Humiston, and Miss Margaret Esau.

KITCHEN SHOWER GIVEN BY SISTER-IN-LAW

Lovely gifts for the kitchen were presented to Miss Kathryn Harbert, bride-elect of Van Pomeroy, when she was honored last evening at a delightfully arranged shower courtesy given by Mrs. Mel Harbert at her home on West Fourth street.

Bridge was the evening's diversion, concluding with a salad course served at the small tables.

Invited to honor Miss Harbert at this party, one of a series of affairs complimenting her before her marriage on Nov. 16, were Mrs Herman Shaffer, Mrs. Richard Gay, and Mrs. Eric Borchard of Anaheim Mrs. Cornelius McElree of Fullerton, Mrs. Victor M. Walker of Balboa, and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Santa Ana.

MacDOWELL LEAGUE TO HEAR HOMER SIMMONS

MacDowell Colony League members of Orange county are to have the privilege Thursday night of hearing Homer Simmons, nationally known pianist, in concert here when they meet for their first session of the fall that evening at 8 o'clock in the Gustlin Music Arts studios, 819 North Sycamore.

Mr. Simmons, who is noted for his Chopin interpretations, has arranged an interesting program, and it is hoped that he will play some of his own compositions. He will also speak about his experiences abroad, when he studied under Paderewski. All members of the league are cordially invited.

Farewell Is Given for Clems

Judge and Mrs. J. L. Allen honored Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clem Saturday evening at a farewell dinner, inviting a coterie of the Clems' special friends for the courtesy which precedes the latter couple's departure this month for a home in Phoenix, Ariz.

The affair was complete surprise to them, as was also the lovely pair of colonial lamps for their new home, presented to them by the assembled friends.

Mrs. Allen had decorated her dinner table with yellow roses from her own garden, and used rust and yellow chrysanthemums in the living room where card tables were ready for contract after the dinner.

Scoring high and receiving pretty prizes at the end of the evening were Mrs. George Scovil, first, Mrs. George Raymer, second, and Mrs. Clem, third.

Sharing in the farewell courtesy were Judge and Mrs. Scovil, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Westover, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymer, Mr. and Mrs. William Rohrbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Neff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanner of Orange, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lambert of Irvine, and the guests of honor and hosts.

P. E. O. CHAPTER AT BARR HOME

Mrs. O. H. Barr was hostess to Chapter AB of P. E. O. yesterday at her home, 1608 North Main street. She and her co-hostess, Mrs. Curtis M. Jordan of Long Beach, served a delicious luncheon in buffet style, with Mrs. E. B. Sprague and Mrs. Clarence Crookshank presiding at the attractively spread table.

The afternoon's program consisted of several delightful old English songs presented by Mrs. Charles Brisco, accompanied by Mrs. John Dunlap, and an interesting discussion of what she entitled her "California bookshelf" of personal favorites, by Mrs. Terry Stephenson.

BARN WILL BE MEETING PLACE

The Community Players "Barn" association will have its November meeting Thursday in the old Barn on Mabury street, it was announced today.

Mary Swarthout, chairman of the theatrical group, promises an entertaining surprise program, and refreshments will be served. A business session at 7:30 p. m. will precede the program.

VETERAN REBEKAHS

Veteran Rebekahs' Association will meet in all-day session Friday at the I. O. O. F. hall, with a dinner at 12 noon, it was announced today. All members are urged to be present, as interesting plans are under way.

Bolivia is the only country in South America without a seaport.

FREE PARKING
Henle's Auto Park—Bush St., Between Second and Third Streets
Phone 2810 WALKER'S Third and Bush
General Admission 25c TONIGHT Doors Open 6:15 Loges 30c Children 10c
NIGHTS OF TERROR AND ROMANCE!!! SHOCKS! THRILLS!
3 FAMOUS STARS! Fredric MARCH Warner BAXTER Lionel BARRYMORE
"The Road to Glory" with JUNE LANG Gregory RATOFF
IT'S TOPS IN TUNE TRIUMPHS!
A STAR-STUDDED MUSICAL ROMANCE TO STARTLE THE SHOW WORLD!!!
Joan BLONDELL Dick POWELL Warren WILLIAM in "Stage STRUCK"
FRANK McHUGH
THE YACHT CLUB BOYS and GORGEOUS GIRLS
WORLD WIDE NEWS
Maintaining Our Policy of BIG DOUBLE BILLS ! ! !

TONIGHT & WEDNESDAY
IT RUNS THE GAMUT OF GLEE!
RHYTHMIC! ROMANTIC! LAUGHABLE!
Al JOLSON in "The SINGING KID" with Beverly ROBERTS · Sybil JASON · Edw. Everett Horton · Lyle Talbot · Mitchell & Durant · 4 Yacht Club Boys · Cab Calloway and his Band
PLUS Novelty
PHONE 1059 STATE FAMILY THEATRE
MATINEE, 1:45 ..... 15c
NIGHTS, 6:45 ..... 15c and 20c
CHILDREN, always 10c
FIRST RUN
"THE CRIME OF DR. FORBES"
with GLORIA STUART ROBERT KENT HENRY ARMETTA
A FOX PICTURE

MATINEE 2 P. M. 25c ENDS TONITE FONE 300
ALWAYS A GOOD SHOW
BROADWAY
Tonite, 6:15—9:05
General Admission 35c
Child 10c, Loges 40c
CHEERFUL, TEARFUL, TUNEFUL!
Shirley Temple in DIMPLES
with FRANK MORGAN HELEN WESTLEY STEPIN FETCHIT
20th Century-Fox Picture
New Mickey Mouse (in color)
A COMEDY RIOT!
MISTER Cinderella
with JACK HALEY Betty FURNESS ARTHUR TREACHER RAYMOND WALBURN
An M-G-M Release
Flash! U. C. L. A. vs. Stanford
ELECTION RETURNS THROUGHOUT EVENING
COMING TOMORROW—MATINEE 2:00 P. M.—25c
SHE HID FROM HER OWN WEDDING!
The Man I Marry
with DORIS NOLAN Michael WHALEN NIGEL BRUCE Skeets Gallagher
The Sort of Picture That Definitely Wins Audience Appreciation!
An Absolutely Guaranteed Rib-cracking, Side-splitting Hour of Fun with Dunn, the Super Salesman Who'd Frame a Murder to Sell an Electric Chair!
COME CLOSER FOLKS
With JAMES DUNN
MARIAN MARSH HERMAN BING
ADDED—LATEST ISSUE
March of Time

MATINEE 2:00 P. M. 25c FONE 858
FOR WEST COAST
Tonite, 6:15—9:05
General Admission 35c
Child 10c-Dr. C. 40c
Music, Song, Mirth and Romance!
Marion TALLEY in "FOLLOW Your Heart" with Michael BARTLETT Nigel BRUCE
FAST AND FURIOUS FUN!
Burning Them Up on the Air Was His Specialty While Hollywood Ducked
"HERE COMES Carter"
with GLENDA FARRELL ROSS ALEXANDER Anne NAGEL Craig REYNOLDS
A Warner Bros. First National Picture
Pete Smith Oddity "Dare Devil try"—World News Events
ELECTION RETURNS THROUGHOUT EVENING

'AP' ALL SET TO 'COVER' ELECTION

Returns to Be Counted At 122,393 Precincts During the Night

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—Throughout the country, hundreds of Associated Press workers received final instructions today for the gathering and tabulating of today's election returns.

This is no small task, for the nation is divided in this election into 122,393 precincts and similar units. California alone has 11,716 precincts in its 58 counties.

Those handling the "AP" tabulation hope to have before midnight, Pacific time, sufficient returns to indicate final results. But there have been elections in the past which ran almost even, for days.

This Is Key State

California was the key state in one contest like that—between Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, and Charles Evans Hughes, Republican, in 1916. Wilson finally won the state's electoral vote by less than 4,000 votes plurality, and it gave him the election. Had those supporting minor party candidates given their votes to Hughes, he would have become President of the United States.

California is a hard state to "cover" in elections. Returns do not reach tabulators in steady flow—the state is too varied.

Because every precinct in San Francisco has a voting machine, returns here reach the "AP" office as fast as they can be added. On the other hand, most Los Angeles precincts still use paper ballots, and the count there is correspondingly slow. Some precincts in mountain and range counties have no telephones. The results come in by messenger or mail, sometimes a day or more after most of the state has counted all the ballots in sight.

How It Is Done

The Associated Press collects returns through resident correspondents in each of the 58 counties. These correspondents report every hour or oftener during count of the presidential vote. Their reports are accumulated at four centers strategically located, and rushed to a central tabulating bureau in San Francisco.

Here all figures are re-checked for accuracy and tabulated by a visible system developed by the Associated Press elections department. The best operators obtainable add up the columns of figures on electric calculators. The first rule given these operators is that every column must be added twice. Accuracy is always put ahead of speed.

Totals at Intervals

Totals on the various contests reach the AP's far spread wire network within a few minutes. Editors especially trained for the task parallel them with articles telling what the figures mean. AP newspapers everywhere make use of the results—in news columns and for radiocasting.

During the ballot counting tonight, the Associated Press plans to issue every 15 minutes a total on the vote for President in California, and at hourly intervals a report on the vote for and against income tax repeal, liquor control, local option and taxing of chain stores.

City Approves Sewer Project

Plans for a $10,000 sewer project to serve parts of North Main, Santa Ana boulevard and Roe drive were approved by the city council last night.

The project is to cost the city $2229.

DRIVER ARRESTED

Paul Canaday, 907 Towner street, was jailed by Santa Ana police last nigh on drunk driving charges after his car assertedly struck an auto driven by Mrs. Helen Featherstone, 1245 South Garnsey street, at Fourth and Shelton streets. Neither driver was injured.

VARIED ACTIVITIES OF HOMEMAKER DEMAND GAY M. MARTIN FROCK

PATTERN 9078

There are busy days ahead for homemakers, with all the gay, varied activities of winter in sight! And you're going to want a frock that's made in a jiffy, donned in a flash, and one that looks smart from sun-up to sunset! So choose pattern 9078, one of Marian Martin's brightest, simplest designs, and with the aid of its accompanying complete diagrammed sew chart you'll have it stitched up in no time at all! Here's your opportunity to indulge your love for colorful fabrics and gay prints, for this dainty style looks smartest in vivid percale, chambray, crisp, checked gingham, or figured cotton crepe. Chic as can be are its yoke-sleeves (puffed or flared), and unusual patch pockets.

Pattern 9078 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3½ yards 36-inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and style number.

Be Sure to State Size

Write at once for the new issue of Marian Martin pattern book! Don't wait another minute to get this new book filled with smart, modern and advanced styles in frocks, suits and blouses for the workaday morning, the brighter afternoon or the glamorous evening. Scores of suggestions on accessories, fabrics and gifts, too. Book is only 15 cents. Pattern, too, is but 15 cents. Twenty-five cents for both when ordered together.

Send your order to The Santa Ana Journal, Pattern Department, 117 East Fifth street, Santa Ana.

FLOWERS

For the Living

TODAY, a bouquet to:

L. N. MARTIN, publisher of the Costa Mesa Globe, who recently moved his business into new quarters and a new plant, and who was honored by the Orange County Weekly Newspaper association at an affair in the Costa Mesa American Legion hall.

THORN in the FLESH

By GLENN L. THORNE

Lots of predictions on the outcome of today's election, so here's mine: "More split tickets than ever before." Tickets? Sure. These ballots today look like they'd be good for a cross country trip—which they will be to the winners!

Anyway, no matter how or who you vote for, go do it! When you go to the polls, first recall all the arguments you've heard. Then forget 'em and vote as you believe best for our country.

The main thing is to vote. We've all got to pay for the election whether we vote or not, so might as well all do it. Won't cost any more.

Not many of us are like the prospective juror who was being questioned: "How long have you been married?" "21 years." "Have you formed an opinion?" "Not for 21 years." Most of us have our honest opinion on the questions before us today. Let's express them, and let the powers that be think we're interested, even if we aren't always.

Today's the day convictions can be expressed without fear of an argument. Do it before the polls close.

"Choose ye this day whom ye shall serve, and who shall serve thee."

EX-CHINA PREMIER DIES

SHANGHAI. (AP)—Tuan Chi-Jui, former premier of China who was responsible for China joining the Allied side in the World war, died Monday. He was 72.

Meet Your Neighbor

The Journal's compilation of Orange County People You Should Know.

Name:
Paul E. Plavan.
Occupation:
Rancher, roadrunner.
Home address:
Huntington Beach.
Where were you born?
Mounett, Mo.
What is your hobby?
Race horses.
What is the hardest task you ever encountered?
Making a large plow that would make a five-foot furrow.
What career offers the greatest opportunity to young men and women?
Aviation and radio.
What bit of news has interested you most recently?
The election.
If you were editor of The Journal what one change would you make in the paper?
Give C. F. Skirvin more column.
What do you like best in The Journal?
Skinny Skribbles.
What one thing would help Santa Ana most?
Parks and playgrounds.
What in your judgment is the most important problem facing the world today? Why?
World peace.

HOSTESS TRIO IN SHOWER FOR MISS WEAVER

Friday evening, October 30th, was the occasion of a surprise bridal shower given by Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. J. Milan Kennedy and Mrs. Earl E. Wilson to honor Miss Alda V. Weaver, who on Thanksgiving Day will become the bride of Kenneth Gorton of Newport Beach. The shower took place at the charming new home of Mrs. Schroeder at 1208 Louise street.

Upon her arrival at the home, Miss Weaver was presented with a corsage bouquet of gardenias, bouvardia, and maiden hair fern, a courtesy of the hostesses.

Court whist was introduced as the diversion of the evening. Covers of the score cards, fashioned by the hostesses, were white with silver wedding bells and silver borders and were tied with white satin ribbons. To further the bridal theme in white and silver, white chrysanthemums were tastefully arranged throughout the spacious rooms.

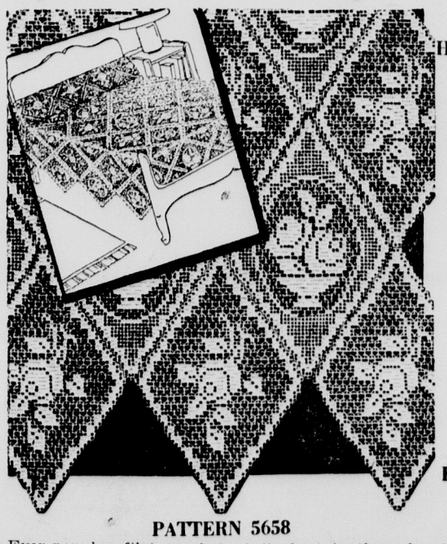
At the close of the evening of play, it was found that Mrs. Rae Rose Griffin was holder of high score and the winner of the handmade Chinese luncheon set. Mrs. Lucille Goodale received an attractive hand embroidered white linen guest towel for second high, and for low score Miss Doris Eden was presented with a set of hand embroidered white linen coasters.

The guests were then invited into the dining room, lovely with white flowers and further enhanced by tall white tapers in silver candelabra which furnished the only light. The dining table was covered with a handsome imported Italian cloth of white embroidered linen and centered with a beautifully decorated, three-tiered white wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Weaver cut and served her cake, together with the ice cream roll with a wedding bell center, and the hostesses poured tea and coffee. Favors placed on small tables were white and silver nut cups.

Miss Weaver was later presented with a large basket covered with white crepe paper which was overflowing with many lovely and useful gifts for her new home. The gifts were topped by a huge white heart tied with a white satin bow.

Guests invited to share the event with Miss Weaver and the htree hostesses were Mrs. Lucy Weaver, mother of the honoree; Mrs. Charles Gorton, mother of Miss Weaver's fiance; Mrs. Clyde Branson, Mrs. Vincent Horian, Mrs. Francis Hill, Mrs. Earl Waycott, Mrs. Malcolm Phyllis Hewitt, Mrs. Lynn Weaver, Macurda, Mrs. Robert Munro, Mrs. Mrs. Clara Busker, Mrs. John L. Upson, Miss Dorothy Maher, Miss Vernis Waggener, Miss Dolly Cox, Miss Lilly Chaffee, Miss Anne Ashley, all of Santa Ana; Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Otto Schaffer, Mrs. Charles Waldo, Anaheim; Mrs. Flora Belding, Mrs. Velma Vinzant, Costa Mesa; Miss Doris Eden, Fullerton; Mrs. Orville King, Garden Grove; Mrs. Morrison Black, Glendale; Mrs. Thomas Wyllie, Huntington Beach; Miss Catherine Gorton, Newport Beach; Mrs. Sally Coe Huller, Mrs. Iris Puls, Orange; Mrs. Ollie Moritz, Riverside; Mrs. Lucille Goodale, Miss Evelyn Shafer, South Gate; Mrs. Rae Rose Griffin, Mrs. Florence Collins, Mrs. Dorothy Owens, Mrs. Winifred Smith, Mrs. Helen Wilson, Miss Ruth Hall, Miss Glendine Seelman, Miss Olive Smith, all of Los Angeles.

Spread of Roses in Simple Crochet



Household Arts by Alice Brooks

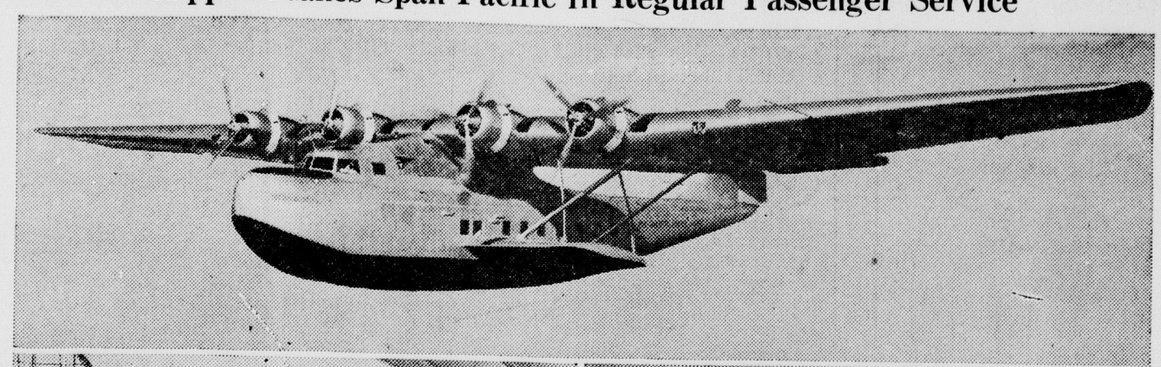
Two Dainty Motifs Make Choice Heirloom

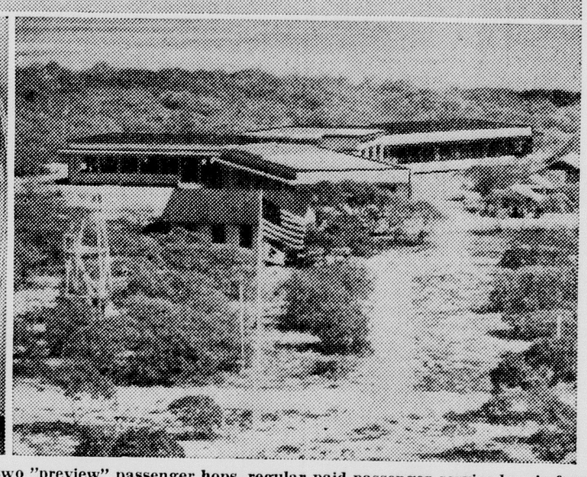
PATTERN 5658

Ever-popular filet crochet at its best in these handsome medallions, offers one way of making some heirlooms you'll be proud to claim as your handiwork. The lacy diamonds in an alternating pattern—you can, if you wish, use just one and repeat it—makes a beautiful spread, cloth, scarf or pillow. Use string or finger cotton depending on what you're making. In pattern 5658 you will find complete instructions and charts for making the medallions shown; an illustration of them and of the stitches needed; material requirements.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to Santa Ana Journal, Household Arts Dept., 117 East Fifth St. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Clipper Planes Span Pacific in Regular Passenger Service





Following months of successful mail and express flights and two "preview" passenger hops, regular paid passenger service by air from California to Manila started recently over the Pan-American Airways' Clipper plane route. Above is one of the huge seaplanes in full flight. The pictures of the lounge (lower left) of the Clipper ships and of the Wake Island hotel (lower right), one of the three 45-room "airway inns" erected at mid-ocean bases, show that passengers' comfort is a primary consideration. (Associated Press Photos)

Glands Are Important Organs

By CLAUD CHRISMAN, M. D.

There is one set of organs in the body that is a mystery to all of us. We know there are such things and that they do thinngs but the reasons for their presence and action are extremely hazy and mysterious.

Glands are organs scattered over various portions of our bodies that have many and varied functions.

Among the best known are the sweat and sebaceous or oil glands of the skin. They collect waste from the surface and throw it off in the form of sweat or oil, and perform many functions, such as aiding in the cooling of the skin as well as keeping it soft and pliable.

The other greatly important excretory glands are the kidneys, which gather up great quantities of substances that are no longer needed. The lymphatic glands, of which the tonsils and adenoids are the best known examples, have as their business to pick up harmful, disease-bearing bacteria either entering the body from the outside or filtering in from the blood stream and destroy them. As long as they are healthy and not overwhelmed with infectious material, they keep us well and free from infections.

Another type of glands has as its object the manufacture of certain elements that are needed for use close to their source. Many of these produce elements to aid the digestion and absorption of food. Such glands are the salivary glands which lie just under the mucous membrane of the mouth. They discharge their product through small ducts into the mouth to be mixed with the food and thus start digestion.

These are followed by the digestive glands in the stomach wall, the pancreas, the liver, and intestinal glands whose manufactured products all combine to complete the digestion and absorption of food. All have a very definite place and the failure of any one of them to produce its normal product causes some disturbance in our digestive ability.

Then we have the other type of glands known as the ductless, or glands of secretion or the endocrines. These are the least understood; but are probably the most important organs in the body. They are called ductless because there is no channel or direct outlet from them to other organs. The substances they produce are taken up directly by the blood stream passing through and carried to any and all parts of the body as they are needed.

CAPONE'S SON HURT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Albert Capone, 18, son of Alphonse, the former Chicago gangland leader serving time at present at Alcatraz island prison for income tax evasion, received only slight cuts and bruises when his car hit a tree. The machine overturned and was wrecked.

Intelligence, Not Beauty In Business

By JACQUELINE HUNT

Men look for intelligence, rather than beauty in their secretaries, but if you happen to have a good measure of both, you will have little to worry about. There are several tips, however, for the girl who is anxious to make good in her job.

Be attractive — neatly but not flashily dressed; make-up used with restraint and good taste. Do not apply your make-up at your desk even though you suspect your nose is shiny.

Learn to use a telephone intelligently and try to develop a clear, pleasing voice either when speaking over the telephone or directly to a person.

Do not discuss your personal problems at your office and do not divulge office secrets outside. Be friendly with others in the office but do not discuss office affairs or become involved in office politics.

Oh, yes, and be able to jump quickly when your boss rings. You will save him time and annoyance.

Your hours outside of the office should be budgeted carefully enough to allow time for a complete manicure and hand treatment, a shampoo and fingerwave, a facial and a relaxing beauty bath.

If you can afford to make an appointment at a beauty salon after business one evening each week, it is a splendid idea to do so.

If you must give yourself your treatments at home, you might save one evening a week, say a Wednesday evening. Go directly home from work, wash your hair, set the waves and roll up your ringlets.

If you still have a few minutes before dinner, you can wash out bits of lingerie and roll in heavy towels so they will be just right to press after dinner.

This finished you might cleanse your skin thoroughly and apply a mask. Leave it on while you relax for half an hour. Remove the preparation, apply a rich cream and get into your warm bath for a refreshing, cleansing bath. While your mask is drying and while you are in the tub you can shape your fingernails, push back the cuticle and apply cuticle oil. Finish your bath, remove the cream and pat your skin with cold tonic and prepare to go to bed.

If you have time to apply your nail polish in the morning, use a cuticle oil or cream and let your nails remain free from polish overnight. If not, apply the enamel, let it dry thoroughly then work the cuticle oil around your nails and under the tips.

ROBBER SLAYS BANK JANITOR

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—A bank robber shot and killed a janitor in the Bank of America branch at Haight and Fillmore streets yesterday and escaped with cash estimated at $5000.

Joseph Morento, the janitor, was shot in the back by the robber, who got into the building before other employes arrived.

The man, wearing a hood over his head, then bound and gagged W. B. Martini, the manager, and menaced Joseph Elson, Wilson Donoline and Miss Jeanette Dougherty, other employes, with a pistol.

He forced them into a rear room and made Martini open the vaults, boasting he had slain the janitor.

TAFT'S PHYSICIAN DEAD

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Brigadier General Matthew A. Delaney, who was President Taft's physician, died Sunday in Walter Reed hospital. Delaney retired from the army early this year. He was assistant surgeon general from 1931 until his death.

Psychologists say that parents' acts and gestures are a much more effective education for children than words.

Firemen recovered the auto of Mrs. Lillian Haggerty of Milwaukee as it hung on the edge of a 100-foot cliff where it had skidded.

Here Is Spinach In A New Dress

By JUDITH WILSON

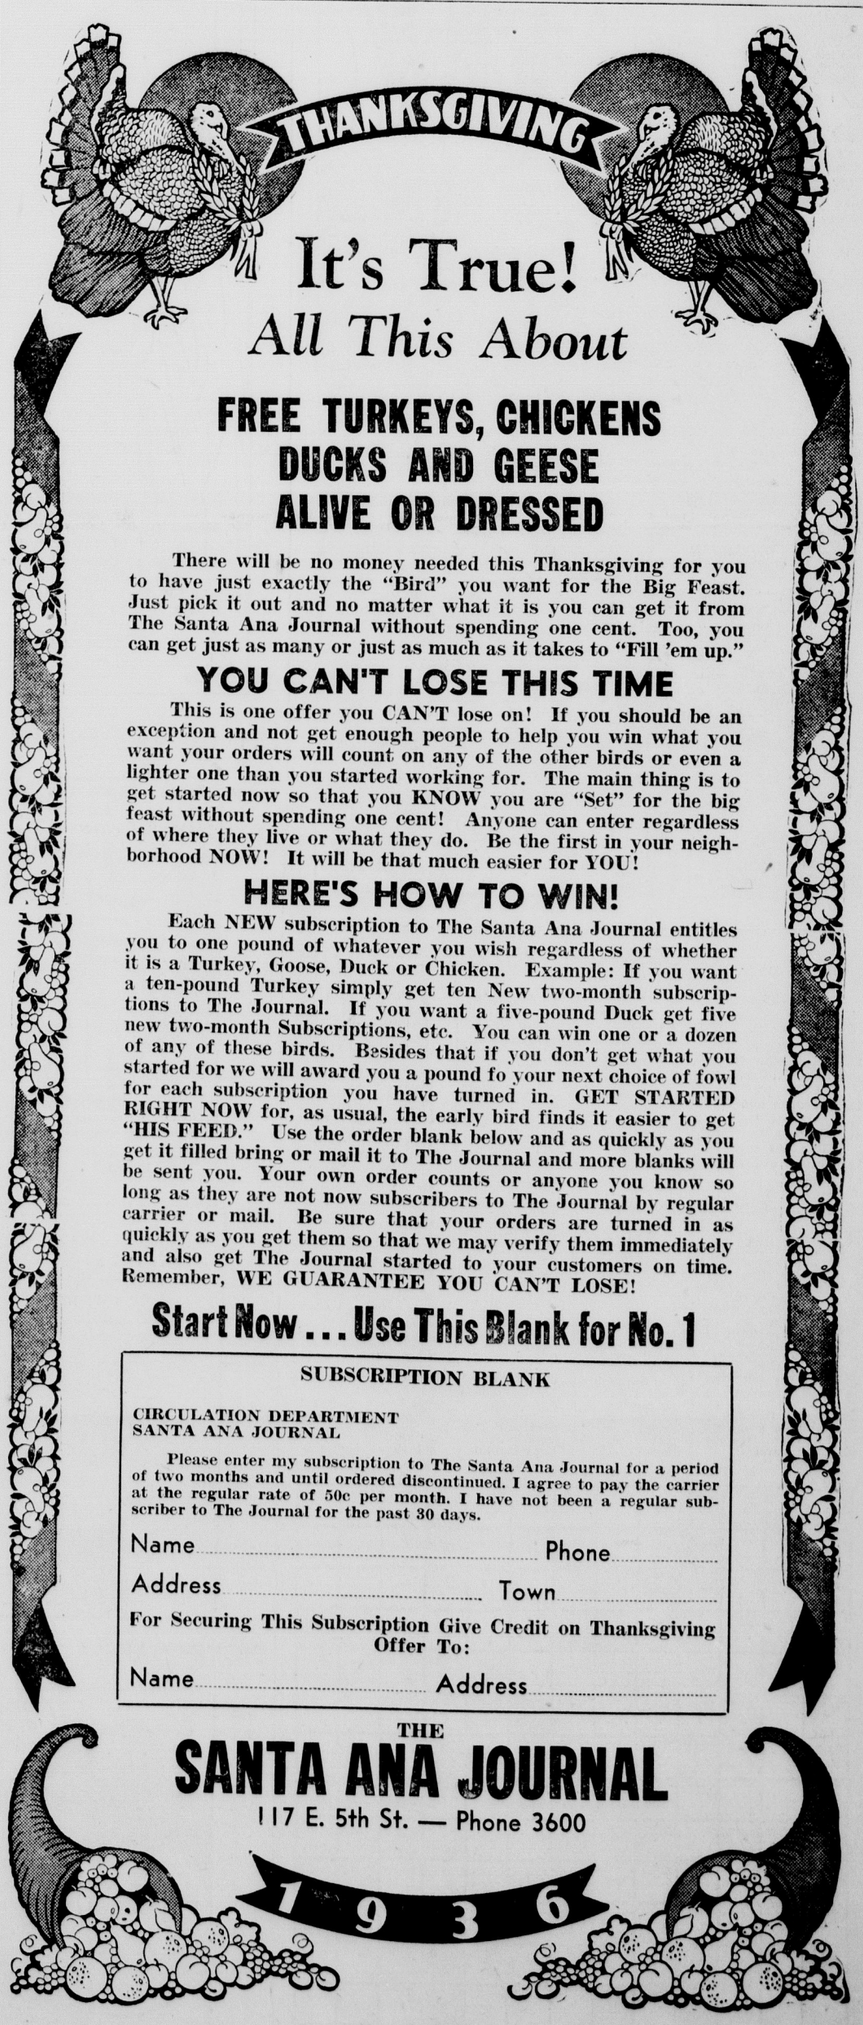
Nature is in a lavish mood where hardy vegetables are concerned right now. Just visit your market and see the shining rows of purple eggplant, gray-green artichokes, emerald peppers, silvery-red onions, squash and other fall offerings. Yet in hundreds of homes, housewives planning their menus pause with lifted pencils to ask, "What vegetable shall I serve?" They remember that they had peas with Sunday's roast, carrots with Monday's stew and string beans on Thursday.

They ask for something different without stopping to see what can be done about the choice, succulent, little-used vegetables that are waiting for them. By unusual combinations or unusual treatment, the most ordinary vegetable becomes something "different." Take spinach for instance. Its appeal depends on the way it is prepared. Try combining it with cucumbers—plentiful and cheap right now—for contrast in flavor and texture.

Spinach Ring

Steam the spinach for 10 minutes or less if it is young and tender. Chop it and season well with salt and butter and drain off the excess juice for soup for tomorrow's luncheon. Pack in a ring mold and place in a pan of hot water to keep warm. Pare large cucumbers, cut into cubes and boil for 20 minutes in salted water. Drain them and season with salt, pepper and butter. Turn the spinach out on a large plate and fill the center of the ring with the diced cucumbers. Serve with a mock Hollandaise sauce.

The Illinois is a group of North American Indians belonging to the great Algonquian linguistic tribe.



It's True!
All This About

FREE TURKEYS, CHICKENS DUCKS AND GEESE ALIVE OR DRESSED

There will be no money needed this Thanksgiving for you to have just exactly the "Bird" you want for the Big Feast. Just pick it out and no matter what it is you can get it from The Santa Ana Journal without spending one cent. Too, you can get just as many or just as much as it takes to "Fill 'em up."

YOU CAN'T LOSE THIS TIME

This is one offer you CAN'T lose on! If you should be an exception and not get enough people to help you win what you want your orders will count on any of the other birds or even a lighter one than you started working for. The main thing is to get started now so that you KNOW you are "Set" for the big feast without spending one cent! Anyone can enter regardless of where they live or what they do. Be the first in your neighborhood NOW! It will be that much easier for YOU!

HERE'S HOW TO WIN!

Each NEW subscription to The Santa Ana Journal entitles you to one pound of whatever you wish regardless of whether it is a Turkey, Goose, Duck or Chicken. Example: If you want a ten-pound Turkey simply get ten New two-month subscriptions to The Journal. If you want a five-pound Duck get five new two-month Subscriptions, etc. You can win one or a dozen of any of these birds. Besides that if you don't get what you started for we will award you a pound fo your next choice of fowl for each subscription you have turned in. GET STARTED RIGHT NOW for, as usual, the early bird finds it easier to get "HIS FEED." Use the order blank below and as quickly as you get it filled bring or mail it to The Journal and more blanks will be sent you. Your own order counts or anyone you know so long as they are not now subscribers to The Journal by regular carrier or mail. Be sure that your orders are turned in as quickly as you get them so that we may verify them immediately and also get The Journal started to your customers on time. Remember, WE GUARANTEE YOU CAN'T LOSE!

Start Now . . . Use This Blank for No. 1

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

CIRCULATION DEPARTMENT
SANTA ANA JOURNAL

Please enter my subscription to The Santa Ana Journal for a period of two months and until ordered discontinued. I agree to pay the carrier at the regular rate of 50c per month. I have not been a regular subscriber to The Journal for the past 30 days.

Name..... Phone.....

Address..... Town.....

For Securing This Subscription Give Credit on Thanksgiving Offer To:

Name..... Address.....

THE
SANTA ANA JOURNAL
117 E. 5th St. — Phone 3600

1936

MODEST MAIDENS

"Any secret you tell Kay goes in one ear and around the campus."

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

1. Hasten
4. Pointed
9. Obstruct
12. Entire amount
13. Observed carefully
14. Southern constellation
15. Killed
17. Clemency
19. Ground grain
21. Support
22. Manner of dressing the hair
25. Rational
28. Form of the prefix "ad" before the letter P
29. Periodic motion of the sea
30. Part of a wooden joint
31. Army officers: abbr.
33. Allude
35. Pose for a painting
36. Flexible
38. Flower
40. Compass point
41. Land measure
42. Long narrow flag
44. Every
46. Continent
47. Flowering shrub with small red fruits
50. Lie in ambush
53. Be indebted
54. Suppress in pronouncing
56. Contend
57. Finish
58. Banquet
59. Urge on

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

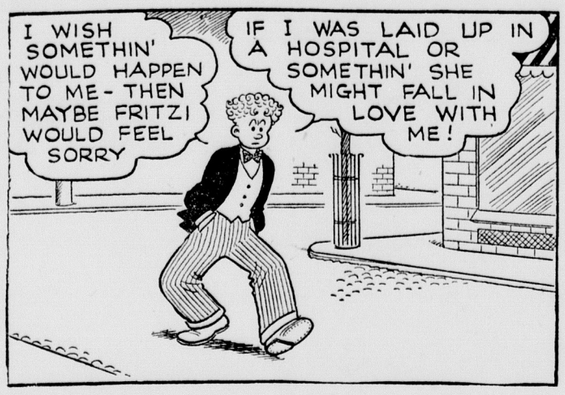
L	O	B		S	P	I	T	E		N	O	T
I	V	A		T	O	N	E	R		I	R	A
L	O	R	R	Y		T	R	I		L	E	G
A	L	O	E		S	E	R	A	N	G
C	O	N	S	P	I	R	E		A	H	E	M
			P	U	M	P		S	T	A	G	E
I	N	T	E	R	P	O	L	A	T	I	O	N
T	E	R	C	E		S	A	R	I
E	D	I	T		L	I	N	G	E	R	E	D
		E	S	T	A	T	E		S	A	L	E
G	A	S		I	R	I		S	T	R	U	M
H	I	T		A	G	O	N	E		E	D	E
I	R	E		R	E	N	E	W		R	E	S

DOWN

1. Owns
2. Poorly
3. Gum resin
4. One indefinitely
5. Play into each other's hands
6. American Indian
7. Strained
8. Redact
9. East Indian trees
10. Portion of a curve
11. Pencil of light
16. Woven threads which cross the warp
18. Relieve
20. Burning
22. Kind of lily
23. Pertaining to the eye
24. Cause to conform to the shape again
26. Racket
27. Go in
30. Uses experimentally
32. Scattered
34. Missions
37. Extreme warmth
39. Water excursion
42. Plank placed under a prop to give greater bearing surface
43. Color
45. Head cook
47. Garden implement
48. Beard of grain
49. Long narrow inlet
51. Equip
52. Small barrel
55. And: Latin

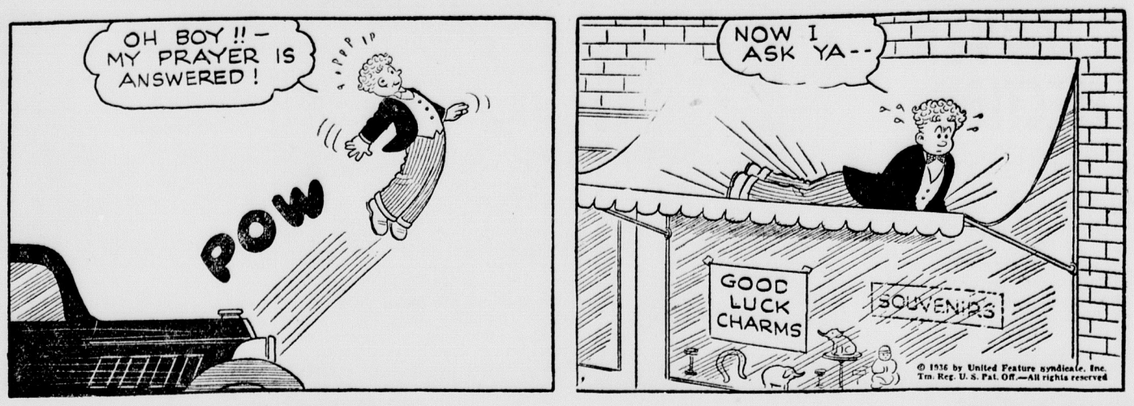
1	2	3	■	4	5	6	7	8	■	9	10	11
12			■	13					■	14
15			16	■	17				18
■	■	19		20		■	21				■	■
22	23					24		■	25		26	27
28		■	29				■	30
31		32	■	33			34		■	35
36			37		■	38			39	■	40
41				■	42					43
■	■	44		45		■	46				■	■
47	48					49		■	50		51	52
53			■	54				55	■	56
57			■	58					■	59

FRITZI RITZ

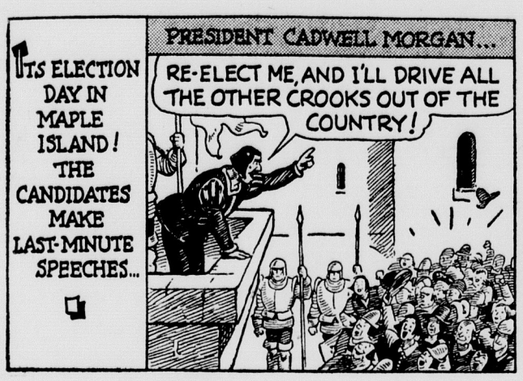


GOOD LUCK IS BAD

By ERNIE BUSHMILLER

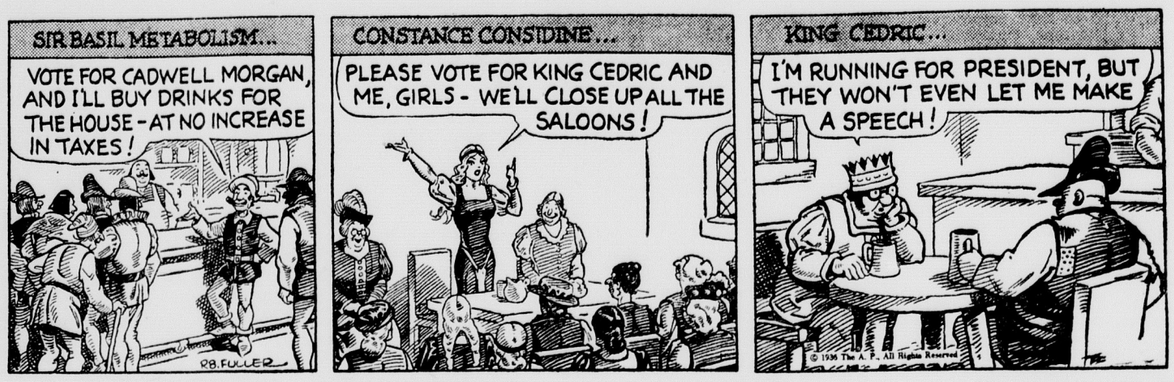


OAKY DOAKS



TAKING NO CHANCES

By R. B. FULLER



THE GAY THIRTIES

By HANK BARROW

JOE PALOOKA

MOPE

By HAM FISHER

OH, DIANA

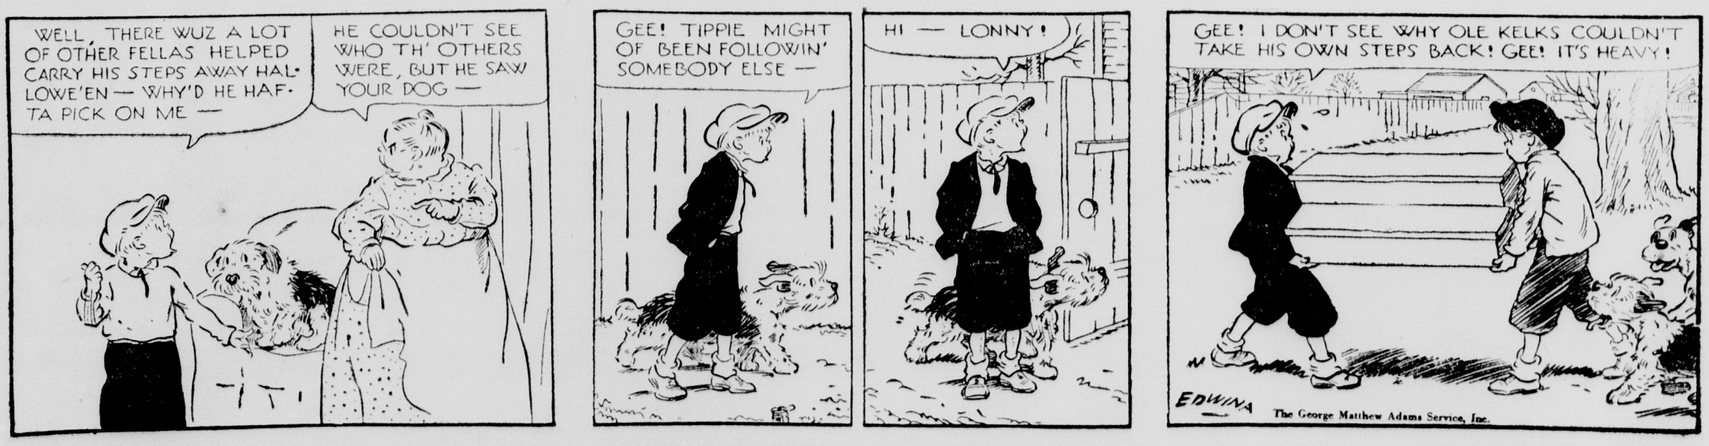
NOT REALLY, AMBROSE?

By DON FLOWERS

"CAP" STUBBS

IT ISN'T FAIR

By EDWINA



DICKIE DARE

WALKING RIGHT INTO DANGER

By COULTON WAUGH

Santa Ana Journal Classified Ads

TRANSIENT RATES

	Per Line
One insertion	7c
Three insertions	15c
Six insertions	25c
Per month	75c

COMMERCIAL RATES

Commercial rate card will be furnished upon request.

Minimum charge for any one advertisement, 25c.

The Santa Ana Journal will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion and reserves the right to revise any copy not conforming to set-up rules, or to reject any and all copy deemed objectionable.

JUST CALL 3600

If you are unable to call at The Journal office, telephone 3600, and an experienced ad writer will help you prepare your advertisement.

INDEX TO THIS PAGE

ANNOUNCEMENTS II
EMPLOYMENT III
BUS OPPORTUNITIES IV
FINANCIAL V
REAL ESTATE For Sale VI
REAL ESTATE For Rent VII
LIVESTK. PLTY., PETS VIII
MISC. FOR SALE IX

ANNOUNCEMENTS II

SPECIAL NOTICES 25

WILL party with car and trailer seen taking Scottie dog Sun. a. m., cor. Haster and Lampson return same? No questions asked.

DR. KRUSE SYSTEM sulphur vapor baths and massage. Reclining cabinet. For Rheumatism, Arthritis, Neuritis and kindred ailments. Trained attendants. Phone 2335-W for appointment. 1520 N. MAIN.

TRUCKING, TRANSFER, STORAGE 27

WRIGHT
301 Spurgeon St. Phone 156-W
TRANSFER & STORAGE CO.

BUSINESS PERSONALS 28

DOLL HOSPITAL—Mrs. A. Holmes. 2006 No. Bdwy., Tel. 1863-W.

EMPLOYMENT III

WANTED BY WOMEN 30

EXP. white girl wants day or hour work, 35c hr. Ref. 2285 Kilson Dr.

WORK by the hour, housework or practical nursing. 309 HALLADAY.

REV. SARAH ULM, Medium, moved to 408 Acacia Street, Garden Grove.

WANTED BY MEN 31

IF YOU have painting you want done, and have anything to trade, PHONE 4748. We will accept poultry, cows, hogs, horses, tractors, farm machinery, autos, furniture for our labor.

KALSOMINING, Painting, Interior and Exterior. Phone 4594-W.

WANTED BY MEN AND WOMEN 35

WANTED—Employment by man and wife, prefer care of invalid or aged people. Experienced practical nurses; go anywhere; best of ref. 524 S. Birch, Ph. 1866-W.

FINANCIAL V

MONEY TO LOAN 50

AUTO LOANS

Lowest rates—easy monthly payments—immediate service.

Mortgages and Trust Deeds purchased or will accept them as Security for Loan.

Federal Finance Co., Inc.
429 N. Sycamore Santa Ana, Calif.

FOR A LOAN ON AUTOMOBILE
FURNITURE
Community Finance Co.
117 W. 5th St. Ph. 760

$2000 TO LOAN at 6% on real estate security. Walter R. Robb, 909 W. 1st.

AUTO LOANS

Contracts refinanced. Loans quickly arranged. No red tape. Lowest rates.

Interstate Finance Co.
Phone 2347 307 N. Main St.

Auto Loans—J. S. McCarty
Furniture Loans
111 SO. MAIN PHONE 5727

INSURANCE 52

LET HOLMES protect your homes. E. D. Holmes at 429 N. Sycamore, Phone 816.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE VI

GENERAL, FOR SALE 60

BARR
-LUMBER COMPANY-
Complete HOMES
— OUR SERVICE —

GENERAL, FOR SALE 60

FOR SALE
Complete service station, including rooms and all equipment. Can remain on present property or be moved to new location. UNION OIL CO., 1016 East First.

$2000 FOR 6-ROOM HOUSE AND GARAGE, ON 50x135-FOOT LOT. SEE COLEMAN. 842 N PARTON ST.

HOMES FOR SALE 61

5 ROOM STUCCO, hdw. floors, south port of town, $2600.00; $300 cash, bal. easy.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 North Main Phone 1314

3-BEDROOM, new, 2 baths, modern, fine location, $4450, terms.
Hawks-Brown, Realtors
107 W. 3rd FOR RESULTS Ph. 5030

4 ROOM, hdw. flors, single garage, south part of city, $1500.00; $150 cash, $16.00 per mo.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 North Main Phone 1314

LOT, 50x100, 3-rm house, garage with warehouse combined. Price $700. R. H. Smith, 620 E. Second.

6 ROOM STUCCO, hdw. floors, furnace, fireplace, d. garage, beautiful shrubs, $4500.00.
STEBBINS REALTY CO.
602 North Main Phone 1314

RANCHES & LANDS 62

FARM LANDS, suited to grapes, cotton, alfalfa, dairying. Financed up to 80%, for 20 years, at 5%.
HERB ALLEMAN, 313 Bush. Ph. 4871

EXCHANGES 65

WILL exchange lot at Newport Beach for it. rdstr. Address C-1132 Magnolia Ave., Los Angeles. FItzroy 6946.

WANT to trade 60-foot clear lot, well located, for equity in 1935 6 or 8 cyl. coupe. Call 1639-J, 1 to 5 p. m.

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT VII

APARTMENTS 70

2 COZY front housekeeping rooms for ladies. 308½ N. SYCAMORE.

FOR RENT—Furnished duplex. 501 SOUTH SYCAMORE. Phone 1070-W.

MODERN APTS. Utilities and garage furnished. Bristol Apts. 1309½ W. 4th.

ROOMS 72

CLEAN, well-furn. 3-rm.; private bath; close in; minimum gas and elec. paid; $22.50. Inquire 617 WEST FOURTH.

LIGHT, AIRY ROOM, COMFORTABLE BED. 327 E. WASHINGTON.

ROOM AND BOARD.....$7 WEEK
111 CYPRESS.

NICE HOME, men only. 928 Spurgeon. Tel. 1310.

ROOMS for men with club privileges at Y. M. C. A.; $3.00 week up.

FURNISHED room for rent; convenient to bath. 1135 S. PARTON.

VACANT LOTS 63

2 VACANT lots in S. W. S. A. for acreage, Costa Mesa, Inq. 510 W. 2nd.

LIVESTOCK, POULTRY, PETS VIII

CHICKENS 82

QUALITY FEEDS
Ex. leafy alfalfa, grain hay, straw. Dairy, Poultry and Rabbit Feeds
FREE DELIVERY
HALES FEED STORE
Phone 4148 2415 WEST FIFTH

R. I. R. baby and started chicks. Frank Jones, E. 17th and Prospect.

CHICKS 12c, rd. fryers 23c, pullets 75c; does $1.25, Rbt. fryers 14c lb. 1231 W.5th

WE BUY and sell all kinds of poultry and eggs. We call for live poultry, deliver dressed. BERNSTEIN BROS., 1613 W. 5th. Phone 1303.

RHODE ISLAND RED fryers. Frank Jones, E. 17th and Prospect.

DOGS 84

DOG SLEEPING BASKETS—Beautiful new colors, $1.25, $1.75, $2.50. You'll like these. NEAL SPORTING GOODS, 209 East Fourth.

BIRDS 86

BIRD AND DOG SUPPLIES. Singing canaries. Cages. Birds wanted. VAN'S BIRD STORE, 506 N. Main.

GENERAL 88

CHICKS every wk.; Minorca fryers 20c lb.; rabbit fryers 14c lb. 1231 W. 5th.

RABBIT SKINS wanted, any amount. Highest prices pd. 401½ E. 4th, S. A.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE IX

GENERAL 90

WALLPAPER as low as, roll.....8c
Perfection Enamel, quarts.....65c
De Co Lite Flat Paint, quarts.....50c
Window Shades.....10c, 39c, 49c
Barn and Fence Paint, gal.....95c
Kalsomine, all colors, pound.....6c
De Gregory Paint Co.
512 N. MAIN ST. Phone 3388

5 RECONDITIONED Used Electric Ranges, priced to sell.
B. & G. APPLIANCE CO.
213 NORTH BROADWAY

SACRIFICE good vacuum cleaner, like new, for only $8. 2345 Spurgeon.

ORANGE HONEY....5 gals. $5.50 and $6
MITCHELL'S, 305 East Fourth.

FOR SALE—Small heater and wood, canned fruit, 2 gals. honey. 1324 West Second Street.

GENERAL, FOR SALE 60

A MONEY MAKER

This orange grove and country estate to be disposed of at once. Must raise cash.

Beautiful new home, very latest architecture, best of materials used throughout. 4 room modern Caretaker's house, also assistant Caretaker's new stucco cabin. 15 acres of Valencias, 5 acres young Eureka lemons, well cared for. Good water system. Low irrigation costs. Low taxes. A lovely place to retire. Just 10 minutes from your yacht at the Harbor. An estimate cost and valuation of this estate, the new rambling type home situated inside of 20 year old eucalyptus windbreak:

Cost of home place	$10,000
Caretakers home	2,000
Assistant Caretakers Cabin	800
New John Deerer Tractor	1,000
New Machine Building, Dodge Truck and Machinery	1,500
Underground Irrigation System	1,000
15 A. Valencias, 6 to 15 yrs. old	30,000
5 acres Eureka Lemons	3,000
Eucalyptus Windbreak	500
Cost	$50,300
SELLING PRICE	$24,500

A short time ago one of our large oil companies paid $40,000 for 20 acres of bare land adjoining this property. Many think the next large oil pool will be discovered here in the near future. An old abandoned test well made by Gulf Oil Co. is now flowing heavy oil, new steel derrick being erected now for deep test. Hundreds of acres leased. All oil rights go with this estate.

No trades. No agents. Shown by appointment only. Phone Newport 400 or call on R. G. Chambers, 1854 Newport Blvd., Costa Mesa, Calif., who is under contract in charge of the sale of this estate. (Please do not write).

GENERAL 90

USED
NEWSPAPER
MATS
1c Each

18x22 inches, excellent for protecting small plants and trees. These mats are of heavy flexible material and can be used as wall-board for cabins or poultry house.

Call at JOURNAL office.

AL'S WRECKING YARD
We buy old cars, trucks and tractors, to wreck.
5100 W. FIFTH ST. Phone 1368

BRAND new portable typewriter and desk $38.50 complete, case and inst. book inc. $3 dn, $3 mo. Remington Rand, Inc. 415 N. Sycamore.

EVERYTHING electrical for the home. B. & G. Appliances, 213 N. Broadway.

WOOD FOR SALE, $2 tr. and up, all sizes. 633 SOUTH SHELTON.

HOT POINT Electric Range, used 60 days, $40; decided snap. 1144 Lewis Avenue, Long Beach.

FURNITURE 92

FOR SALE—40 imperfect rugs (room sizes), 18 overstuffed sets (factory samples), 20 Congoleum rugs (seconds), 12 inner spring mattresses (covers slightly soiled). HIGGINS BROS. MATTRESS FACTORY, 484 N. Lemon St., Orange, Cal.

BARGAIN BASEMENT
Used furniture and pianos. Easy terms. B. J. CHANDLER. 426 W. Fourth.

SALE OF USED FURNITURE
Penn Van & Storage Co., 609 W. 4th.

Used furniture WRIGHT TRANSFER CO., 301 Spurgeon. Phone 156-W

LUMBER & BUILDING MATERIALS 93

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THESE PRICES

Corrugated iron	$ 4.50 sq.
1x12	25.00 M.
1x6 siding	20.00 M.
Lath	45c bundle
5% shim stock	$20 M. SIS
Dimension lumber as low as	$20 M.
Fibered roof coating, gal	45c
Kalsomine	5c lb.

Free Delivery—
PLUMBING — PAINT — LUMBER
HARDWARE
WEST FIFTH ST. LUMBER & WRECKING CO.
2018 West Fifth St. Phone 4560
WE BUY USED BLDG. MATERIALS AND WRECK HOUSES.

Roofing—Phone 4193-W
We are the Authorized Application Agents in South Orange County for El Rey Metalic and El Rey Slate Surfaced Roofings and Shingles. Let us inspect your roof and estimate cost of needed repairs.
SANTA ANA ROOFING CO., 902 W. 4th

BUILDERS' HARDWARE, complete line of locks, hinges, nails, etc.
Liggett Lumber Co.
820 FRUIT STREET Phone 1922

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS 94

PIANOS WANTED—Will trade radio for your old piano or buy for cash. Foster-Barker Music Co., 309 N. Broadway. Phone 1179.

NURSERY STOCK 95

BLANDING NURSERIES
1348 So. Main Phone 1374

FRUIT & NUTS 96

WE ARE BUYING 1936 crop California walnuts and shelled walnuts. C. G. WHITE PACKING HOUSE, East Fourth Street and Santa Fe tracks, Santa Ana. Telephone 69.

RADIO, SALES & SERVICE 97

RADIO SERVICE—Any make of Radio; all work guaranteed. Foster-Barker Music Co., 309 N. Bdwy.

WANTED TO BUY 98

HIGHEST Mkt. price paid for fertilizer sacks. 315 W. 1st, Tustin.

WANT walnut meats. New Way Mkt., in G. C. Mkt. Top price. See Tucker.

WANTED—WALNUT MEATS.
910 WEST FOURTH STREET
FRED L. MITCHELL

PIANOS WANTED—Will trade radio for your old piano or buy for cash.
FOSTER-BARKER MUSIC CO.
309 North Broadway

WANTED—Walnut meats.
MITCHELL'S, 305 E. 4th

WE PAY MORE. Old gold, sterling, gold and silver plate, old dishes, old furniture, Haviland. Phone 0111-M. Will call. 105 WEST THIRD.

BUSINESS SERVICES 99

Awnings 99.1

Santa Ana Tent and Awning Co., Ltd.
Special Hand Decorated Awnings
1626 S. MAIN ST. Phone 207

Automotive Service 99.9

AMERICAN AUTO SALVAGE
2801 S. Main Ph. 5606

DEAVER MANUFACTURING
902 East 2nd St. Phone 1184.
General Blacksmithing & Spring Work

J. ARTHUR WHITNEY
Speedometer repairing, cylinder reboring and grinding. Machine work.
113-115 French., Ph. 1988

Main Service Garage
Day & Night Storage. 24-Hour Service. Washing, Greasing, Repairing.
L. T. BUTT, Mgr.
614 North Main. Phone 381.

AUTOMOBILES X

MOTORCYCLES, BICYCLES 100

ANDY wants 100 used bicycles. Orange County's biggest & most up-to-date bicycle and lawn mower shop. Open eves. & Sun. a. m. 1202 S. Main.

COMPLETE line of new and used bicycles. Ivor Johnson, Pierce, Columbia. Geo. Post, 212 E. 4th. Ph. 1565.

TRUCKS, TRACTORS, TRAILERS 101

CHEVROLET 1½-ton stake, 1930; good condition; bargain. See C. F. Mohinke, Skyline Drive, Lemon Heights.

FOR SALE—Gd. used 35x5 truck tires. Bargains. H. B. Riggan, 401 S. Main.

AUTO truck and tractor parts, pumping plant engines, 1½ h.p. to 75 h.p. Geo. T. Calhoun, 3101 W. 5th. Phone 1404.

USED TRUCK TIRES, ALL SIZES. JERRY HALL, Second and Main.

PASSENGER CARS 102

'29 Ford Pickup.....$ 99
'35 Dodge Pickup.....$489
'32 Chevrolet 8-ton capacity Langlois dual unit. Bargain. $471

L. D. Coffing Co.
DODGE-PLYMOUTH DEALER
311 E. 5th Street
501 W. 4th Street

PASSENGER CARS 102

Ford
MONEY BACK GUARANTEE
USED CARS
Drive A Bargain

'29 Ford Sport Roadster	$ 85
'29 Willys-Knt. 6 70 A Spt. Rd.	$ 65
'36 Terraplane 6 Coupe	$595
'34 Ford 8 Deluxe 3-w. Coupe	$435
'34 Ford 8 Deluxe 5-w. Coupe	$415
'32 Ford 8 Std. 5-w. Coupe	$295
'30 Chevrolet 6 Std. Coupe	$145
'29 Ford A Standard Coupe	$115
'28 Chevrolet Cabriolet Coupe	$ 95
'26 Buick Master 6 Coupe	$ 55
'33 Pontiac 8 Coach	$375
'33 Ford 8 Standard Tudor	$345
'30 Ford A Standard Tudor	$195
'36 Ford 8 Touring Sedan, Columbia axle, radio	$795
'36 Ford 8 Touring Sed., radio	$729
'33 Pontiac 8 Sedan	$425
'31 Franklin 6 Sedan	$285
'31 Nash 8 Sedan, clean	$275
'31 Dodge 8 Sedan, 6 w.w.	$275
'30 Chevrolet 6 Sedan	$245
'30 Buick 6 Sedan, 7-pass.	$225
'30 Studebaker President 8 Sed.	$195
'27 Stutz 8 Sedan	$115
'30 Plymouth 4 Sedan	$165
'29 Dodge Senior 6 Sedan	$ 95
'27 Studebaker Std. 6 Sedan	$ 75
'27 Cadillac 8 Sedan	$ 65
'27 Pontiac 6 Landau Sedan	$ 45
'32 Chevrolet 6 C. C. Pickup	$275
'31 Ford 4 Express Truck, S. W.	$245

TERMS AND TRADES
GEORGE DUNTON
115 S. Main, Ph. 1392W
Open Eves. Till 9; Sunday Till 5

SACRIFICING '29 Nash Sedan. A-1 condition; new battery. 2216 Maple.

1931 BUICK sport coupe in A-1 shape. 810 Orange Ave., Phone 1066-R.

WILL TRADE 1928 car for equity in later model. 814 N. GARNSEY.

USED TIRES and tubes, 50c up. Will retread or buy your tires.
SKIRVIN'S. First and Sycamore

'27 HOPPED-UP Ford Roadster, good tires, with new French top and upholstering; new paint job; Frontenac head; lightweight pistons; Winfield carburetor; ignition system; spare motor and rear end; $65. 308 N. Parton. Ph. 1364-W. after 4 p.m.

LEGAL NOTICE

No. A-5275
NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange.
In the Matter of the Estate of JENNIE COOK, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, HOMER C. CHANEY, Executor of the Estate of JENNIE COOK, deceased, will sell at private sale to the highest bidder upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned and subject to confirmation by said Superior Court, on Monday, November 9th, 1936, at the hour of 10:30 o'clock A. M., or thereafter within the time allowed by law, at the office of JACK J. RIMEL, attorney for said Executor, Suite 200 Reliance Building, 310 North Main Street, Santa Ana, California, all right, title, interest and estate of said JENNIE COOK, deceased, at the time of her death and all right, title, and interest that said estate has acquired, by operation of law or otherwise, other than or in addition to that of said JENNIE COOK at the time of her death in and to the real property described as follows:

That certain real property with improvements thereon located at 1920 North Bush Street, Santa Ana, California, and more particularly described as: Lot 2 of the Main Street Tract as per Map thereof recorded in Book 3, Page 20, of Miscellaneous Maps, Records of Orange County, California.

Bids or offers are invited for said property and must be in writing and will be received at the office of JACK J. RIMEL, attorney for said Executor, or may be filed with the Clerk of said Superior Court or delivered to the said Executor personally at any time after first publication of this notice and before making said sale.

Terms and conditions of said sale are as follows: Cash, lawful money of the United States, ten per cent of the purchase price to be paid at the time of the sale; balance on confirmation of sale.

The purchaser is to assume the payment of, and take the property purchased by him, subject to all the State and County taxes, and all assessments of whatsoever name or nature which are now or may become hereafter chargeable to or a lien against the property purchased by him.

Dated this 23rd day of October, 1936.
HOMER C. CHANEY,
Executor of the last will of JENNIE COOK, deceased.
JACK J. RIMEL,
Suite 200 Reliance Building,
310 North Main Street,
Santa Ana, California.
Attorneys for said Executor.
(Oct. 23 to Nov. 6, Incl.)

Harvey and Harvey, Attys.

No. 34657
SUMMONS
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE.

ACTION BROUGHT IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF ORANGE, AND THE COMPLAINT FILED IN THE OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF SAID COUNTY OF ORANGE.
HARVEY & HARVEY,
Suite 200 Reliance Bldg, Santa Ana, Calif. Attorneys for Plaintiff.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF SANTA ANA, a corporation, Plaintiff, vs. J. VANA, ELIZABETH VANA, also known as ALLRGTR VANA, JAMES E. ALEXANDER, LAURA E. ALEXANDER, and also all other persons unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA SEND GREETINGS TO:
J. Vana, Elizabeth Vana, also known as Allrgtr Vana, James E. Alexander, Laura E. Alexander, and also all other persons unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiff's ownership or any cloud upon plaintiff's title thereto, Defendants.

YOU ARE HEREBY DIRECTED TO APPEAR and answer the Complaint in an action entitled as above, brought against you in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Orange, within ten days after the service on you of this Summons, if served within the County of Orange, or within thirty days if served elsewhere, and you are notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint, as arising upon contract, or will apply to the court for any other relief demanded in the Complaint which is for a decree quieting title by virtue of the provisions of Section 749 et seq., of the Code of Civil Procedure of the State of California, upon the following described real property, situate in the County of Orange, State of California, to-wit:

FIRST PARCEL: All of Block "E" of Spurgeon Addition to the Town of Santa Ana, as per map recorded in Book 3, Page 175 of Miscellaneous Records of Los Angeles County, California, excepting therefrom the North 100 feet.

SECOND PARCEL: Lot Eight (8) in Block "G" of "South Santa Ana", in the Rancho Santiago de Santa Ana, as shown on a map recorded in Book 5, Page 43 of Miscellaneous Maps, records of Orange County, California.

THIRD PARCEL: Commencing at the Northwest corner of Lot Eight (8) of "Smith and Bishop's Addition to Santa Ana," in the City of Santa Ana, as shown on a Map recorded in Book 13, Page 63 of Miscellaneous Records of Los Angeles County, California; and running thence South 60 feet; thence East 111.4 feet to the West line of Spurgeon Street, as shown on a Map recorded in Book 1, Page 100 of Miscellaneous Maps, records of Orange County; thence North 60 feet to the South line of Park Place (now Eleventh Street); thence West 111.4 feet to the place of beginning, and being the North 60 feet of Lots 6 and 8 and the North 60 feet of the West 11.4 feet of Lot 4 of said Addition.

Given under my hand and seal of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Orange, this 30th day of September, 1936.
J. M. BACKS,
County Clerk,
By A. L. Hitchcock, Deputy.
(Superior Court Seal)

HARVEY & HARVEY,
Attorneys for Plaintiff,
Suite 200, Reliance Bldg.,
Santa Ana, California.

No. 34031
SUMMONS
In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange.
SECURITY-FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF LOS ANGELES, a national banking association, Plaintiff, vs.
DAVID W. JULIAN, P. A. TRICKEY, NELLIE V. TRICKEY, GOLDIE CARLTON, C. A. CUSTER, LEORA L. CUSTER, M. N. BOLINGER, J. MOSKOWITZ, MARGARET E. MILLINGS, J. F. McDONALD, BERTHA BELL McDONALD, O. A. MOSHER, RICHARD BLUM and ONE to TEN, inclusive, Defendants.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of Orange, and Complaint filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of said County.

The People of the State of California send greetings to David W. Julian, P. A. Trickey, Nellie V. Trickey, Goldie Carlton, C. A. Custer, Leora L. Custer, M. N. Bolinger, J. Moskowitz, Margaret E. Millings, J. F. McDonald, Bertha Bell McDonald, O. A. Mosher, Richard Blum and One to Ten, inclusive, Defendants.

You are directed to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Orange, and to answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, if served within the County of Orange, or within thirty days if served elsewhere, and you are notified that unless you so appear and answer as above required, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the Complaint, as arising upon contract, or will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the Complaint.

Given under my hand and seal of the Superior Court of the County of Orange, State of California, this 17th day of March, 1936.
(Seal Superior Court Orange County)
J. M. BACKS,
County Clerk and Clerk of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Orange.
Sept. 8, 15-22-29, Oct. 6-13-20-27, Nov. 3.

Poultry Market

LOS ANGELES.—Yesterday's closing prices on the poultry market follows:

No.
1—Hens—Leghorns, 2½ to 3 lbs.	13c
2—Hens, Leghorns, over 3¾ and up to 4 lbs.	15c
3—Hens, Leghorns, over 4 lbs.	16c
4—Hens, colored, 3½ to 4 lbs.	19c
5—Hens, colored, 4 lbs. and up	22c
6—Broilers, over 1 and up to 1¼ lbs.	19c
7—Broilers, over 1¼ and up to 2¾ lbs.	19c
8—Fryers, Leghorns, over 2¼ and up to 3 lbs.	15c
9—Fryers, Barred Rocks, over 2¾ and up to 3½ lbs.	19c
10—Fryers, other than Barred Rocks, over 3½ lbs. and up	19c
11—Roosters, soft bone, Barred Rocks, over 3½ lbs. and up	19c
12—Roasters, soft bone, other than Barred Rocks, over 3½ lbs.	19c
13—Stags	12c
14—Old roosters	9c
15—Ducklings, 4½ lbs. and up	14c
16—Ducklings, under 4½ lbs.	12c
17—Old ducks	11c
18—Geese	16c
19—Young tom turkeys, 13 lbs. and up to 18 lbs.	18c
20—Young tom turkeys over 18 lbs.	20c
21—Hen turkeys, 9 lbs. and up	21c
22—Old tom turkeys	14c
23—Old hen turkeys	17c
25—Squabs, under 11 lbs. per doz.	24c
26—Squabs, 11 lbs. per doz. and up	26c
27—Capons, under 7 lbs	26c
28—Capons, 7 lbs. and up	28c
31—Rabbits, No. 1 white, 3½ to 4½ lbs.	12c
32—Rabbits, No. 1 mixed colors	10c
33—Rabbits, No. 1 old	5c

L. A. Livestock

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Hogs, 300; steady to strong; grain feds 10.25-35; locals 9.00-85.

Cattle, 450; holdovers 313; quality plain, fully steady; plain steers 6.25 down; stockers and feeders 5.00-6.35; few heifers 5.75 down; cows 4.50-5.50; cutter grades 3.00-4.25; bulls 4.50-5.50.

Calves, 450; fully steady; few vealers to 9.50; range calves 5.50-6.50.

Sheep, 650; fully steady; good to choice wooled lambs 9.00; good ewes 3.80.

TODAY'S CITRUS PRICES

Today citrus prices on the eastern markets, priced by size, are provided through the courtesy of the Orange County Fruit Exchange.

Market is about unchanged. Nov. 3, 1936.

SUNKIST	80	100s	126s	150s	176s	200s	220s	252s	288s	344s	392s	Av.
NEW YORK—
No sale today.
BOSTON—
Rooster, Orange			5.15	5.25	5.05	4.50	4.10	3.50	3.00	2.75	4.25
Carmencita, Placentia				5.00	4.90	4.40	3.95	3.40	2.65	2.30	3.60
PHILADELPHIA—
Advance, Tustin				5.05	5.10	4.90	4.75	4.15	3.40	2.80	4.50
CHICAGO—
Red C, Covina		5.05	5.05	5.05		4.30	3.70	3.10	2.80	3.80
Defiance, Downey					5.35	5.15	4.70	4.00		4.70
DETROIT—
Parex, Whittier			5.30	5.45	5.20	5.00	4.40	4.20	3.65	3.10	4.50
PITTSBURGH—
Fidelity, Glendora				4.75	4.65	4.50	4.35	4.25			4.35
Poinsettia, Fillmore			5.30	5.05	5.00	5.05	4.85	4.70	3.80	3.45	4.70
ST LOUIS—
Paul Neyron, La Verne					5.20	5.10	4.90	4.30	3.75		4.45
BALTIMORE—
Ventura Life, Camarillo		5.05	5.05	5.15	5.00	5.05	4.90	4.15	3.40		4.70

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—California oranges and lemons were about unchanged to slightly stronger in spots today at eastern and middle western auction centers.

Carlot auction sales averages per box of California citrus, were reported to the California Fruit Growers exchange on its own brands, and to the Associated Press on all others, as follows:

BOSTON. — Valencias lower in spots 288s and larger, doing better balance; lemons unchanged. Sales 5 cars oranges; 1 lemons.

Valencias

Mother Colony, RH, Skt., Anaheim, $3.60; Rooster, OR, Skt., Orange, $4.05; Carmencita PO, Skt., Placentia, $3.05; Scepter, OR, Skt., Orange, $5.40; Rooster, OR, Skt. Orange $4.25; Carmencita PO, Skt., Placentia, $3.60.

CHICAGO. — Valencias higher; lemons lower. Sales: 9 cars oranges; 3 lemons.

Valencias

Dreamflower, OR, chc., Orange, $3.35; Senator, OR, Skt., Frances, $4.10; Colonel OR, Skt., Tustin, $4.25; Happy Landing, OR, Redball, Tustin, $2.45.

DETROIT. — Valencias higher best lower balance; lemons steady fancy, lower balance. Sales: 6 cars oranges; 1 grapefruit.

Valencias

Reliable NO, Skt., La Habra, $2.65; Celebration, NO, Skt., Fullerton, $3.85.

PHILADELPHIA. — Valencias higher best, steady balance; lemons lower 360s, steady 300s fancy, higher balance. Sales: 3 cars oranges; 1 lemons.

Valencias

Geo. Washington, OR, Skt., Tustin, $6.40; Advance, OR, Skt., Tustin, $4.50; Cock of the Walk, OR, Skt., Orange, $3.85; Dreamflower, OR, chc., Orange $2.95.

PITTSBURGH. — Valencias lower; lemons lower 432s, unchanged balance. Sales: 5 cars oranges.

Valencias

Gold Wing, NO, Skt., Fullerton, $4.45; Blue Wing, NO, chc., Fullerton, $2.65; Dreamflower OR, chc., Orange, $3.05.

Real Estate Transfers

OCT. 31
(Courtesy Orange County Title Co.)

Walter Eaton et al to Aaron Buchheim 10 acres of land as shown in Book 55/282 of Leases.

Walter Eaton et al to Aaron Buchheim Land in Sec 36-7-8.

Union Bank & Trust Co of L. A. to Aaron Buchheim Land in Sec 36-7-8 also in Sec 1-8-8 and in Tr 103.

Norman Hoyle to Raymond Prothero et ux Part of Lot 1 Ro Canada de Los Alisos.

Robert E Corcoran et ux to W A Mills et ux Lot 23 Tr 267 Fullerton.

William C Morris to John Zweck Lots 126 and 127 Tr 723.

Elmira Jonker to A Stokesberry et ux Lot 16 Tr 220.

Lindley C Morton et ux to Amos Travis 173 acres of land Canon de S A Canyon.

Gazelle S Sharp to Herman Williams et ux Lot 12 Hartwick's Sub.

Bernard Burke et ux to B F Hahn et ux Land in Sec 10-5-11.

Charles A Eyman et ux to Fred S McClain Lot 7 Blk C Tr 233.

Frank P Tucker et ux to The Heirs etc of Sarah N Prinslow Decd Part Lot 212 Newport Heights.

Clarence C Prinslow As Amr Est Sarah N Prinslow Decd to John C McCollum et ux Part of Lot 212 Newport Hts.

Robert Goodson Trustee et ux to Herbert Shunk et ux Lot 43 Tr 398.

Herbert Shunk et ux to Mathias Uttenweiler et ux Lot 43 Tr 398.

Mathias Uttenweiler et ux to Clark Holloway et ux Lot 43 Tr 398.

Pacific Western Oil Corp to The Parties legally entitled thereto Land in Sec 13-5-11.

A B Marshall et al to Clara Tice De-Haven Part of Lot 3 Blk 35 Laguna Cliffs.

O A Sanders et ux to Glen C Evans Lot 6 Blk A Horace J Pullen's Fifth St Tr.

H E Higgins to John Hansen Lot 9 Tr 731.

Roy W Peacock et al to Patty Wild Part of Lot 9 Blk H Rogers Add to Lag Beach.

Patty Wild to Roy W Peacock Part of Lot 9 Blk H Rogers Add to Lag Beach.

Tom Musselman to Stanley C. Caballero et ux Lot 17 Tr 384.

Hattie T Fell et conj to Hattie T Fell Lot 9 Blk 16 Polytechnic Villa Tr.

sther P Chadbourn to Annie Web-Allison Lot 10 Blk 3 Tr 26.

William A Wolf et ux to Georgia B Henry Part of oLt 5 Tr 869.

Esther Belle Covert et conj to Mabel E Power an und 2/5 ints in and to Lots 506, 608, 610, 611, 709, 710 Newport Mesa Tr Also Lot 201 First Add to Newport Mesa Tr.

Metropolitan Trust Co of Cal to Fred S Haines et ux Lot 12 Blk 6 Tr 626.

Susan Streib to Mary E Hall et al Lot 2 Blk B Tr 413 Brookside Park.

Harry Norval Winchel et ux to George W Hunt et ux Lot 35 Tr 141.

The Journal's Swap Column

The Swap Column is a gratis service found only in The Journal. It is intended solely as a convenience for exchanging articles. It is not designated as a sales medium and no dealers will be permitted to use it. No automobile or real estate swap offers will be published. Bring your swap offers to The Journal, 117 East Fifth street, or telephone 3600.

J. W. Arnold, 1280 Seventeenth street, Westminster. I have does, litters, bucks and hutches, also one 6½ by 8½ view camera and an extra good milk goat. Will trade for anything I can use.

L. A. Produce

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—

BEANS—Best local Kentucky Wonders 4-4½c lb., brown seed Kentucky wonders 2½-3c, poorer 1½-2c; green pod 2½-3c; Canadian Wonder 2-2½c; Coachella Valley Kentucky Wonders 4-5c, Blue Lakes 3-3½c, Tulare Co. and Kern Co. Kentucky Wonders 4-5c; San Diego Co. Kentucky Wonders 4-5c, local limas 2-2½c, porer 1½c, best pole limas 3½-4c; Santa Barbara limas 3½-4c lb.; Carpinteria limas $1.60-1.65 per 40-lb. crt.

CUCUMBERS—Good San Diego Co. 90c-$1.00 lug. Orange Co. 75-90c; Imperial Valley 75-90c, best $1.00, fair 50-65c lug.

SQUASH—Local Orange Co., San Diego Co. and Coachella Valley white summer 30-35c lug; Imperial Valley white summer 25-30c; local San Pedro, Coachella Valley, Imperial Valley, Carpinteria and San Diego Co. Italian 30-40c; Orange Co. and Capistrano yellow crookneck 50-65c lug.

TOMATOES—Ventura Co. and Santa Maria Marglobes, 5x5s $1.35-1.50 lug, 6x6s 90c-$1.00, 6x7s 80-90c; San Diego Co. Marglobes, 4x5s 90c-$1.15, 5x5s $1.25-1.50, fair $1.00-1.10; Jack o' Hearts, 4x5s $1.10-1.15, 5x5s $1.35-1.40; Orange Co. Stone, 5x5s $1.25-1.35,

To excuse our faults on the grounds of our weakness is to quiet our fears at the expense of our hopes.—Milton.

Vol. 2, No. 160

EDITORIAL PAGE

November 3, 1936

This newspaper stands for a reunited people, for independence in all things political, and for honest journalism in its news and editorial columns.

Santa Ana Journal

Published daily except Sunday by Santa Ana Journal, Inc., at 117 E. Fifth Street, Santa Ana, Calif. E. F. Elfstrom, president and business manager; Braden Finch, vice president and editor.

Subscription rates: By mail, $6 a year; by carrier, 50 cents a month; from newsboys and news stands, 2 cents a copy. Entered as second-class matter May 1, 1935, at the postoffice at Santa Ana, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to it in this paper, and also the local news published here.

National advertising representative: West-Holliday-Mogensen Co., Inc., New York, 21 East 40th Street; Chicago, 360 N. Michigan Avenue; San Francisco, 220 Bush Street; Detroit, 3084 West Grand Boulevard; Los Angeles, 433 S. Spring Street; Seattle, 603 Stewart Street; Portland, 530 S. W. Sixth Avenue; St. Louis, 411 N. Tenth Street. Copies of The Journal may be secured at any of these offices, where full data regarding the Santa Ana market may be had.

Intimidation of Voters

ALREADY, both Democrats and Republicans over the nation have raised the usual cry of "intimidation of voters."

The claim that various employers have threatened to close their shops if Roosevelt should win—and that the federal government will drop all the people from relief rolls who vote for Landon.

Even if these stories were true, they are nothing to worry about, or cause great indignation, for, as the saying goes, they don't mean a thing.

Your American voter is a pesky critter—as stubborn as a mule when it comes to his vote. The surest way to get him to vote one way is to order him to vote the other. The great strength of our government lies in the fact that our voters cannot be herded like sheep to the polls.

So don't worry about intimidation of voters. Mr. and Mrs. Voter are marking their ballots for the men and issues they favor.

The fact that nearly all polling places are rightly guarded and managed throughout the land—exceptions being confined to a few large boss-controlled eastern cities—the candidate selected will be the one voluntarily chosen under the electoral system.

Intimidation will have no effect.

More couples married in Orange county last month than during the same period a year ago. Apparently everybody wasn't busy listening to political speeches.

The Winter 'Hobo' Invasion

THE ANNUAL winter rush of "hoboes" into Southern California is scheduled to start soon. But the traveling gentry may decide to stay away if a suitable plan is developed Thursday when representatives of all southern counties meet in Los Angeles to discuss the matter.

Preliminary reports indicate that the so-called "bums" and vagrants will be arrested and herded into concentration camps, where they will be put to work at manual labor. Sort of a revival of the rockpile idea.

There is a humanitarian side to the question, of course, but California is entitled to some protection against the annual cold weather invasion of penniless visitors—who eke out an existence by begging or other devious means.

This is especially true now, since unemployed persons can secure work or relief any place in the United States from government agencies if no private job is available.

If California will really find honest work for these westward bound "bums," instead of trying to prevent their entry by an illegal police blockade, we will soon find ourselves relieved.

Those itinerants who really want work will get it, and those who don't want it will turn back when they hear the news.

The election will be all over tonight, and Mrs. Simpson has gone into retirement after her divorce—so now we can go back to the Spanish war.

Voices From the Past

HOW would you like to see a talking picture of Abraham Lincoln, delivering the immortal Gettysburg address? Or of Marc Antony, in sound and color, asking the Romans to lend him their ears as he came not to praise Caesar, but to bury him?

Pictures of the real thing, that is—not some Hollywood actor in crepe whiskers or toga. Lincoln and Antony, photographed as they actually made history.

We will never get any record of those priceless moments, but the world of 2900 may see and hear the leaders of our day, such as Roosevelt, or, in Europe, King Edward VIII—or Mussolini.

Our government has started a file of sound and voice recordings of American leaders, and a few outstanding European leaders.

That gives the world leaders of today a chance to have their words and actions immortalized—on the screen, at least.

Your last chance to vote for president until 1940 ends at 7 o'clock tonight. Be sure to vote.

Welcome to New Readers

WE WISH to welcome the hundreds of new readers who have subscribed to The Journal during the election campaign.

Their support is evidence that The Journal is filling the need for a live-wire county seat paper which prints ALL THE NEWS on both sides of important public issues—a paper that the people can trust.

With the addition of the new color comic section on Tuesdays and the expansion of radio newscasts over KVOE to include world-wide Associated Press reports four times a day—along with many other features soon to be announced—The Journal will be of even more value and entertainment to you in the future.

Lettuce Strike Ends

WITH the maritime strike rapidly racing toward an eruption, it is a relief to read that the Salinas lettuce shed strike is over. The victory apparently lies completely with the employers.

What a waste of time, energy and money the unfortunate lettuce area walkout proved to be! It is quite apparent that the vast national labor surplus and accompanying business and taxation conditions handicap almost any strike so severely as to assure its failure from the very start.

Whimsies of O. O. McIntyre

O. O. McIntyre

There is a silver-haired type of clerk in New York who dignifies the calling of salesmanship. So much so that what many regard as a lesser occupational niche takes on an aristocratic, professional air—like the law, medicine or pulpit.

This clerky contingent is thinning, but they are still to be found. I think especially at Tiffany's and other established silver-smiths, linen shops, art galleries and department stores. The grocery shop of Charles is also an example of austerity in the calling.

To some these Lloyd George looking oldsters might be called putterers. They are stooped and have none of the lickety split of the more modern exponent. They speak with the labial softness of the gently deaf, never force a sale and are so willing to show everything.

* * *

Any number are deacons in their suburban churches. They have sent their children through first class colleges and finishing schools. In a small way they are often book and art collectors and there's scarcely one that does not indulge a sundown meditation in his garden.

* * *

Lawyers who protect straying spouses have their hands full with a new blackmail dodge—the spurious diary. Since the crepe de Chine ladies were ham-strung by abolishment of the heart balm racket they have been wrinkling brows on what next. Anyone may write a diary containing all sorts of comic strip capers and by daily dates give it the smack of authenticity. Of course, the idea is one of pure threat. Unless the sap puts dough on the line, the diary will, it is intimated, be turned over to newspapers that relish that type of scandal. Several big shakedowns have been whispered.

Major Bowes to my notion has mastered more than almost any other entertainer of the period the technique of informality. It looks so easy but is a studied art, depending largely on the trick of timing. Bowes in this seemingly casual offhandedness makes everything he has to say sound newly minted. Will Rogers had the same gift. The approach is hesitant and all of a sudden the golden nugget is revealed by a quick swing of the pick.

* * *

Despoilation of Central park continues. The north end seems entirely taken over by hoodlums, black and white, and the middle and southerly sections grow increasingly shabby. Promenaders who love beauty and solace have almost entirely abandoned the breathing space so close to the city's heart. Sprawlers are permitted to lie about in shirtless, sockless and shoeless disarray. Motorists are often targets for hurled mud, stones and debris. It has much of the rowdiness of the old Five Points down town. There have been any number of holdups and sluggings in unguarded meanders in the past year. Most automobilists scoot through as something they wish to leave quickly behind.

* * *

I notice Arakel's Armenian restaurant on lower Lexington avenue has gone the way of most New York eating places—a memory. A brightly gaudy French place has taken over the old stand. Arakel's was one of the leisurely oriental and unornamental spots whose patronage was slim but constant. Prices were ridiculously low. Incredible soup for a dime and lamb skewered on a spike, 25 cents. Waiters expected no more than a dime tip. One might see Helen Rowland. Also Konrad Bercovici, Idwal Jones and Achmed Abdullah.

* * *

Thingumabobs: George Arliss wants to return to Hollywood for a farewell picture . . . George Raft is considered a natural by tailor fitters . . . When Fountaine Fox has his back hair trimmed he often catches cold . . . Mrs. Ernest Hemingway rebels at posing with her husband for the news reels . . . The failure of Jockey Sande to make a hit as a crooner was his bitterest disappointment . . . Herbert Bayard Swope was the season's most successful guesser at the tracks . . . Winston Churchill, diplomatist and orator, never went beyond grade school, and has a defective speech.

* * *

Rugged rapartee from the hamburger hutches: An impatient customer last night snarled at the counterman: "A little service, you!" To which he replied: "And you'll get as little as I can give, fella!"

BRIGHT MOMENTS

When Thaddeus Stevens, the American statesman, was a young lawyer, he had a case before a bad-tempered judge in an obscure Pennsylvania town. Under what he considered an erroneous ruling, the case was decided against him, whereupon he threw his books on the desk, picked up his hat, scattered well-nigh direct imprecations all around, then glared at the judge. The judge asked the lawyer if he had intended to express his contempt for the court. Stevens turned to him deferentially and in feigned amazement, said: "Express my contempt for this court? No, sir, I am trying to conceal it, your honor," adding, as he turned to leave, "but I find it hard to do."

EVERYDAY MOVIES

By Denys Wortman

© 1936 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. Tm. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.—All rights reserved

"I'd make a Republican out of you in ten minutes if I didn't have this headache and could remember my arguments."

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

(Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen today hand the Brass Ring, good for one free ride on the Washington Merry-Go-Round, to James Aloysius Farley.)

WASHINGTON.—This campaign will be the last appearance of Big Jim Farley in big top public office for some time to come.

Jim is getting out. He is not resigning as Democratic national chairman. But otherwise he is definitely going back to private life.

And behind that lies a story.

It is a story, in its earlier stages, of a youngster whose saloon-keeper father was killed by a horse when Farley was 11, who managed to get a little schooling while working in his mother's grocery store, in a brickyard and in a shipyard, and who pulled himself up from an itinerant pedler of gpysum to the chief supplier of building materials in New York City.

And in its later stages—with which we are primarily concerned—it is a story of Mr. Roosevelt's postmaster general, who two years ago was on the edge of the political precipice, but who now has stage-managed one of the most efficient presidential campaigns in history.

For, whether you like Jim or not, you can't get away from the fact that as a campaign manager he is good. He has taken more on the chin, squawked less and stood up better in the clinches than almost any other of his ex-cabinet colleagues.

* * *

HUEY'S CHARGES

There was a time when it looked as if Jim Farley's political life would not last the night. Few people knew how near the brink he was. It happened when Huey Long was airing his charges in 1935. Huey was then at the crest of his popularity. Jim was at the bottom of his.

Franklin Roosevelt knew that. He has a habit of dropping overboard those who become political deadweight, and Farley was definitely in that category.

So Roosevelt let Big Jim fight his own battles, stew in his own juice.

Jim, always loyal to his chief, worried plenty, said nothing. But, like any wife, Bess Farley was enraged. She blamed Jim for ever working for a man like that. She pointed out that he had spent all his savings on politics, that they could not afford a car, that she and the children had to ride in taxis . . .

"While you," she stormed, "while you spend your time making political speeches!"

Jim Farley is a very patient man. He said nothing to his wife and he said nothing to Franklin Roosevelt. But he put up a defense to Huey Long's senate committee which cleared him completely—and the committee contained some hard-boiled customers.

* * *

TRIGGER-MAN

The truth is Jim has had to take the rap on a lot of stuff for which he was not responsible. Jim is a machine politician—and would be the last to deny or apologize for it. But certain rancid deeds credited to him are not of his doing. In machine politics, like the army, you take orders and keep your mouth shut.

This is not always easy for Jim. Under his appearance of rhinocerous hide, he has the cuticle of a newborn babe. And the dead-cats hurled at his bald dome in retaliation for boners which were not his, hurt him grievously. But he is too astute an operator to show it.

No newsman ever was berated by Big Jim for anything written about him. Jim may remark pleasantly:

"That was a low ball you pitched me, fella." But on the surface his attitude is: "Just so you mention me, boys, and spell the name right."

It is this shrewd friendliness that accounts for the fact that Farley's press conferences, next to those of the President, are the most heavily attended of any in Washington.

* * *

PERSONAL TRIUMPH

The campaign now closing has been a great personal triumph for Jim. From the role of whipping-boy of the New Deal, he has emerged as the undisputed ruler of the national committee and the campaign.

Here he has been right in his element. Jim's original handicap was that he didn't know the United States existed west of the Hudson river. When it came to making speeches out in the prairie states, he was what his name in the old English indicates—"ferley," "a strange sight."

But at machine politics he is superb. He knows the bosses of every state and municipal Democratic machine in the United States, and furthermore he knows just how far he can depend on them. At political organization Jim is a genius. Even Republican National Chairman Hamilton, more than once, has bitterly—and wistfully—attested to that fact.

* * *

EXIT FARLEY

Naturally, Jim is proud of his work and success.

There was a time, a year or so ago, when he hankered to be governor of New York, with visions of eventually going to the senate in place of Senator Royal S. Copeland, whom he secretly dislikes just as much as Copeland dislikes him.

Jim still harbors those ambitions. But, being a realist, he knows that his chances are pretty slim.

Right now he is interested only in two things: first, a landslide reelection of the President; second, a big-money job after the first of the year.

Being a cabinet member put Jim $50,000 in the hole. Forty-eight years old and with a family of growing children—to say nothing of Mrs. Farley—he is concerned about their welfare. He is too old a hand not to know how ephemeral is political success.

So, much as he loves the Washington scene, James Aloysius Farley plans to cash in on his success while the cashing is good.

Note.—Friends of Farley say liquor interests have approached him with a proposition to become the Judge Landis of their industry. He may also succeed Will Hays as "czar" of the movie business.

(Copyright, 1936)

SCIENCE NEWS

A new comb which is equipped with a cutting blade, is being marketed by a New York firm. It cuts and thins the hair as it is used. A thin, sharp blade fits into a slot on top of the comb and is held in place by a metal guard. The teeth are slotted, and the blade extends down into them, being held rigid between the two walls of the comb.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

NOV. 3, 1911

G. A. Whidden gives an interesting account of his recent trip to San Francisco, where he was a delegate from a local Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to the National Humane convention held the first week of October.

* * *

The Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. A. S. Holbrook, 303 Orange avenue, this afternoon. Refreshments will be served and the gentlemen are cordially invited to be present at 5:30 p. m.

* * *

Henry B. Harris will present in this city at the Grand Opera house Sunday night "The Commuters," a new hurricans of laughter, by James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady" and "The Traveling Salesman." A wealth of merriment is in store.

* * *

Miss Kate Frazier, who has finished her course in nursing at the Santa Ana hospital, was the honoree Wednesday evening at a pleasant three-course chicken dinner given by Miss Martha Schildmeyer. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. Schildmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoefer; Misses Alfreda Holzgrafe, Helen Hoefer; Messrs. Hugh Golaher, Harold Holzgrade, Fred and Oscar Schildmeyer.

* * *

E. E. Cooley returned today from Porterville, where he and Maxim Smith of this city own 160 acres. He brought with him samples of oranges, peaches and pomegranates grown in that vicinity.

One Man's Opinion

By Duncan Ellsworth Clark

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is an informative, analytical daily feature on current topics. The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily the same as those held by The Journal.

Changing of Political Control

ONE POINT in this political campaign has not been stressed. That is the necessity for a change of political controls when changed economic conditions have come to pass. The party has carried the country safely through a period of storm is usually unfitted by that very expence to continue in leadership. There is such a state of mind as political psychology, a certain fixity of purpose and vision, which renders continued progress impossible. We see it constantly in private life. He who builds a business, or fashion an institution, or achieves a victory is not the one to preside over the further destiny of what has been won through toil and sacrifice.

* * *

Our political history is a long sucession of such changes and the careful student can trace national progress through such shifting of power. The foundations of national unity under the constitution were laid by the Federalists. But gratitude is not a conspicuous trait with the public. In a few short years it was evident that the Federalists had done their work. To have continued them longer in federal control would have shackled progress. So new life and energy were needed, and were ushered in by the Jeffersonian Democrats.

* * *

Years of political power paved the way for the retirement of the Democratic party when the slavery agitation threatened national existence. From a party of liberty and equality the Democratic machinery became champion of slavery, oppression and ultra conservatism. The Republican party under Lincoln arose as defenders of human rights and, in the shock of war, blasted the way to a larger freedom.

* * *

But the party of Lincoln, which saved the nation, was rendered by that very achievement incapable of serving the union which had been saved. The darkest chapter in our national history deals with the years immediately following the Civil war. With the Democratic party disrupted and paralyzed and with the Republican party drunk with power and obsessed with military glory the nation drifted helplessly into confusion.

* * *

The Wilson administration staggered through the emergency of the World war. But the inevitable post-war deflation and return to "normalcy" demanded other controls. The natural outcome of the "twelve long years" was hopeless floundering in the pit of depression. New controls were necessary to recovery. And now that recovery is well on the way another change of political control is indicated. Those agencies which serve in an emergency, faithful as they may be, acquire an emergency psychology which does not function well under changed conditions. A new order continually treads on the heels of a vanishing state of affairs.

What Other Editors Say

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FACTS

(Memphis Commercial Appeal)

No one can charge the United States Chamber of Commerce with dealing out New Deal propaganda. Yet the routine reports of that institution this month, coming on the eve of the Presidential election are the most convincing vindications that the policies of President Roosevelt have received. The other day the chamber reported that 7,000,000 men and women have been restored to employment in private industry since the low point of the depression. What a contrast between that fact and the moaning and groaning from Republican headquarters about the New Deal's failure to put men to work.

Hardly had the chamber's report on employment been made public before industrial leaders all over the country were cheered by the chamber's report of mounting exports of American manufactured goods. In a year when our agricultural exports were sharply reduced because of the greatest drought in American history we the export of fifty-one out of sixty-have scored a sensational gain in eight of the lines of manufactured goods which we normally place in the channels of international trade.

SCIENCE NEWS

A new bullet, shaped like the nipple of a baby's bottle, is said to have four times the acceleration of the normal .30 caliber projectile. A hollow base, twice the diameter of the body part, gives the exploding gases greater surface on which to act, and speed the bullet toward its mark at the rate of 3600 miles per hour. Special grooves in the barrel steady the bullet in flight.

Journalaffs

By ART SHANNON

Howdy, folks! This is Election day. Did you vote early? So'd we.

* * *

Hints to Voters: Polling places are generally situated in somebody's basement. Even if your candidate doesn't win, you can always swipe a few pieces of cordwood.

* * *

"Our campaign system," declares a writer, "can be roughly called a century old."

We could think of rougher things to call it than that.

* * *

EPITAPH

Here lies the body of Lemuel McTreen,
Proposed to Lucille but called her Irene.

* * *

One of Miss Peggy Hopkins Joyce's ex-husbands now threatens to write a book. An enterprising publisher should line up all the boys and bring out a new five-foot shelf.

* * *

A sports writer says that golf caddies gamble, tell lies, and borrow money. The little cusses seem to be scarcely better than members of the club.

* * *

POET'S CORNER

Wild parties have a certain way
Of lasting on from day to day,
That it is better to depart
Before such parties get a start.
—Contrib.

* * *

Vote for Cuthbert J. Squizzledunk for official inspector of horse-cars in Santa Ana.

* * *

POLITICAL BULLETIN

All major political parties are reported to have received the following telegram from their agents in Florida: "Please have all candidates cancel campaign speeches in this state. We've had enough wind this season already."

Skinny Skribbles

Around and About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

It won't be long now. Within a few hours from the time you are reading this column, that is if you do read it, there will be a decision in the presidential election. If you vote you will have helped make that decision. If you have not voted there is still time for you to do your duty as an American citizen. The polls do not close until 7 o'clock. If you vote you are just that much better citizen than the man or woman who does not vote, because you show that much more interest in the destiny of your country.

* * *

Lot o' folks will be displeased with the election. Lot of them pleased. In that respect this election will be no different than its predecessors. It is a penalty attached to every election that someone must be defeated. I've seen elections where both candidates for the same office were able men and good friends, but the law said I could only vote for one of them, and keep out of the penitentiary. But I did have a right to vote once, and that privilege and duty has always been availed.

* * *

Curtis Burrow wanted me to tell him how the election was going, and I referred him to Jim Farley. I thought the information from that source would be more acceptable. And when Ray Humphrey put up the same inquiry I sent him to John Hamilton. So I had two pleased customers, but one of them won't be after the voting is over. The more presidential elections I see the more I am in favor of a six-year term with the president eligible for just one term. It would minimize the danger of machine politics.

* * *

Hallowe'en might have been a happy time for the "kids," but the janitors in the business district have a different opinion. They were busily engaged Monday morning removing, or trying to, the soap lines which the jubilants marked on the display windows. And if you think it's an easy job to get that soap off, ask a janitor, and he will tell you different. It sticks closer than a brother. With the aid of a razor blade, some gasoline and a strong arm it will yield, but it is harder to get it off than it is to erase a name from a relief payroll.

* * *

Fritz Elliott did not list his property for sale, but he had a prospect Sunday. Lady called and inquired if she could look through the house. The request was something of a shock. Fritz didn't have any intention of selling. Here is what happened. The prank was played by the Hallowe'en celebrants, who placed a "For Sale" sign on the front lawn, and which was undiscovered by Elliott even though he did mow the lawn Sunday morning. It does go to prove, however, that there is an inquiry for residence property.

* * *

The election closed as most elections do—with broadcasts and broadsides. The old custom of waiting until the last few hours to make accusations and counter accusations was resorted to. Why this method of campaign is adopted, is hard to understand. It isn't good political sportsmanship. If you have something to say about a candidate why not hand it to him early so the accused can have ample time to defend himself? Many a fine citizen is prevented from giving his county, state or nation a valuable service because he does not wish to become a target for personal abuse.

* *

The fellow to whom you lost your bet will call on your tomorrow.

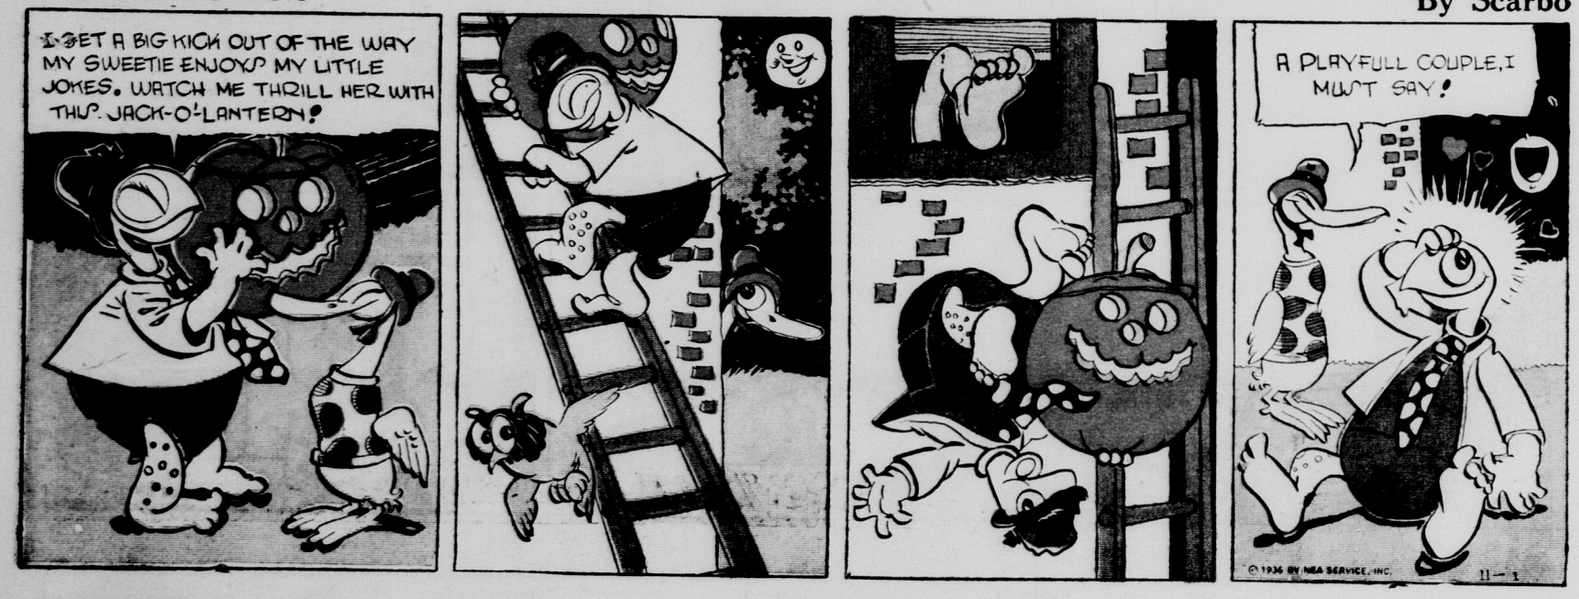
* * *

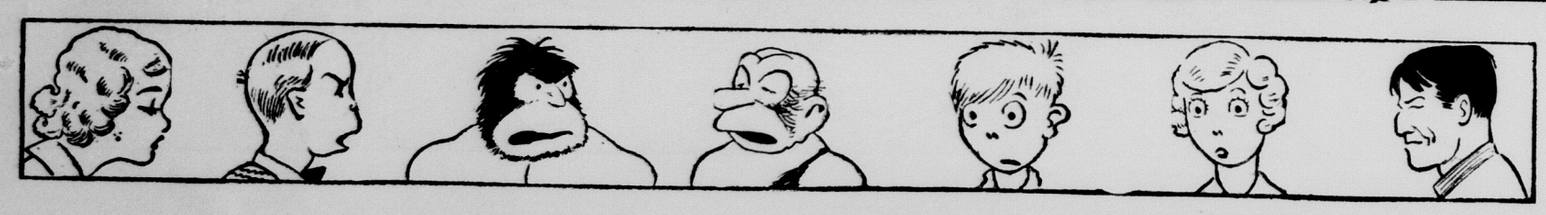
HOUSE OF MANY MANSIONS

This afternoon friends of John N. Anderson gathered at the chapel to give evidence of their esteem to an early settler who established through his integrity and neighborly kindness a strong place in the heart of the community. This pioneer was a forceful and contributing character to the growth of Orange county. He was well equipped to meet the varied problems of life. He selected the law as a profession, served two sessions in the state senate, was better known in later years for his work as inheritance tax appraiser for Orange county, and esteemed highly as a member of the Orange County Bar association. His was not an idle life. He was fraternally and spiritually active. Such men are missed when the shades of night are drawn around the couch of eternal repose. So they laid John Anderson to rest this afternoon, but there returned to the city he so long served, in the hearts of his loved ones and friends, a memory of sweet fellowship which seems to appropriate itself to the old settlers who endear themselves through their long and useful career. "It is very singular," said Hawthorne, "how the fact of a man's death often seems to give people a truer idea of his character, whether for good or evil, than they have ever possessed while he was living and acting among them. Death is so genuine a fact that it excludes falsehood, or betrays its emptiness, it is a touchstone that proves the gold, and dishonors the baser metal."

THE COMIC ZOO

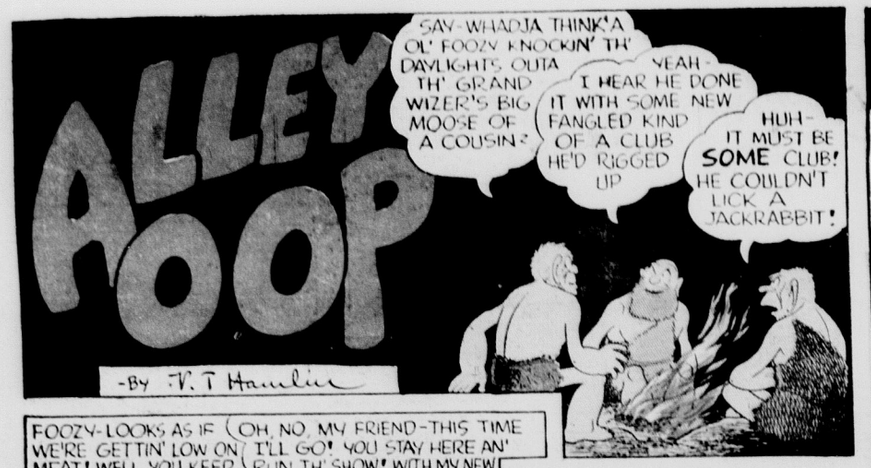
By Scarbo

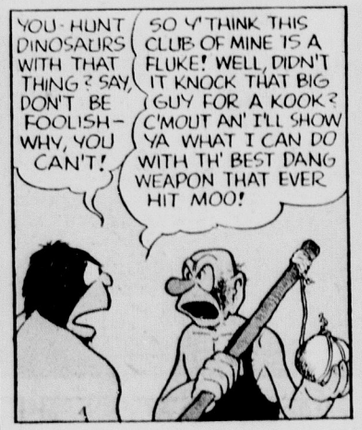


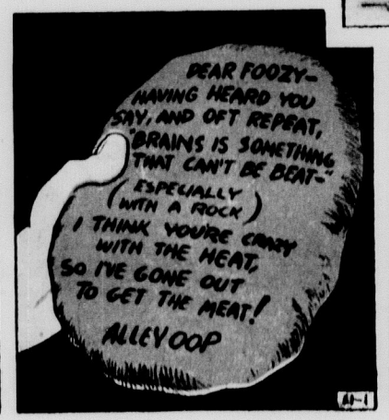


ALLEY OOP

-By V. T. Hamlin





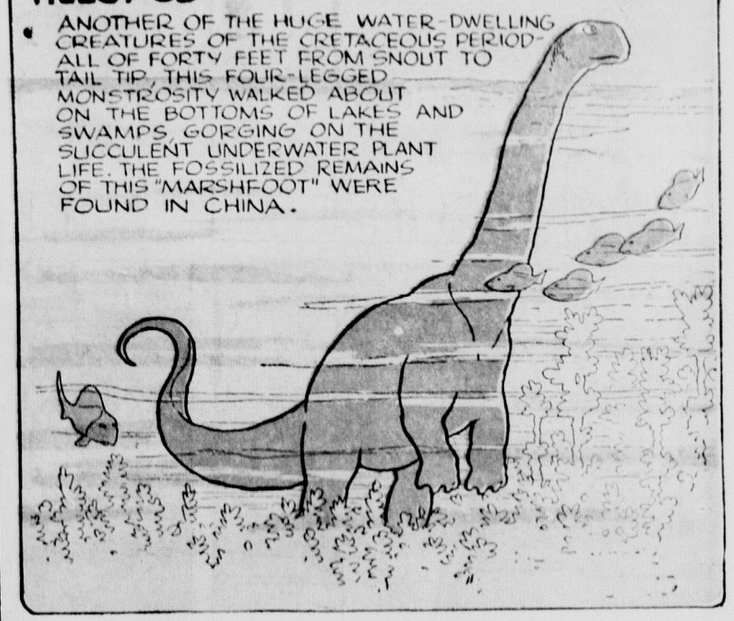


DINNY'S FAMILY ALBUM

MONSTERS OF THE PREHISTORIC PAST

HELOPUS

ANOTHER OF THE HUGE WATER-DWELLING CREATURES OF THE CRETACEOUS PERIOD- ALL OF FORTY FEET FROM SNOUT TO TAIL TIP, THIS FOUR-LEGGED MONSTROSITY WALKED ABOUT ON THE BOTTOMS OF LAKES AND SWAMPS, GORGING ON THE SUCCULENT UNDERWATER PLANT LIFE. THE FOSSILIZED REMAINS OF THIS "MARSHFOOT" WERE FOUND IN CHINA.



THIS CURIOUS WORLD

CHIMNEY SWIFTS

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

By Blosser

ANNIBELLE

by VIRGINIA KRAUSMANN

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

SAY ANNIBELLE, WHO'S THAT CUTE LOOKING BLOND OVER THERE?

OH, THAT'S BETTY, A SORORITY SISTER OF MINE, AND A LITTLE GO-GETTER, IF THERE EVER WAS ONE.

HUM— WONDER WHY SHE'S SO INTERESTED IN WATCHING THE TEAM PRACTICE?

SHE PROBABLY IS LOOKING FOR HER HUSBAND.

HUSBAND? OH— THAT'S DIFFERENT! WHO IS HE?

SHE HASN'T PICKED HIM-OUT YET.

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. 11-1

HERBY

By CLYDE LEWIS

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

MY, MY, MRS. TWIP - WHAT A PERFECTLY GEORGEOUS HAT!

OH, QUITE! I HAVE ALL MY HATS IMPORTED FROM PARIS - I CAN'T BEAR THESE LOCAL MODELS!

THE MILLINERS HERE HAVE NO MORE IMAGINATION THAN A COW... THEIR HATS ARE ALL THE SAME..

GOODNESS, MRS. TWIP, IT MUST BE WONDERFUL TO HAVE SUCH GOOD TASTE! MY HUSBAND ALWAYS TELLS ME MY HATS LOOK LIKE MANHOLE COVERS..

SSSH - BE QUIET, NOW..... HERE IS THE LOCAL MILLINER - WATCH HER TURN GREEN WITH ENVY WHEN SEES MY NEW HAT...

MOLLY'S HAT SHOP

HA

JUS' A MINUTE, MRS. TWIP... I WANT T'GET A GOOD LOOK AT YER NEW HAT...

WITH PLEASURE, MY LITTLE CHERUB.

Y'KNOW, MRS. TWIP, I THINK THERE MUST BE SUMPN WRONG WITH MOLLY, TH' MILLINER, 'CAUSE IT DOESN'T MAKE ME SICK WHEN I LOOK AT YER HAT....

HEY, WOT'S ALL TH' EXCITEMENT ABOUT??

MOLLY, TH' MILLINER, AN' MRS. TWIP ARE HAVIN' A FIST FIGHT OUT IN TH' MIDDLE OF TH' STREET!

GOSH, CAN YA IMAGINE THAT! WIMMEN CAN'T SEEM T'GET ALONG WITH EACH OTHER — I WONDER WHAT STARTED TH' FIGHT.....

11-1

THE NUT BROS.

CHES & WAL

YOU WON'T HAVE TO SEND YOUR SUIT TO THE CLEANERS ANY MORE! I'VE MADE A NEW COLORLESS FLUID THAT WILL DYE YOUR SUIT THE SAME COLOR AS THE SPOT!

TO HELP PEOPLE DISTINGUISH BETWEEN HARD AND SOFT COAL IS A SIMPLE PROBLEM — I MERELY DIP TH' SOFT COAL INTO RUBBER AND TH' HARD COAL INTO CEMENT!

5X4=9

2X2=8

TEACHER

BUT THEN

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. N-1

Major Hoople

JOBS I WOULD LIKE:

SHOE-SHINE BOY IN THE WILDS OF BORNEO!

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

DRAT IT! I MISSED AGAIN! EGAD, THESE SHELLS MUST BE BLANKS!

BAR-ROOMP

AW, THOSE SCOFFERS AT HOME NEVER WILL BELIEVE ME, UNLESS I BRING BACK THE TWO BIRDS I SHOT!

B-B-BY N-N-NOAH'S B-BEARD IT'S C-COLD! T-TO R-R-RETRIEVE THE K-K-KILL IS M-MORE D-DIFFICULT THAN B-BAGGING THE G-G-GAME!

WHEN I WAS A KID, WE CALLED THEM MUD HENS!

YEH, MAJOR, THEY ARE AS FINE A PAIR OF POND CROWS AS I EVER SAW!

DOO-BEWDIES, MY BET — KA-CHOO — BLACK DEAL!

YOU WADED IN TH' ICY WATER AFTER THOSE TWO MUD HENS? YOU BIG BARN OWL — GET YOURSELF UPSTAIRS AND INTO YOUR BATHROBE!

MAJOR HOOPLE

AH, MY WORD! A BRACE OF BEAUTIES!

THREE CHEERS! I GOT THEM!

HAR-R-RUMPH-YES, A BRACE OF THE RARE SMALL-BILLED BLACK TEAL, BAGGED ON THE WING — PROOF OF MY UNERRING AIM, AND LIKE A TRUE SPORTSMAN, I WADED FOR THEM IN McDUFFY'S POND — AH-H-KACH-OO-!

YOU COULDN'T SCARE THAT BRAND OF COOT OFF TH' WATER WITH A STEAM CALLIOPE! YOU MUST HAVE PLUGGED 'EM WHILE THEY WERE SITTING STILL — THEY'RE AS FULL OF HOLES AS A COMMUTER'S TICKET!

KA-CHOO — KA-CHOO! BAH! YOUR SCOFFING JIBES SHALL BE REWARDED BY WATCHING ME RELISH THEM AT THE EVENING FESTIVE BOARD — I SHALL HAVE THE MADAM PREPARE THEM IN A MANNER BEFITTING THE DISCRIMINATING TASTE — KA-CHOO — OF A SPORTSMAN OF MY EXPERIENCE!

MY UNCLE RODGER USED TO STEW THEM UP FOR TH' CAT — BUT WE NEVER COULD GET HER TO EAT THEM!

THE MAJOR'S PRIZE CATCH —

HERE — DRINK THIS!

MY WORD! A HOT TODDY — I MUST CALL UP MARTY AND PLAN ANOTHER DUCK HUNT!

11-1

Myra North — Special Nurse

by Ray Thompson and Charles Coll

AT THE KING'S BEDSIDE, MYRA CAN SCARCELY RESTRAIN HER ANXIETY OVER THE SUCCESS OF HER PLAN TO SAVE ERIC FROM ZORIA'S VENGEANCE.

PERHAPS THIS YOUNG LIEUTENANT ALREADY IS DEAD!

WE CAN ONLY HOPE THAT MAJOR DRUKER IS SUCCESSFUL YOUR MAJESTY-

IN THE MEANTIME, THE LOYAL MAJOR, ON HIS WAY TO ERIC'S APARTMENT, IS ATTRACTED BY THE THRONGS IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE....

ZORIAS UP TO HIS OLD TRICKS, I SEE!

BY JUPITER! THAT'S ROLPH THEY'RE LEADING UP THE STEPS- STOP THE CAR!

STOP! IN THE NAME OF THE KING!

WHO DARES COMMAND IN THE NAME OF THE KING?

I DO, COLONEL.. AND I BEAR A WARRANT FOR THE ARREST OF ERIC ROLPH.. OVER THE KING'S HAND AND SEAL! SEE FOR YOURSELF....

ZORIA GROWS LIVID WITH RAGE, AS HE REALIZES HE CANNOT IGNORE AN ORDER FROM THE KING, IN PUBLIC. HE ATTEMPTS A FEEBLE SHOW OF LOYALTY ....

SO THE KING'S CONDITION IMPROVES! EXCELLENT NEWS, MAJOR.. I SURRENDER THE PRISONER TO YOUR CUSTODY-

AS MAJOR DRUKER DESCENDS THE PLATFORM WITH ERIC, THE CROWD DISPLAYS AN ANGRY MOOD AT BEING DEPRIVED OF ITS SHOW....

ZORIA!

YEA, ZORIA!

WHILE, IN THE PALACE

I'LL BE RELIEVED ANY MOMENT NOW, YOUR MAJESTY. PRETEND TO TAKE WHATEVER MEDICINE THEY GIVE YOU. BUT SWALLOW NONE OF IT, IF YOU WOULD LIVE TO SEE THE PRINCE AGAIN.

ONCE MORE IN THE NURSES' CHAMBER, ADJOINING THE KING'S BEDROOM, MYRA SINKS ON THE BED, EXHAUSTED.

WHAT WAS THAT? I THOUGT I HEARD FOOTSTEPS INSIDE THE WALL!

HERE'S YOUR LIEUTENANT, NURSE - SAFE AND SOUND... BUT I HAD TO SMUGGLE HIM THRU THE SECRET PASSAGE FROM THE RIVER - THE CROWD IS UGLY!

ERIC!

MYRA! YOU'VE SAVED MY LIFE!

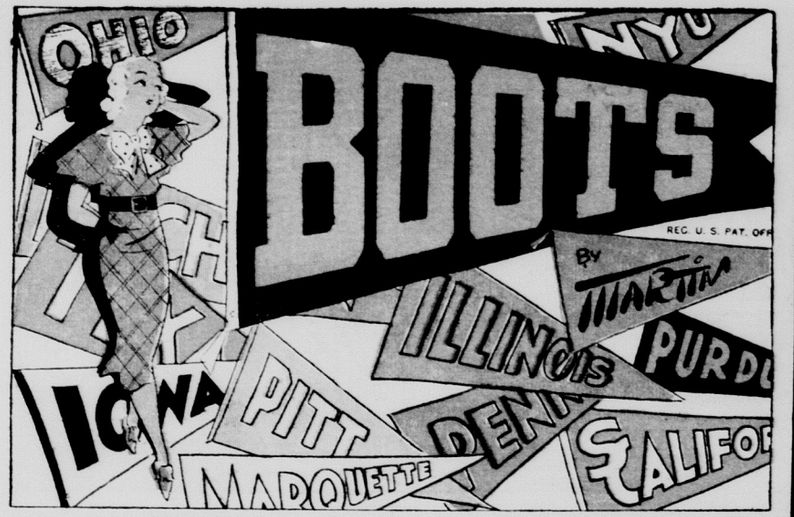
TIME FOR THAT, LATER, ERIC.. WE MUST GET CURLY TO THE PALACE, WITHOUT DELAY!

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

BOOTS

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

By Martin



OH, I'LL BET YOU TELL THAT TO ALL THE GIRLS

WOTTA Y'MEAN, "ALL TH' GIRLS"? THERE ISN'T BUT ONE, SO FAR AS I'M CONCERNED

DON'T RUSH OFF! WOULD YOU LIKE TO COME IN AND STAY AWHILE?

SAY, I DIDN'T KNOW Y'WERE A MIND-READER

GREETINGS, PROF.

AHH THERE, SCRAPPY! I WANT TO COMPLIMENT YOU ON THE SPLENDID GAME YOU PLAYED

GO AHEAD! I RECKON I WON THAT GAME FOR US, ALL RIGHT

THERE'S NO DOUBT OF IT

HEH HEH! DERN SMART STUFF, MY INTRODUCIN' TH' VISITORS' STAR BALL TOTER TO BOOTS, BEFORE TH' GAME

HE FELL FOR HER LIKE TH' OL' PINE TREE! DIDYA NOTICE, IN TH' LAST QUARTER, HE HAD A TOUCHDOWN RIGHT IN HIS LAP, WHEN HE STOPPED TO WAVE TO HER?

SHE SWEPT HIM OFF HIS FEET, EH?

NAW, I DID .....ON TH' FIVE YARD LINE

© 1936 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

BOOKS

by Martin